

NURSES HAVE INFLUENCE!

NURSES EARN CONTINUING EDUCATION THROUGH #GLS22

August 4-5, 2022 | GlobalLeadership.org/Summit

Nurses not only save lives, they change lives. They impact families, inspire younger generations and invest in their communities. Their leadership gives life and hope—over the last couple years, this has become more evident than ever.

Developing leadership skills can help nurses achieve greater teamwork and care to those they serve. This is why The Global Leadership Summit supports every registered nurse seeking to grow in their leadership skills as a part of their continuing education portfolio.
