Note:

The Treasure Map is the mind-correction from fear to love. It is how you truly forgive the way that God teaches and not the ego. It will take you from the separate self of ego-identification to the right mind of peace and love that has been concealed deep within the darkness of the subconscious. This is God's true healing that makes miracles happen and can be called Truforgiveness Therapy. The purpose is for Truforgiveness, the process is FAITH and the practice is the 'I Forgive' principle. This holy trinity combined complete The Treasure Map.

Introduction

Welcome to The Treasure Map. A gift given by God that leads from separation to sameness, Perfect Love. It is how you purify your thinking from the wrong mind of ego-identification to the right mind of innocence that is hidden deep within the darkness of the subconscious mind. Yes, that is correct, we each have two minds, one leads away from truth, whilst the latter takes you Home. To the Oneness of wholeness and the happy dream in time. And you simply must go backward to go forward, which you will learn how to do here.

My name is Tash McKenna and I know much about suffering. But I now know plenty about salvation, which means the return to the reality of Perfect Love. You see, hidden deep within you is the right mind that connects to the truth of your being whole. This is so important, as what is within is seen without. So, when you reclaim this truth of wholeness within, which is Perfect Love, you will give up lack, loss, and lovelessness, which is home to the choice for separation. The ego-mind of judgment and attack. The Treasure Map will teach you to change your mind. Not to maintain thinking in the brain and to consciously control positive thoughts, but to shift from the wrong mind to the right. You must learn to undo your allegiance to the ego, the belief you are separate from all else, and to mentally move your thinking deep within to locate this right mind that is your truth. To do this, you give up the hidden darkness inside by truly forgiving every barrier that keeps the knowledge of Oneness out of your awareness. If I can do this, you can as well. How did I do it? I truly forgave every dark shadow of suffering by following the FAITH of God, which is how you truly forgive, makes miracles happen, and guides you to this right mind of peace and love that offers the happiness and true healing you seek to know. The return to the innocent Mind.

It is the guilt within that calls forth the punishment in time. When you learn to truly forgive the darkness you have hidden inside, you allow your truth as the being of Perfect Love to extend outwards which enlightens your journey through time.

You are the being of Perfect Love, not the body born to die. And by moving your thinking from judgment and attack to peace and love, you undo the belief in separation and miracles are made. You must learn how to mentally dig through the subconscious mind, to take your awareness out of your brain that says you are sinful and to locate your beingness hidden deep within. The key is to go deep down into the subconscious mind and to truly forgive every barrier that keeps the truth of Oneness out of your awareness. When you find this truth within, the problems of ego thinking disappear, for they belong to the call for punishment the guilty mind seeks. When you remember this peace of Perfect Love within by finding the right mind your life will become miraculous. For you remember your true Self: The One that is perfect, peaceful and powerful.

Now, before you say, “How can I have two minds?” Well, you have been given glimpses of this mind since time began. We often say, “I had a gut feeling about it!” or “I had an inner pull guide me.” Well, this guidance from the gut is not sporadic when you shift your thinking from the brain deep down. Instead of it coming and going, these ‘spiritual hunches,’ you are in constant contact with the divine that will lead you through the hidden hate and secret sin you have buried, and back to the truth of your being Perfect Love. You see, you do not wake in death, but in life, when you have undone the ego to know the Self that was once lost but who has now been found.

Whilst The Treasure Map does lead to spiritual awakening before this happens you get to enjoy your time here. You learn to utilize time for what it is truly meant for, to remember the truth of your being everything not nothing. This is what I have done. Every shadow of suffering that seemed to be sent my way I truly forgave, not the way the ego teaches Forgiveness, but the way that God does. To dive within the darkness inside and to truly forgive everything that is presented, until you locate the wholeness of holiness that is your natural identity. Find the truth of Oneness and problems disappear, for where Perfect Love has been made welcome fear cannot follow.

*I had a series of dreams that revealed an ancient text and the message written within was:
Truforgiveness = When you forgive at the cause and not merely the effects of form.*

You see, The Treasure Map is no ego-oriented Forgiveness, as the ego makes true the belief in separation, which is the true cause of your pain, problems, and punishment. Truforgiveness, which is the FAITH of God, teaches us to truly forgive by withdrawing the darkness we project outwards upon a brother. And how to draw up your treasure maps to move from fear to love is how you shall truly heal. So, stay with me, for the FAITH of God will be revealed within and it makes miracles happen.

As I mentioned, The Treasure Map is the gift given by God after many years of extreme punishment. And whilst I will not go into my story from suffering to salvation, I will share something with you. I was that ill I did not believe healing was possible. I once asked my treating doctor if I could be placed in a medical induced coma until what was happening to my brain subsided. Of course, she did not allow this, and I was forced to face the darkness. Day by day I truly forgave, until over the course of a decade the terror of PTSD was forgotten, and the truth of Perfect Love restored to my mind. For I learned how to shift my thinking from the broken mind of ego-identification to find the right mind of peace and love that teaches safety, security, stillness and success.

During my suffering, God came to me to one day. How do I know it was God speaking? When God appears not by sight but by presence, a wholeness of Perfect Love surrounds you and gone is the belief in separation or difference. And on this day in question, He simply said, “I will make this punishment up to you.” At this time of revelation, I was still moving through intense darkness. I have no words to adequately describe the “hideous” period that I went through. But I do remember replying that there was nothing in the world of form that He could give to me that would make up for the pure punishment I was moving through every second.

The gift I received is the meaning of FAITH as revealed by God. You see, you must follow the process of FAITH, mentally dig with the ‘I Forgive’ Principle, to place your Truforgiveness upon the altar that is within. This is where the right mind can be found that leads to One-mindedness, awakening. I remember sitting down in the early teens and writing “FAITH is an acronym for Forgiveness, Authenticity, Introspection, Trust and Honesty. It is how you truly forgive and make miracles.” Suddenly, the process of how I had been truly forgiving for years, and what I had utilized to transform my life from sickness to salvation flashed inside. I would often think to myself, how can I teach this true healing to people if I do not have the worlds to explain it. In a short moment revelation arrived. I was then guided to A Course in Miracles and read, “Faith is the gift of God, through Him Whom God has given you.” (T-19.I.11.) All of those years that I had spent hidden in my room as a child learning from God was now making sense. You see, from a very young age, I was dreaming of the work that I was born to do. I found this world boring and terrifying but was doing my best to hold on to when I could start what I came here to do. And whilst I did not know exactly what this was when I was a little girl, I came to teach the true way to forgive that leads from body-identification to beingness, which is Perfect Love. And it is the FAITH of God that makes it so. It is the process to truly forgive by applying the 'I Forgive' principle to every layer of darkness concealed within that hides the truth of your being everything: The wholeness of holiness. Combined, this holy trinity becomes The Truforgiveness Treasure Map® and will assist to heal your life, by changing your mind from the wrong to the right.

The journey of The Treasure Map has taken 40-years. You see, God first appeared to me in 1982 and revealed, "My Precious Child. Please do not be afraid for one day in your twenties you will understand." Life was difficult for me for a very long time. But thanks to the miracle of The Treasure Map and the FAITH of God, which you will come to know soon, life has turned from problematic to peaceful. And there is nothing that surpasses the peace of God. Why? For peace belongs to Perfect Love that can be accessed through the right mind to where The Treasure Map takes you. When you discover this wholeness within fear is forgotten and the happy dream in time presents. Looking back all those decades, when I was first learning from God, I would often see a psychic vision as I spent many weekends and school holidays in my bedroom alone. In this spiritual picture, I was in an all-white room, with a white desk and chair. I too was dressed in white, as was my male teacher that was behind me guiding my way. The purity of this room was unlike what I was going through in time. And there was one window that allowed me to see outside. I watched the other children playing with each other, dearly wanting to join in. To be loved and accepted. I would ask my teacher if I could go out, and he would reply "No, you must stay in and study to do the work you one day will do." You can imagine, this was another cause of great sadness for me as a little girl. But looking back, I was being protected as much as possible from the ego thought-system, for I was born to teach a new way to heal. To undo the ego judgment by following the FAITH of God to find the right mind that knows we are the same, not different.

You too can learn to be in constant contact with God, not in the name of specialness, but in the truth of sameness, Perfect Love. Those hunches and gut feelings do not need to be fleeting, for when you follow the FAITH of God, which is how you must truly forgive, you find the right mind of peace and love that is in constant communication with God. You will be granted divine guidance as to where to go, what to do, and what to say from this loving mind within that knows wholeness, not separateness. And when you find this right mind, your thinking has been purified from fear to love. So not only have your beliefs been corrected by purification, but they are positive and true, for you have found the kind and loving thoughts you share with God. By correcting what you think deep within it changes the story of suffering in time, as what is within extends or projects outwards.

Everything you could ever need or want can be found within and I have the path to peace that will show you the way. As I mentioned, I know what it is like to suffer. I have moved through eating disorders, addictions, chronic fatigue syndrome, acute Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder, financial failure, rejection, and so much more. But what came to hurt was what was used to truly heal. By helping me to undo the belief in ego (which is the symbol of separation in time) to return my thinking to right-mindedness, which can be found in the subconscious. I was that ill I did not believe that healing would be possible. By the miracle of The Treasure Map of Truforgiveness, FAITH & the 'I Forgive' Principle, not only have I truly healed, by knowing the truth of being, but I have begun to let go of the illusions of separation which is the true cause of every problem, pain, or punishment that we experience in form.

I will teach you about the process of FAITH that will lead you to your true Self: The One that is perfect, peaceful and powerful. And will welcome you into the happy dream in time. The FAITH of God does not seek division unlike the faith of the ego, for it guides you from bodily-identification to the truth of being. That is so complete you know separation does not exist. For those that seemed to come to crucify me, thank you for your gift of love that overshadowed me so much I had no other option but to go off the beaten path to find the process of FAITH. That leads out of illusions and into the true reality we share with God: Perfect Love. Yes, those shadows of suffering that almost destroyed me was what was used to truly heal me. To reveal the right mind of trust and truth, health and happiness, and love and laughter. Without the shadows you will be bound to ego-identification and will not be motivated to undo the wrong mind to locate the right.

The way within that leads without, to the truth of Perfect Love, the ego has hidden from your awareness. Yet, God has granted The Treasure Map to guide the way. To ensure you remember the truth of your being everything, not nothing.

You must learn how to truly heal those shadows of suffering you move through for they offer a gift of grace. The light of Perfect Love you seek to know has been hidden behind the darkness of the belief in sin, which projects as guilt, and is experienced as fear in form. If you discover how to truly forgive by following the process of FAITH, which you will come to know soon, you will dissolve the darkness that once concealed your truth of Perfect Love. A wholeness so complete that fear cannot enter. When you know this truth that belongs to the right mind you truly heal, for fear is forgotten and only love remains. You have no idea of the freedom that this grant, as you let go of the wrong mind to know the Self that is still as God created: Perfect, peaceful and powerful.

Before I finish this introduction, do not limit true healing to the body. You see, true healing is the release from fear, which is home to sickness and separation. So, if you are suffering through financial stress, it is your finances you need to truly forgive to undo the shadows that keep you in lack. If you can successfully remove all the darkness by truly forgiving it, the truth of Perfect Love within extends outwards, and in its wholeness, abundance is made. Or if you are suffering through rejection, then you begin to truly forgive those that deny you. Until you stop rejecting yourself and accept the truth of who You are. By doing this, finding the truth of love within, you will then see this without and find those that are kind and not cruel. Perfect Love cannot be forgotten, denied, rejected, hated, abused, or destroyed, for in its wholeness its safety sit. And it is found in the right mind hidden deep within, to where the FAITH of God takes you.

I hope you enjoy this path to peace, built upon the true healing of FAITH. It will lead you back to God and to your true Self, where there is no lack, limitation, or lovelessness. As you give up guilt you get to know grace and welcome in the happy dream that precedes spiritual awakening.

Upon completion of this book, you will have a chance to draw up your treasure map. I highly advise that you do so, as miracles are made via practical application, not theology alone.

Finally, huge love, devotion and gratitude to God, the Father of Perfect Love, who has guided and overseen this work. You are my All and I am nothing without You. To Jesus, you are my perfect older brother that has paved the way to peace and love. Finally, to The Treasure Map, without your intercession I would no longer be here. Thank you for saving and transforming me. I absolutely adore you.
