Hey, Greg C. Greenway here, and so far in this series, you’ve seen a number of different sexual techniques, and you’ve been exposed to new methods to make you the ultimate lover.

In this part of the Ultimate Lover Dating Solution, I’m going to show you how to give your girl continuous multiple orgasms by using a method called Stacking.

Many women have the ability to be multi-orgasmic and with a little bit of love, affection and patience you can get her there.

Stacking is a method by which you slowly build your woman up one orgasm at a time until you’ve tipped her over the edge and she’s enters a state of pure orgasmic bliss.

You want to bear in mind however, that you must keep things fun and without pressure. Women are sexually more complicated than men, and need a lot more attention to have a good time.

The techniques will work better if you’re in a loving committed relationship, but at the very least she has to be very comfortable around you and relax.

Have some candles, put on some music, give her some wine. I love to start with a massage as it really gets my girl relaxed and in the mood.

Whatever you do, remember sex is an enjoyable intimate experience, so make sure you keep that in mind and above all else, have fun.
Following the steps below may be overwhelming for some women so take it slow the first time you do this, but let me warn you. Be prepared for some pretty outrageous reactions. Some of the reactions you can look forward to getting from the girls.

Loss of speech and motor functions...
She may not be able to walk...
Going blind.
Girls passing out...
She will propose to marriage to you...
Uncontrollable shaking...
Offering you gifts, money, food, anything you want...

So let's get started.

Step 1 - The Welcomed Method

You want to start with a variation of what is called The Welcomed Method. It's a technique that David Shade describes in his book “The Masterful Lover.”

You essentially are going to finger her clit to orgasm. Lay next to her, while kissing her and licking her breasts. Use a well lubed finger, and start softly stroking her clit. Occasionally slip your finger into her pussy for wetness, but concentrate on the clit.
Go softly as you don't want to make her too sore, but make sure you keep a steady rhythm. Explore what feels good to her, but with most girls this should be quite easy as long as your finger is well lubed, and you keep up a nice rhythmic motion.

After a few minutes, if done properly, she'll cum. Not a massive orgasm, but a small one which will still feel very good for her. Once she cum, keep your middle finger on her clit. DO NOT MOVE YOUR FINGER.

Just keep it there, almost as if you are cupping it. What will happen, is that the orgasm she had, will keep flowing over her body in waves. She'll most likely shudder, every now and again, but leave your finger there for a few minutes while you keep kissing her and whispering sweet filth into her ear.

Step 2 - Eating Her Pussy

Kiss down her body and move onto eating her pussy. If her clit is still too sensitive, then don't lick it directly. There are a million resources on the web on how to eat pussy, so if you don't know, look it up on like YouPorn or RedTube. (I've embedded a video in this section).

The trick here, is using your thumb inside her. Slide your thumb into her pussy (thumb nail facing upwards), while the rest of your palm is under her cupping her ass.

Get your thumb in a couple of inches, push down (make sure you have trimmed nails), and you should feel a rough/ridged area. Rub this firmly
(I use circles, but it depends on what feels good to your girl), while eating her pussy, and your girl should start reacting almost immediately.

If she's writhing around, and bucking like a bronco, you know you've hit the spot. Keep this up, especially the rubbing of the rough/ridged area on the bottom of her pussy, and she'll have a massive orgasm. Some girls even squirt like this.

Step 3 - Time To Fuck

Now start fucking. Do whatever you do, but try not to bust your nut too soon. You want to fuck her enough to loosen her up, but not enough that you've dried her up. She may still get dry if your using condoms (recommended unless in a committed relationship), so have plenty of lube handy.

Step 4 - Make Her Squirt

After fucking her for a bit (5-20mins depending on your stamina and staying power), it's time to make her squirt.

To be honest, I learnt how to make girls squirt from watching porn. Look up the porn star Cytherea. She was the first one's I saw squirt, and because she seemed to be in so much insane pleasure it made me fascinated with replicating it.

There's a video in the members area which will show you the technique.
If you do this properly, 9/10 girls will squirt. Usually the ones who don’t are the ones who don’t feel comfortable enough with you yet.

Step 5 - Push Her Over The Edge

Now for the money. If you’ve managed to get through all this and you haven’t yet bust a nut, the girl will already thing you’re the biggest stud around. Now you take it to the next level.

After making her squirt, get on top of her and put her legs up by her ears, or on you shoulders with you leaning forward so you can get in real deep.

If you’re big, be careful as some girls can't take this. Once in this position, start giving her long strokes. Not shallow, or particularly hard at first, but firm, long deep strokes.

Build up the pace till your really giving it to her. She’ll start cumming, but this time she won't stop. Keep long stroking her and she'll keep cumming over and over again. After a few orgasms like this, her orgasms will all roll into one long orgasm and your woman will be literally going berserk beneath you. She will keep cumming as long as you’re thrusting and won't stop till you do. So plough away.

And that my friends is it. It's a lot of fun, and even if you don't manage to do the whole thing you'll have a hell of a lot of fun in the process, and so will she.
Obviously DON'T turn this into some sort of robotic routine. Enjoy yourselves in the moment, enjoy the intimacy and have fun. If you can replicate the above, I promise you, she will NEVER ever forget it.

Note - Don’t be a prick. Cuddle after sex, kiss her, get her a towel to clean her up, and generally make her feel good afterwards. This can be a pretty intense experience for her and how you treat her afterwards is important.

Enjoy,

Greg C. Greenway
