

Track Title	Session Title	Speaker	Session Description
<h1>Monday, October 5 at 1:40 Eastern</h1>
Community Outreach	Creatively Reaching Out: Go And Tell The People	Miss PattyCake (Jean Thomason)	"As the Father has sent me, I am sending you." How can you get out of the box of your building? Go to your community and meet a need. Create family fun days. Host special events and attract those in your city. Have a concert/movie/picnic. Reach into homes via media. Partner with other churches for greater impact. Become a brighter light in your area. Make and execute a plan for outreach so you can share God's big love with big and little lives.
Creative Teaching	A Creative Process You Can Use	Justyn Smith	Have you ever wondered what goes into effective, creative teaching sessions? Take a journey inside Justyn's successful playbook as he shares how anyone can create a system and environment of creativity in their ministry.
Curriculum Blueprint	Creating Your Own Curriculum	Corinne Noble	Have you always wanted to give writing your own curriculum a try? Are you tired of using up your entire budget on expensive curriculum that you have to heavily edit every week? Find out how to go from a blank page of paper to a full curriculum series.
Early Childhood Ministry	The Joy Of Teaching Preschoolers	B.A. Snider	There is nothing quite like seeing the joy in a preschooler's face as they experience something for the first time. The joy of seeing them learn about Jesus and laying a foundation for their growth in a relationship with the Creator of the universe is, in a word, AWESOME! Join me for some tips on teaching your young ones in this crazy, yet joyous, season of life.
Family Ministry	Transforming Families Through Faith At Home	Katrina Dorroh	Families want to pass their love for Jesus onto their kids, but often feel inadequate. Find out some key ways you can come alongside families to help parents/children grow in their relationship with God, create meaningful memories, and join in on the mission God has for them.
Generational Discipleship	The Grand Awakening	Larry Fowler	God has begun a powerful movement of intentional grandparenting that will continue to gain momentum for years to come. Join the movement and awaken Christian grandparents in your church to be instruments of grace and truth, and influence the youngest generations. This session is both for children's pastors who want to be more effective equippers and motivators of grandparents and for grandparents themselves who want to leave a legacy in their families.
Hot Topics	Ministering To Children With Anxiety	Abby Koontz	Anxiety in children is on the rise and their world can seem overwhelming. We will look at some practical Bible-based ways to talk to, encourage, and challenge children dealing with anxiety.
Kidmin In The Small Church	In The Thick Of It	Lyndee Barton	If you're in kidmin, you're no stranger to the phrase "eating, breathing, and sleeping ministry." Sometimes we get caught up in the motions of our day-to-day To-Do list of ministry (especially in a smaller church) that we forget to make sure our massive list points us towards the direction God wants us to go. If it doesn't, we've wasted a lot of time and energy. How can we make sure our list doesn't send us down a rabbit trail? Let's brainstorm some answers together.
Kidmin Rookies	KidMin Admin 101	Brittany Nelson	Administration provides the solid framework in which your ministry functions, and without it, things crumble. Whether administration is your spiritual gift or your worst nightmare, we'll talk about tools and ideas to help you rock the administrative aspect of your role as a ministry leader.
Leadership In Ministry	Shepherding Your Volunteers	Brian Dollar	Going beyond recruiting and training, this session gives practical tips for how leaders can spiritually feed and facilitate growth in their volunteers.
Longevity In Ministry	Getting That Second Wind!	Jack Henry	In this session, Jack will share a first-hand testimony of when he almost dropped off the scene and how he overcame the obstacles to now continue strong as ever! You, too, can receive that second wind!

Track Title	Session Title	Speaker	Session Description
Multisite Ministry	Collaboration	Donnie Thaden	Multisite kidmin creates awesome opportunities for kingdom growth while also posing many challenges. Learn how to have victory as a team when you work together to glorify Christ. The key is collaboration—many parts working together (1 Corinthians 12). Discover the essentials that bring unity, momentum, and success to your team. We are better together.
Preteen Ministry	4 Reasons Why A Ministry To Preteens Is Essential For Your Church	Patrick Snow and Sean Sweet	It's a critical but short time that you don't want to miss when kids can begin to really own their own faith. It's a little weird and messy, but there are developmental reasons driving your preteen's actions.
Safety In Ministry	Take 5 For Safety	Melodie Bissell	Melodie introduces the five steps to implementing a safe environment and the standards every church should embrace. Whether you are a seasoned leader or just starting out, these five steps and standards established by North American experts in child safety will challenge all participants to not take short cuts but to build a strong, safe operation.
Special Needs Ministry	Respite! A Great Way To Start Or Expand Your Special Needs Ministry And Equip Your Volunteers	Marie Kuck	Looking for a practical and fun way to start or expand your special needs ministry, build, and equip your team and really help special needs families? A respite/parents' day out program might be the answer! Come find out!
Spiritual Formation	Keeping Kids Engaged In Their Faith	Amber Pike	How can we, as kidmin leaders, do our part to keep kids engaged in the church and in their faith? Statistics (and empty pews) show us that young people are leaving the church at alarming rates. Prominent musicians and faith leaders are denouncing their faith. In a world that continues to move further and further away from God, we need to lead and equip our children, giving them the tools they need to be lifelong followers of Christ.
Technology In Ministry	Reaching Kids In A Digital Age	Esther Moreno	Do you feel like you're losing the war to capture the hearts and minds of the digital-natives in your kidmin? In this workshop, learn how to effectively leverage digital technology in the Covid-19 era to reach the children in your children's church and weekly programming.
The Heart Of The Nation	The Little Things That Make A Big Difference	Ryan Frank	Sometimes we don't think the little things matter much, but they do! Ryan will share 10 little things that can make a big difference in the kidmin community and in your own life and ministry.
Volunteers	Volunteer On-Boarding: A Step By Step Guide	Corey Jones	What if you could seamlessly move someone through the process of joining your team? What if you brought someone in so smoothly that they were set up from the beginning to be retained for years to come? Learn how to develop a strategy to onboard your volunteers.
Worship	Developing Kids Into Today's Worship Leaders	David Ray	Learn a simple, tested method for placing kids into worship leading roles, developing habits and skills that will last for the rest of their lives. When we provide a place to learn, a place to lead, and a place to love, kids don't have to wait to be tomorrow's leaders. They can be today's leaders!

Track Title	Session Title	Speaker	Session Description
<h1>Tuesday, October 6 at 1:40 Eastern</h1>
Community Outreach	Creating Events That Reach Families	David Laflin	Families in your community need Jesus and crave a sense of community. Your church wants to reach families and be a place they can find community. So, how do we effectively reach families with the hope of Jesus and get them plugged in?
Creative Teaching	How Kids Learn	Sharon Stratmoen	What makes a lesson great? Is it the teacher? The topic? The supplies? Or might it be the kids themselves? When you discover how kids learn best, every lesson becomes impactful and memorable. Explore Jesus' teaching to develop a more effective approach to teaching kids. You'll discover how to help kids not just hear, but truly understand, God's Word. Plus, unlock secrets of the brain that lead to long-term memory.
Curriculum Blueprint	Getting Creative With Your Curriculum	Byron Ragains	Curriculum is a road map designed to help you get from one place to another. Let's unpack a few "golden oldies", and a few new ideas that have can bring new life to your teaching preparation and delivery.
Early Childhood Ministry	Managing Media For Families With Young Children	Miss PattyCake (Jean Thomason)	We live in a media-saturated culture. What should parents know? How can we be intentional in choosing content? How can children's ministries/teachers stay connected to parents? Become aware of trends, pitfalls, and faith-based offerings.
Family Ministry	Basics Of Engaging Parents In Their Journey Towards Successful Spiritual Parenting	Lori Bethran	Whether you're holding your weekly service in person or digitally, there are some basics you can do to help parents engage in the spiritual development of their kids.
Generational Discipleship	Passing Faith Stories To Grandkids	Tina Houser	Your eyes will be opened to a host of ways to transition into telling the younger generations (especially your grandkids) about your walk with Jesus. Kids love stories, and they desperately need to hear the faith stories of those who have gone before. Step into a story through a piece of clothing, a photograph, a piece of furniture, a special Bible, jewelry, a snack... Each one can help you share a little piece of your story.
Hot Topics	Biblical Answers To The Social Issues Of Life And Equality	Bryan Osborne	God's Word has been under siege for multiple generations. As a result, the Christian worldview has collapsed as many today have embraced secular views on everything from origins to morality. When our culture asks questions dealing with human life, racism, abortion, etc., it must be remembered they're not innocent, unintentional questions. They stem from a rejection of biblical authority. This session provides biblical answers for some of today's toughest questions.
Kidmin In The Small Church	Tips, Tricks, And Technology Hacks: On A Shoestring Budget	Andrew Brooks	If you had an extra $635.88 to spend on your ministry would you invest in software or would you rather find a free option and spend your money elsewhere? You'll walk away from this workshop with the free tools you'll need in kidmin to get the job done!
Leadership In Ministry	Viction: Where Vision And Action Collide!	Sherry Chester	Are you stale, stagnant, or stuck? Can you relate to being exhausted, exasperated, or explosive? Do you need a new concept, a change, or a challenge? If so, get ready to be energized, enlightened, and equipped. Sherry offers strategic solutions to help you regain and maintain satisfaction and significance. She restores and refreshes the spirit, soul, and body. Celebrate your vibrant courage and victorious confidence to make valuable contributions.
Longevity In Ministry	7 Things Old Jim Wishes Young Jim Knew	Jim Wideman	A wise old man once said, "Experience is the best teacher, but it doesn't have to be your experiences that you learn from." Every person I know who is successful has learned from a lifetime of mistakes—theirs as well as the mistakes of others. Having done children's ministry in my 20s, 30s, 40s, 50s, and halfway through my 60s, I've had a lot of time to correct and learn valuable ministry and life lessons. Get Jim's top 7.

Track Title	Session Title	Speaker	Session Description
Multisite Ministry	Growing Your Children's Ministry In A Multisite Model	Jessica Bealer	We'll discuss practical solutions to problems that plague churches in a multisite model of ministry. Avoiding complexity and pursuing clarity is imperative if we want to have an impact. From programming and setting standards to creating systems and recruiting volunteers, we'll identify simple solutions you can implement this weekend.
Preteen Ministry	Essential Engagement: Preteen Leadership And Discipleship	Sean Sweet and Chip Henderson	The secret sauce is combining teaching and responsibility which gives the best opportunity for spiritual growth and helping preteens learn to own their own faith during this critical but short window of time.
Safety In Ministry	Predator Proofing Your Ministry	Angela Lewton	Predators are everywhere, and most often target organizations focused on children and youth. This Deep Dive will focus on modern prevention methods and protection measures. Topics include abuse prevention models, top protective measures, reporting & response, abuse disclosure (what to do?), and ongoing support guidelines for children and families.
Special Needs Ministry	Behavior Management Strategies In And Beyond The Pandemic	Victoria White	Kids communicate through behaviors, which means you need strategies now more than ever! We'll highlight ways to support parents, help kids succeed in the kidmin setting, and have great resources to turn to as a leader or volunteer.
Spiritual Formation	Using A Heart-Based Approach To Address Emotional Challenges In Children	Scott Turansky	Every child needs a plan to address three major negative emotions: anger, sadness, and anxiety. A heart-based approach is the most effective way for addressing these challenges because emotions reside in the heart. Emotions help us process life, but they can also get in the way if not handled well. In this session, specific emotions are described, problems in processing are identified, and practical solutions are presented.
Technology In Ministry	Zoomed Out	David Richards	Online kids' church, family gatherings, and other ways of connecting with our kids were once fun. But how do we continue to keep them engaged through online ministry if they are getting burned out or bored?
The Heart Of The Nation	Leveraging Emerging Ministry Models	Martijn van Tilborgh	2020 has forced us to think differently about ministry and how to reach the communities to which we are called. We either ignore, adapt to, or leverage this moment in time to become more effective in who we are destined to be.
Volunteers	Ministry Multiplication: How To Make MORE Of Yourself Through Volunteers	Josh Denhart	Moses was forced into it. Elisha institutionalized it. Paul modeled it. The early Church leveraged it. Jesus personified it. Leaders in ministry are called to ministry multiplication.
Worship	Hiding God's Word In Kids' Hearts	Jeff McCullough	Experience and participate in exciting, engaging ways to bring scripture to life. Use music, motions, science, and testimonies to make scripture leap off the page and become unforgettable.

Track Title	Session Title	Speaker	Session Description
<h1>Wednesday, October 7 at 1:40 Eastern</h1>
Community Outreach	Radical Community Outreach	Josh Denhart	Good works to our community, leads to good will within our community, which leads to an opportunity to share the Good News with our community. Explore new and diverse outreach strategies.
Creative Teaching	Roadmaps To RE... Your Lessons	Shane Cooke	Are you on the highway or byway when it comes to helping your kids remember your lessons? Learn how to creatively create roadmaps through handouts, doodling, mind-mapping, PowerPoint presentations, and more. Roadmaps help your children REmember, REcall, REfresh and interact with your message. There will be notes to download for those who attend this session.
Curriculum Blueprint	Curriculum That Builds Spiritual Resilience For Today's Kids	Kristin Thompson and Kirsten Hitchcock	A curriculum that will engage the kids of today needs certain ingredients and approaches. Hear research and findings that influence the ways that curriculum can best accomplish child discipleship and be introduced to brite* curriculum.
Early Childhood Ministry	Be More Intentional With Your Preschool Ministry	Brittany Robertson	As preschoolers enter your environment for the first time, you have the great opportunity to let them know that they matter at your church. The way you set up your ministry, communicate, and connect with preschoolers shows the value of children from day one. We all want to invest in the next generation and give them the best possible future, so let's start by being more intentional with preschoolers.
Family Ministry	Why And How A Heart-Based Parenting Approach Works	Scott Turansky	The Bible talks a lot about the heart, but parents often wonder what that has to do with parenting. Specific strategies and techniques accompany a heart-based approach to parenting that are distinctly different than a reward/punishment model. You'll learn how to equip parents with a practical way of thinking about the heart, change, and child development.
Generational Discipleship	Discipling Children: 8 Spiritual Practices Every Family Can Do	Josh Mulvihill	These 8 practices are a synthesis of Josh's Ph.D. research regarding the best practices to help children grow in spiritual maturity. You will walk away with practical tools and specific ways that you can equip parents and grandparents to invest in the spiritual growth of children.
Hot Topics	RESET: Taking The Sabbath Approach	Latasha Davis	In today's world with so much emphasis on having a successful job and/or ministry, we can easily lose track of what's important: things like rest, family time, and self-care. We can sometimes feel exhausted and depleted all while trying to be supermmen or superwomen. In this session, you'll learn practical and creative ways to take the Sabbath approach. Remember, it's never too late to RESET!
Kidmin In The Small Church	Living Well Is Reproducing Well	Terry and Karen Bishir	Acts 20:18-38. Paul finishes five years of teaching and training in the churches of Macedonia. He meets one last time with the pastors and disciples he won to Christ to share biblical patterns that will help young converts live life well.
Kidmin Rookies	A Recipe For Successful Teaching	Kathy Maietta	So you've joined the kidmin team! Now what? This workshop will provide you with the necessary tools to prepare a lesson for children that doesn't just inform them but will have the potential to transform them! This recipe works for all age groups!
Kidmin Rookies	Kidmin Rookies	Mike Clear	If you want to drive your kids' ministry forward, you need to make sure you're utilizing the right gauges. You may need to disrupt the status quo to measure what really matters. We'll help you: determine your first steps, create a long-term ministry development plan, and make sure everyone (volunteers and parents) is heading in the same direction.

Track Title	Session Title	Speaker	Session Description
Leadership In Ministry	Talk, Talk, Talk... WHAT?	Colleen Derr	How can intentional communication—renewing communication—help you lead more effectively? How can it help the children and adults you're leading experience transformation? And how can it help you be transformed in the process, too? God has given you a voice; a voice for this moment and to these people. Seize the opportunity to lead through what you say and how you say it!
Longevity In Ministry	Kissing Burnout Goodbye	Karl Bastian	There is a reason most ministry leaders don't remain in ministry longer than 3-5 years. Burnout is an over-simplified excuse. Karl will share the secrets he's learned for remaining healthy and steady in ministry for decades. Some of the insights may surprise you. If you're starting out, or secretly losing your joy in ministry, this is a must attend session.
Multisite Ministry	Raising A Dynamic Multisite Ministry Team	Tivo McCrary	As multisite ministry becomes more popular, we must ensure that we are raising teams and leaders that can help fulfill the vision for our overall ministry. At the same time, we must learn to successfully manage the tension that often comes along with the various moving pieces of being a multisite ministry.
Preteen Ministry	Essential Engagement: Preteen's Socialization After Shelter In Place	Paula Mazza and Rob Watson	Preteens are social and they love to gather, but 2020's restrictions were restrictive. Learn how both in-person and online events can easily become catalytic and life-changing for preteens.
Safety In Ministry	Spiritually Thriving Not Merely Surviving	Amber Pike	Do you ever feel tired of going through the motions, doing all you can just to survive - just trying to make it through the next event or service? When you embrace the truth that as believers, you are made to thrive, your mindset changes, allowing God to grow your life and ministry in ways you've never imagined.
Special Needs Ministry	How To Make The Gospel Come Alive Tactilely And Audibly	Judy Redlich	This workshop includes creative ways to reach children with or without visual impairments who learn better through tactile or audible methods. You'll receive tips for adapting games, crafts, and children's Bible lessons, as well as ideas for helping all children learn, socialize, and feel included no matter their ability.
Spiritual Formation	Developing Meaningful And Influential Conversations With Your Kids	Ron Hunter	The biggest missing element in discipleship is heartfelt conversations between parents and kids. This session will identify 7 barriers in communication and provide a conversation formula that is not only easy, but memorable. Parents can't disciple kids without a relationship, and relationship can't occur without meaningful conversations.
Technology In Ministry	Bridging The Gap With Parents In A Digital Age	Esther Moreno	Are your parents feeling a little unplugged? Learn best practices, ideas, and more on how to bridge the gap of this digital age while inspiring parents to continue the work of the spiritual formation of their children.
The Heart Of The Nation	What You Need To Know About The Kid In Kidmin Nation	Ryan Frank	In this super practical session, Ryan Frank will share 3 things you absolutely need to know about today's kids if you're going to be an effective children's ministry leader.
Volunteers	2-Minute Trainers: Bite-Sized Training Tips For Small Group Leaders	David Rausch	Developing volunteers into dynamic small group leaders can be tough! Where do you find the time to train them and what do you train them on? This workshop tackles both of those challenges by giving you small group leading tips that you can implement in 2 minutes or less.
Worship	Writing That Groovy New Kids' Song!	Simon Parry	Are you often looking for a new kids' worship song? We'll look at kids' worship songwriting... putting together a song, how to write with others, melody ideas, and have a big slice of fun. With experience of writing with many other people and seeing songs birthed in some crazy ways, we'll look at how we can raise up new kids' and adult songwriters to create fun and fresh new songs for kids' worship.

Track Title	Session Title	Speaker	Session Description
<h1>Friday, October 9 at 1:40 Eastern</h1>
Community Outreach	Special Events And Outreach	Eric Hamp	Sometimes we need to use the right "bait" to go fishing for boys and girls in our community and to keep the ones we have. You'll come away with tons of great ideas and resources you can implement now to spice up your weekly ministry or present something new.
Creative Teaching	Secrets Of Effective Kid Communicators	Karl Bastian	What is the difference between a teacher and a communicator? A teacher can change minds, but a communicator can change hearts. Learn the subtle secrets of what gives some teachers that extra edge of effectiveness when they teach. Learn how to engage and inspire those you influence. Develop some often overlooked skills that will give your teaching extra impact!
Curriculum Blueprint	Kidminnovation	Brian Dollar	Learn how to discover and develop that innovator living inside you. Learn practical tips for creativity, writing, and curriculum development.
Early Childhood Ministry	5 Keys To Teaching Preschoolers During Uncertain Times	London Hester	Receive simple tips and resources to help church leaders minister to preschoolers in times of unrest (such as COVID-19 and social injustice) and equip families to continue crucial conversations at home.
Family Ministry	Here Come Gen Alpha And Gen Z	Kal Otis	Gen Z & Gen Alpha face new and unprecedented challenges. We must make a shift in how we shape their faith journey using timeless biblical truths while engaging in new approaches. Discover creative ways to minister to them based on what defines them.
Generational Discipleship	Generating Disciples	Michelle and Michael Bowen	You are more than a program director. You are a shepherd of ministry! Discover how to develop parents as ministry leaders of their homes. Engage children in multi-generational worship, prayer, and Scripture teaching in the corporate church setting. Explore ways families can impact their communities with the Gospel.
Hot Topics	Raising Generational Champions	Jonathan Banks	Guaranteeing Spiritual, Academic, and Family Success in Kids
Kidmin In The Small Church	Doing Kidmin In A Small Church	Jack Henry	Ministry is ministry no matter what size church you're in. But how can we overcome certain feelings and barriers in a smaller church environment? The answers will not only surprise you, but help you!
Kidmin Rookies	KidMin: What To Expect When You're Beginning	Rachel Price	New to kids' ministry? You will realize very quickly there's a lot more to this than eating Goldfish and watching Veggie Tales. From delegation to developing leaders, learn some practical tips to help you survive and thrive in the early years of ministry.
Leadership In Ministry	Yes I'm Called, But It's Complicated	Charles Westmoreland	What does it mean to be called? Do I have to be perfect to be called? Can I be called to more than one thing? How do I know I'm called? What happens if I don't answer the call? Yes, I'm called, but it's complicated!
Longevity In Ministry	7 Strategies Of Staying Power	Tina Houser	There are some strategies, NOT secrets, to 33 years as a full-time children's pastor, and presently volunteering to lead an energetic kidmin team in a thriving smaller church, while continuing to invest in children's ministry at large. We're going to address 7 strategies that are extremely important for staying the course, remaining for the long haul, having longevity in ministry. I want you planted firmly in kidmin for years and years to come!
Multisite Ministry	One Church. Multiple Locations.	Derek Jones	Everyone is united during the launch, but what happens next? How do you maintain the vision for unity when you're working miles apart? How do you function as a team when you have solid line and dotted line direct reports? With a focus on maintaining a unified church in a multisite world, let's look at some of the lessons learned and challenges we face.

Track Title	Session Title	Speaker	Session Description
Preteen Ministry	Helping Preteens Overcome Anxiety And Depression	Dannah Gresh	For 15 years we have witnessed hockey stick growth in anxiety and depression among children. The average child aged 9-17 scores as high on anxiety scales as those admitted for in-patient psychiatric treatment in the 1950s. Though it's now considered "normal", suicide has become the second leading cause of death for 15- to 29-year-olds. Dannah Gresh shares ways to reduce the risk in homes and in the entire generation.
Safety In Ministry	Safety In Ministry	Ryan Carter	What areas of safety need to be improved in your ministry? What are the latest trends in security and how can your church close the gaps in your protection policies?
Special Needs Ministry	Get The 411 On Starting A Special Needs Ministry	Stephen "Doc" Hunsley	Has God called you to start a special needs ministry at your church, but you don't know where to begin? Whether you're a small church or a large one, this workshop will answer the questions of how, what, and why. Learn different classroom environments, types of behaviors, engaging and partnering with church staff and community organizations, and helping your church become an inclusive place for those with special needs. You can do it!
Spiritual Formation	Is Today's Children's Ministry Preparing Kids For A Secular Culture?	Matt Markins	In recent years the environment in the United States has shifted significantly. There is increased hostility, heightened velocity of mobile technology, expanding boundaries of human sexuality, the marginalization of the Christian perspective, and so much more. Who is caught in the middle of this vortex of secular change? Our kids, grandkids, and the young people in our community. Many are wondering, "Are we giving kids lesser things that will not travel with them into their adult lives?" In this session, we'll discuss three factors known to prepare kids to thrive in their faith in the face of a secular culture.
Technology In Ministry	Hacks On How To Win With Your Kidmin Social Media	Corey Jones	When you visit a restaurant, do you check their social media before walking through the door? Families in your area are searching for your kids' ministry. Are they enticed by what they see? Let's work together to make you kidmin social media stand out!
The Heart Of The Nation	Adopting New Leadership Paradigms	Martijn van Tilborgh	Different results require new leadership paradigms. If we're going to be all that we can be, we need to adopt new ways of leading those who are given to us. Discover how your leadership mindset will either limit or expand your capacity.
Volunteers	PIE Your Volunteers In The Face: Effective Volunteer Training	Brittany Nelson	It's not enough to recruit a rock star team of volunteers. We have to train them too! Effective volunteer training will prepare, inspire, and equip your team for success. This breakout session will cover practical ideas for implementing those strategies in a variety of training settings.
Worship	The Shepherding Heart Of A Worship Leader	Yancy	Leading worship is not about singing songs and doing motions. It's about helping others engage with the Lord. Taking a look at the Word of God and characteristics of a shepherd, Yancy will coach you in how to not just make songs happen in the classroom, but instead lead and point kids to the presence of God through worship.