The A Team for Live2Lead Experiences

Rachelle DiFonzo is the founder and Owner of Details by DiFonzo. Details by DiFonzo is an Omaha based business that specializes in all things celebration! We serve individuals and organizations with annual gift subscriptions, event planning and pop-up engagements with our mobile gift boutique. Our solutions help you champion the details of employee appreciation, client appreciation and consumers of all types. Details by DiFonzo's unique gift opportunities allow you to connect and shape lasting memories.

Monica Sempek is the owner of Monica Sempek Photography. As a commercial and event photographer, her eye for capturing raw emotion and treasured moments create images to be cherished for generations. Specializing in photography for corporate events, non-profit events, and business associations, has given Monica a unique viewpoint of the needs in the corporate setting. Her photographs not only commemorate your event, but also provide you with lively, professional images for marketing campaigns, websites, and social media. Share your company's story through her lens.

Laura Pullen is a certified personal development and leadership coach and trainer who has developed her strengths in IT as a technical program manager. Laura has an adept ability to gain commitment and collaboration from team members resulting in fast, effective and long term positive results for her team and her organization. As Laura continues to advance her career in project management, she seeks ways of sharing her knowledge and experiences with others in an effort to develop those around her while pursuing her own growth through the international John Maxwell Team. Her role is essential to the success of Lead Your Legacy events including design, planning, strategy and execution.
