GETTING STARTED

While many desire to have more interaction with God's Word, we realize people often struggle with the skill or will of consistently engaging with the Scripture. That is why we have designed The Daily Road. It is a simple framework that will help you gain courage to approach the scripture and give you focus and depth to your time no matter where you are in your walk with Christ. This framework will work for you if you have 10 minutes or 1 hour.

THE DAILY ROAD FRAMEWORK UTILIZES THE ACRONYM R.O.A.D. (READ, OBSERVE, APPLY, DISCUSS) TO GUIDE YOU THROUGH YOUR TIME IN THE SCRIPTURE.

While following the ROAD framework, we encourage you to write down your observation and thoughts in a journal. This will help you stay focused and solidify all God is teaching you.

This Guidebook is designed to help you dig a little deeper to the ROAD acronym. We want to equip you with tips and tricks to feel comfortable tackling God's word on your own.

To further help, we encourage you to take advantage of The Daily Road Journal and the video tutorials available at keystonelifelife.com/dailyroad.

Our deepest desire is to help you know and follow Jesus. The greatest tool in our hands to accomplish this task is God's word. Let's get started!

THE DAILY ROAD FRAMEWORK

READ

Read through your passage slowly giving yourself space to meditate on the words of God. God will draw your attention to certain words or verses. Write these in your journal to focus your time.

OBSERVE

What observations can you make about this passage? Consider the audience, context of the passage, genre and tone, repetitive and descriptive words, and commands.

Based on what you have observed, what is the overall message the Spirit is emphasizing for you in this passage?

APPLY

Now it's time to get personal and practical. How you can align your actions, attitudes, choices, and beliefs with the truth of today's scripture? Write out how this scripture applies to you today.

DISCUSS

Take all you have meditated on and bring it before God in prayer. As you discuss with God, he may reveal more insights to you. Feel free to write out your prayers, or just pray silently.

Take what God has shown you and discuss it with others for encouragement, confession, and accountability.

READ

APPROACHING GOD'S WORDS CAN BE INTIMIDATING, BUT NO MATTER YOUR BIBLICAL KNOWLEDGE, THE FIRST STEP IS THE EASIEST. WE SIMPLY HAVE TO PICK UP GOD'S WORD AND READ IT.

PROMPT

Read through your passage slowly giving yourself space to meditate on the words of God. God will draw your attention to certain words or verses. Write these in your journal to focus your time.

TAKING IT DEEPER

There is no need to complicate it, your simple goal is to read the text. A strategy that may help you is to read straight through and then slowly re-read the verse or phrases that stick out to you.

The end goal of reading is to identify a verse or phrase that sticks out to you. Write this text into your journal.

TIPS AND TRICKS

- Find an environment that minimizes distractions.
- Prepare your heart in prayer before you read. Listening to a worship song can help.
- Have a plan. If you need help knowing what to read check out the “Reading Plans” section.
- Mark or underline verses and phrases that stick out.
- Listening to the text in an app can help you understand better.

OBSERVE

NOW THAT YOU HAVE READ THE PASSAGE, THE MAJORITY OF YOUR TIME WILL BE SPENT IN OBSERVATION. BY ENGAGING IN OBSERVATION YOU WILL BE BUILDING YOUR BIBLICAL KNOWLEDGE AND GIVE A FOUNDATION FOR THE SPIRIT TO USE THE TEXT IN YOUR LIFE.

PROMPT

What observations can you make about this passage? Consider the audience, context of the passage, genre and tone, repetitive and descriptive words, and commands.

Based on what you have observed, what is the overall message the Spirit is emphasizing for you in this passage?

TAKING IT DEEPER

The goal of observation is two-fold:

1. Make observations about the text and its original meaning.
2. Observe how the Spirit is emphasizing this truth in your life today.

OBSERVING THE TEXT

The goal is to find what the author meant in the original context it was written. The following questions can be helpful to guide your observation.

- What is the genre of the text (Old Testament History, Wisdom Literature, prophecy, gospels, New Testament Letters)?
- What is the context (Author, Audience, Reason for Writing)?
- Are there any repeating words?
- What are the verbs and commands in the passage?
- What questions are unanswered for you?
- What is the overall message of this passage?

OBSERVING THE SPIRIT'S WORK IN YOU LIFE

As you make observations about the meaning of the text, how is the spirit emphasizing this in your own soul? Identifying what the Spirit is emphasizing from all you have observed is a critical step in allowing the word of God to be active in your life. Put into words what the Spirit is showing you.

TIPS AND TRICKS

- Bullet out all your observations in your journal.
- Don't let a question that remains keep you from a truth God is speaking to you.
- Use a different translation to help bring clarity to unclear passages.
- If there is content you don't understand a study bible is often helpful.
- See "Additional Resources" for translations and study bible suggestions.

APPLY

GOD'S WORD IS ALIVE AND IT CHANGES EVERYTHING. THE GOAL OF APPLICATION STEP IS TO TAKE THE KNOWLEDGE WE HAVE LEARNED ABOUT GOD IN THE FIRST TWO STEPS AND AND USE IT AS FUEL FOR US TO FOLLOW HIM WITH OUR LIVES.

PROMPT

Now it's time to get personal and practical. How you can align your actions, attitudes, choices, and beliefs with the truth of today's scripture? Write out how this scripture applies to you today.

TAKING IT DEEPER

As you think through how to apply God's word, be specific. The more general you are in your application, the less transformation you will see in your life. Write out what you can specifically do today to align your life with the truth God has shown you. Over time, your simple and small steps of obedience day after day will produce a godliness that we all desire.

The following questions may help you determine how to apply the Truth the Spirit is showing you.

- Is there an action or behavior you need to change?
- Is there a heart attitude that needs to be adjusted?
- Is there a truth you need to believe?

Be sure to write down how you are going to apply the passage in your journal.

TIPS AND TRICKS

- Don't let guilt and shame overwhelm you when you realize areas of your life that need to change.
- Apply the forgiving realities of the gospel to what God is showing you.
- Avoid trying to apply the text to other people's lives, make it personal to you.
- Create applications you can actually do.

DISCUSS

NOW THAT YOU HAVE READ, UNDERSTOOD, AND APPLIED THE SCRIPTURE, SPEND TIME WITH GOD AND OTHERS DISCUSSING WHAT HE HAS SHOWN YOU. IT IS IN THIS STEP THAT WE CAN BUILD INTIMACY WITH GOD AND COMMUNITY WITH OTHERS.

PROMPT

Remember, prayer is a two-way conversation with God; look at it as a discussion. Take all you have meditated on and bring it before God in prayer. As you discuss with God, he may reveal more insights to you. Feel free to write out your prayers, or just pray silently

Take what God has shown you and discuss it with others for encouragement, confession, and accountability.

TAKING IT DEEPER

DISCUSSING WITH GOD

Remember, prayer is a two-way conversation with God; look at it as a discussion. God has communicate with you through his word. In this step we enter into the discussion with him communicating our heart.

Depending on the content of the text and your life, there are a variety of postures your prayers may take. Let your heart cry out with:

- Praise
- Confession
- Gratitude
- Sorrow
- Requests

DISCUSSING WITH OTHERS

God builds our lives in the context of relationships. As you move from your time with God, consider sharing what God is showing you with others. You may need to encourage someone with the word God has shown you, or you may need accountability to be faithful to the Lord. Invite others into your walk with God.

TIPS AND TRICKS

- Experiment to see if writing out your prayers or praying silently helps you stay focused.
- Bullet out your prayers in your journal
- Use this as a time to pray for others, not just what God is showing you.
- Send a text to encourage someone with the truth God has shown you.
- Invite people to help you even if it is scary for you to open up to others.

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

TRANSLATIONS

In the modern era there are many excellent translations. Below are three we recommend you start with. You should be able to view all of these with free apps such as the Bible app. Once you have landed on a translation, we encourage you get a physical copy of your Bible to encourage making notes and marks in your copy of the scripture.

ENGLISH STANDARD BIBLE (ESV)

The ESV is the primary translation we use at Keystone. It's translation accuracy to original languages lends it is a faithful and true translation.

CHRISTIAN STANDARD BIBLE (CSB)

The CSB is another recommended translation for those who find the ESV a little difficult and clunky to read. The CSB translates Scripture into the clearest possible modern English, while being faithful to the original languages.

NEW LIVING TRANSLATION (NLT)

If you are finding difficulty comprehending the biblical text, the NLT may be an excellent option for you. It is translation philosophy renders it very readable and understandable.

BIBLE STUDY RESOURCES

ESV STUDY BIBLE

The ESV Study Bible is an excellent resource to have in order to get background and answer questions you have as you read the bible. I encourage every person who wants to understand the scripture more clearly have this resource in their library.

THE BIBLE PROJECT

The Bible Project offers short and memorable videos on every book of the Bible. This is your go to source to get the overview of any book of the Bible. www.thebibleproject.com

JOURNEY INTO GOD'S WORD

by J. Scott Duvall and J Daniel Hays

If you are wanting to sharpen your skills in observation, "Journey into God's Word" is a go-to book that will sharpen your skills to understand and apply the Bible.

READING PLANS

CHURCH-WIDE FOCUS

A different points throughout the year, we will encourage everyone in Keystone to read and meditate on the same passages. When we do this we will communicate and pass out the dates and passages so everyone can participate.

BOOK-BY-BOOK

A preferred and simple plan for your daily bible reading is to read book-by-book. This strategy is both rewarding by finishing books in the bible, but also reproducible because you can move to new books you have not read.

1. DETERMINE A BOOK TO READ.

What is a book you've always wanted to read? You cannot make a wrong choice! Ask a friend or mentor for recommendations. If you are still unsure, consider The Gospel of John, The Gospel of Mark, or Philipians.

2. READ A CHAPTER OR SECTION AT A TIME.

If you are in a longer book, you may want to read a chapter at a time, if you are in a shorter book, you can choose to read between the section headings found in your bible

3. RINSE AND REPEAT.

Once you finish a book, find a new one and repeat the process.

SHORT-TERM PLANS

While reading through the bible book-by-book is a rewarding and reproducible practice, there are times when focusing on a specific topic or a short-term goal will help us in our scripture engagement.

Look through the following short-term and topical reading plans and pick one that will encourage you in the season you find yourself.
