START HERE

casual ideas

MOVE TO YOUR FRONT YARD

- SIDEWALK CHALK, SPARKLERS
- HOST A FREE LEMONADE OR ICE CREAM STAND
- OUTDOOR GAMES

VISIT YOUR POOL & PARKS

- FREQUENT THE NEIGHBORHOOD HANGOUTS
- BRING EXTRA SNACKS & DRINKS TO SHARE

JOIN YOUR HOA BOARD

GO FOR A WALKS

- WALK YOUR DOG
- GO ON FAMILY WALKS

OFFER TO MEET A NEED YOU SEE

HAVE A FIRE & HANDOUT S'MORES

organized ideas

PLAN AN "ON-SITE" EVENT

- A CORN-HOLE (OR LIKE) TOURNAMENT
- A WATER GUN/BALLOON FIGHT OR SLIP-N-SLIDE CONTEST
- A PITCH-IN STYLE DESSERT NIGHT OR OUTDOOR PICNIC
- A SMALL NEIGHBORHOOD PARADE WITH PETS AND KIDS - DECORATING THEIR BIKES

HOST A JULY 4TH GET-TOGETHER

PLAN AN "OFF-SITE" EVENT

- A TRIP TO THE ZOO OR MUSEUM
- ORGANIZE ATTENDING A LOCAL CONCERT OR FESTIVAL

START A BOOK CLUB

INVITE TO WATCH A MOVIE / GAME

The Art of Neighboring

do's

PRAY for God to show up as you step out in faith with your neighbors

SLOW DOWN your pace and prioritize engaging with your neighbors

KEEP EYES OPEN for opportunities to naturally connect with others

INVITE OTHERS to join in activities instead of doing them alone

SHARE some of your story with others to help break down barriers

BOUNDARIES are important, set healthy ones with. your neighbors

don'ts

MOTIVES matter, so be sure your neighbors don't become a "project"

TURN DOWN help from your neighbors, let them help and serve you too

FORCE IT relationships should be reciprocal and seem natural, no need to push if it's not right

DISENGAGE just because your neighbor isn't into spiritual things

LET FEAR of what others may think or say keep you from reaching out to your neighbors

GIVE UP or grow weary of doing good; the harvest is His