

sermon reflections

Have you ever felt yourself drifting (literally, figuratively, or spiritually)? _____

What's one thing Matt said that is tweetable or memorable? _____

Would you describe yourself as 'not obedient', 'mostly obedient', or 'completely obedient'? _____

How has God been faithful to you despite your level of obedience? _____

going deeper

Abram and Lot parted ways in Genesis 13 because the land could not support the way their farms and families were growing.

Read Genesis 14:8-16 What would it have been like to be in a cultural that was constantly conquering one another, always looking over your shoulder? _____

Why did Abram give so many resources to rescuing Lot? _____

What things or people would you be willing to give resources to, in order to rescue or recover them?

Take some time and evaluate what God is asking you to Give or Give up? What step is God asking you to take on your Growth Path? _____

prayer and application

What can you apply to your life from Sunday and Today's conversation? _____

Close the night by praying for one another. If anyone shared steps that they feel God asking them to take on the Growth Path, pray for that person and for God's leading.