Seek to Serve

Our mission is to provide the best networking opportunities to real estate investors and those who service investors. Our group focuses on connecting people to one another. Our motto is "SEEK TO SERVE".

You can expect to find the following at our events: Expertise, Education, and Entertainment, 2 1/2 hours of Pure Networking, Great Food, an investor friendly environment and the some of the top professionals in the industry.

The New Jersey Real Estate Social Network is dedicated to bringing professionals together, not only agents and investors but the industries servicers, to create a community where experience and ethical business practices can be shared and improved.

The community offers true value by providing reliable resources, useful education and tools, along with live events and unbelievable networking opportunities.

Our values and core principles that this organization was founded upon is the factor that will drive it to become a successful one. We hope all of you join us in our continued effort to create a quality real estate community.

JONATHAN STEINGRABER

Jonathan Steingraber has been investing in real estate and training thousands of people around the USA and CANADA for more than a decade. Hundreds of thousands of people have attended his live trainings where he is proud to create an incredible experience and extremely valuable content on everything from real estate investing to financial education. For his entire adult life he has had a passion for real estate, taxes, and personal finance. Jon began his investing career through buying, fixing, and selling real estate assets in NJ.

Through his creativity and passion, he was then offered the opportunity to become the Marketing Director of CT HOMES, LLC in San Diego, California which led him to become a nationally recognized speaker for investing and educational program development. Jon was a key part in developing what is today the largest and most successful real estate education company in the United States; FortuneBuilders, Inc. He's founded the largest real estate investment organization in the state of New Jersey and is presently the COO of one of NJ's top boutique real estate brokerages, Signature Realty NJ, that houses over 100 real estate sales agents.

What Our Vendors Are Saying

We've been a member and a sponsor at NJRESN for about 7 years at this point and it's been a great run. All these events are first class, we met so many people from all over New Jersey. It's great to be an active lender and have roots at an event that brings together active people, great education and amazing networking.

- David Hansel | Alpha Funding

What an amazing event! The feedback, the response was amazing. Everyone was just having a blast. There was tons of networking. I met wholesalers, attorneys, real estate agents, people who are new to the business, and others who've been in the biz for years. The energy was so live!

- Chris Allesio | Freedom Mortgage

Sponsoring and participating in all the NJRESN events has given me more exposure than all of my marketing put together. It has allowed us to grow as a brokerage and put us in a great position to help members buy, rent and sell their properties.

- Michelle Pais | Signature Realty NJ

What Our Attendees Are Saying

---

This is one of the best real estate networking event in New Jersey. Jon Steingraber and the entire team that run NJRESN have a wealth of knowledge and I think that everybody who is interested in learning about real estate should have the opportunity to come and hear from the people that really understand what's going on in the industry.

- Donnel Wright

I come in from Brooklyn for the educational topics and they're always informative and valuable. I've made numerous connections here, including 3 loans with Freedom Mortgage. Being here has been invaluable and I would recommend anyone to attend.

- Gwendolyn Fairley-Smith

Great opportunity for you guys to come and meet with individuals who are like minded and are doing the exact same thing you are doing or build relationships with people that may be able to compliment you. Biggest things I got out of coming to NJRESN is finding people who can help me put deals together and the right resources to rehab and educate myself to be financially prepared.
