National Museum of the Pacific War—Main Convention Venue

The main site of the 2008 Convention of the Pearl Harbor Survivors Association will be the National Museum of the Pacific War, a Texas Historical Commission property operated by the Admiral Nimitz Foundation in Fredericksburg, Texas.

Unique, chronologically-organized exhibits and walk-through dioramas make history come alive. They inspire our youth by honoring our heroes.

Both the PHSA and SDPHS will dedicate memorial plaques in the Memorial Court Yard on Dec. 7th.

The Pacific Combat Zone is the latest and most illustrative exhibit area of the Museum. The outside exhibit is visited through guided tour groups and is captivating old and young alike by transporting them through various combat locations of the Pacific War.
The President’s Message

This is my last “President’s Message” in the Gram as my term as National President will be over after swearing in the newly elected officers at the convention in Fredericksburg, Texas. I plan to continue to serve PHSA as the Gram Publisher/Editor.

It has been an honor to serve as President of the Pearl Harbor Survivors Association, Inc. To represent the members of this unique organization of Veterans who were stationed on the military bases on the island of Oahu on Dec. 7th, 1941 has been a rewarding experience. The opportunity to personally meet so many PHSA members, wives, widows, and family members has been the highlight of my years of service to the organization. The hundreds of phone conversations, letters, and emails received provided additional ways to get acquainted with the nation’s finest defenders of our great country and the freedom it provides.

As long as we can, we, the military survivors of our nation’s conflicts, have the responsibility to honor those who have gone before us and make certain that the security of our nation is not again compromised. Our nation must remain alert to protect its citizens from our enemies from within and without our borders. God Bless You All!

2008 National Convention Information

Inn And Motel Reservations Final Cut Off Date Is November 3, 2008

It is important that those planning to come to the convention make their motel reservations as soon as possible before the November 3rd deadline!

The Christmas parade, which we will be in, always uses up a large amount of available rooms during the early December dates and there are other groups coming to town during the same period as the convention.

The Sunday House Inn & Suites and Super 8 Motel both include breakfast and are close to the Nimitz Museum, restaurants, and shopping. The two motels are across the street from each other on Main Street. Transportation to and from the headquarters motels, if needed, will be provided by the local shuttle service.

For Super 8 Motel reservations call 1-830-997-6568 direct or toll free, 1-800-800-8000. For Sunday House Inn & Suites reservations call 1-800-274-3762 or 1-830-997-4484.

Below is the bus transportation coupon to be used by those who will be picked up at the San Antonio Int. Airport on December 4th and taken to their motel in Fredericksburg. Return to San Antonio airport will be in the a.m. Dec. 8th.

Please reserve ROUND TRIP seats on the Daisy Tours bus that will pick us up at the San Antonio International Airport and take us to our motel in Fredericksburg, Texas on Dec. 4, 2008. Buses will return us to the same airport in the a.m. on December 8.

First And Last
Shots Fired In World War II
A Documented History of the War In The Pacific —Plus One Man’s Journey Through His Life. All In One Book!

This book, like the veteran featured in the story, is dedicated to promoting the ideals of “Remember Pearl Harbor” and the objectives of the Pearl Harbor Survivors Association. The opening of this well-written book traces the life of Mack Abbott, who grew up in the South, to his days in Parris Island Marine Boot Camp. This is a particularly interesting section spiced with humor and present-day references.

The next section of the book recalls his trip to Hawaii on the USS Lexington, and his duty tour with the Third Defense Battalion. Included is a historical Prelude to Pearl section that’s worth the price of the book itself. After the attack on Pearl Harbor, Mack was sent to Palmyra and Midway, and provides an excellent account of the Battle of Midway. Chapters 8-10 feature the battles for Guadalcanal and Tulagi, Saipan and Tinian. The book ends with the post war era and a Chapter titled Life Begins At 80.

Scholarship Chairman, Bob Kerr, desires to thank George Blake, Don Ralph, and Arthur Schreier, the other committee members, for their dedication to the Scholarship Program and their devotion in completing a difficult assignment. If you have grandchildren, and who doesn’t, you can image the task of trying to keep the scholarship program on schedule when 27 of the 34 applications were postmarked July 15, the last date the applications had to be mailed to qualify for consideration.

Early life

Military career
Cartwright was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps in November 1971. He attended Naval Flight Officer training and graduated in April 1973. He attended Naval Aviator training and graduated in January 1977. He has operational assignments as an NFO in the F-4, and as a pilot in the F-4, OA-4, and F/A-18.

Cartwright's staff assignments include: Director for Force Structure, Resources and Assessment, J-8 the Joint Staff (2002-2004); Directorate for Force Structure, Resources and Assessment, J-8 the Joint Staff (1996-1999); Deputy Aviation Plans, Policy, and Budgets Headquarters, U.S. Marine Corps (1993-1994); Assistant Program Manager for Engineering, F/A-18 Naval Air Systems Command (1986-1989).

He graduated with distinction from the Air Command and Staff College, Maxwell AFB 1986, and received his Master of Arts in National Security and Strategic Studies from the Naval War College, Newport, Rhode Island 1991. He was selected for and completed a fellowship with Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1994.

From 9 July 2004 to August 10, 2007, Cartwright served as the Commanding officer of United States Strategic Command. He was promoted to the rank of General on September 1, 2004.

Vice Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff
On June 8, 2007, U.S. Defense Secretary Robert Gates recommended Cartwright to be the next Vice Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, to replace retiring Admiral Edmund Giambastiani; President George W. Bush formally announced the nomination, with that of Admiral Michael Mullen to be Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, on June 28, 2007.

Senator John Warner of Virginia, the senior Republican on the Senate Armed Services Committee, stated, "General Cartwright has an extraordinary grasp and understanding of the global posture that America must maintain in this era of new and ever-changing threats.

National Park Service Previews New $52 Million Pearl Harbor Museum & Visitor Center With Survivors And WWII Veterans

The National Park Service invited Pearl Harbor Survivors (military and civilian), WWII Veterans, members of other veterans organizations, historians, and the general public to special 2-hour presentations and discussions on the new Pearl Harbor Museum and Visitor Center in late August, 2008. Presentations and discussions were held in ten locations in Arizona, California, and Nevada. Scheduled for groundbreaking sometime within the next several months, the new Visitor Center will feature an expanded museum and interpretation of the attack on the military installations on the island of Oahu on Dec. 7th, 1941 and WWII in the Pacific Theater.

The multi-media presentation included views and components of the new museum and visitor center, interpretative plans, and concept illustrations. The two-way discussion sought opinions from the audience on several items that could be sensitive issues in telling the story of a war to visitors of all ages. Below is a photo of the NPS staff, Survivors & Wives at the Ontario, Southern California event.

West Point To Pearl Harbor—A Little Boy Remembers the Japanese Attack and Other Survivors Stories From America’s Greatest Military Disaster

This gifted writer is offering the extraordinary story of the Spangler family who experienced and survived the Pearl Harbor attack that fateful day of December 7, 1941. WEST POINT TO PEARL HARBOR was inspired by two factors of great importance to the author: the fear that Pearl Harbor’s hard-earned lessons would be forgotten and his father’s death in 1998. Dick Spangler reveals the private journals of his father’s life as a cadet at the U.S. Military Academy in the late 1920’s and 30’s. Dick Spangler shares the intimacy of love letters written between his parents, coupled with incredible eyewitness accounts of surviving sailors and soldiers, plus his own childhood memory of this most unforgettable moment in history. The stories are told so vividly by survivors that the reader can experience the true feelings of these courageous heroes who were forced to participate in the horrifying event. There is no truer way to learn history. This book commemorates in an enduring manner those who were there on American soil at the start of World War II. Features 150 photos — many never published before.

Mandatory reading for those who were there and for those generations of Americans who have a serious sense of what many historians consider the most epochal military event in our nation’s history.

A portion of the royalties is being donated equally to the Pearl Harbor Memorial Fund and to West Point’s Long Gray Line Endowment.

Pearl Harbor 1940-1941

This historically accurate book documents the story of the Japanese attack on the Island of Oahu from the perspective of a survivor whose home was less than 500 feet from the Arizona when it exploded. She was nine years old. Later in the day, she and her older sister would respond to the attack by loading belts of machine gun bullets.

In October of 1940, Joan Zuber Earle and her sister moved with their parents to Ford Island, in the middle of Pearl Harbor. While her father, the commander of the Naval Air Station Marine barracks, and mother set up housekeeping, the Zuber girls and their friends explored their island paradise. They danced in the Lei Day Festival dressed as flowers.

The book is well written with the precision of a marksman. The author has a special talent, to write simply and clearly about her childhood in a time and location that would change the world forever. Excellent photos. It’s must reading for all Pearl Harbor Survivors, their children and grandchildren. A great gift for both young and old!

Price: $16.95 plus $3. for S/H. Send check or M.O. to: Joan Zuber Earle, 106 Lexitord Road, Piedmont, CA 94611
Telephone: 510-547-4109 Email: joanzearle@aol.com

A great book written by a nine-year-old girl who in lived in the middle of Pearl Harbor. Great gift for Survivors or kids.
Naval Amphibious Base Hosts Virginia Chapter 2
By Bill Muehleib, PHSA National Gov. Liaison

VA Chapter 2, the Tidewater Chapter, has always enjoyed an exceptional relationship with the people of the base and access to the Naval Amphibious Base, Little Creek, in Virginia Beach. Our Chapter 2 Memorial occupies a prominent position on the base and is the focal point for our December 7th Memorial Services.

On May 26th, Chapter 2 members, widows and spouses, and the Sons and Daughters who support our chapter were invited as guests to a luncheon at the Base Visitors Center, honoring our Survivors hosted by the Commanding Officer of the Base, Captain William "Bill" Crow.

After a buffet luncheon, Captain Crow presented each spouse or widow with a Certificate of Appreciation for the support they had provided to their Pearl Harbor Survivor. This was followed with the Captain presenting each Pearl Harbor Survivor with an 18" by 22" framed Walnut plaque. A photograph of the Arizona Memorial, a brass plate inscribed to the individual recipient of the plaque, and a full color picture of our Chapter 2 Memorial were the feature points of the plaque. See pg. 27 for photo.

At the luncheon there were three Survivors from Wheeler Field; Bill Temple, Ed Hoosack, and Bill Muehleib.

Alabama Chapter 1 Meets In Guntersville State Park Lodge

On the weekend of March 7-8, 2008, members of Alabama Chapter #1 gathered at the Guntersville State Park Lodge. Despite the bitter cold and threat of snow, SIX Survivors and ten family members enjoyed the newly remodeled lodge; especially the Mission Style dining room and fine food. A business meeting was conducted Saturday afternoon to discuss future get-togethers.

On Memorial Day, the Disabled American Veterans Chapter of Piedmont honored Paul Joyce, USS Utah, at Veterans Park by dedicating a marble bench which is engraved with his name, rate on December 7th, 1941 and identifies his station on that date—USS Utah.

The Lilac City Chapter of Pearl Harbor Survivors in Spokane, Washington, has grown increasingly active over the years. In addition to meeting for lunch on the second Saturday of every month, this friendly "band of brothers and others" (spouses, widows, adult children, and honorary members) has been even busier than usual.

So far this year, the Pearl Harbor Survivors in Spokane have participated in the annual Armed Forces Day Parade, were collectively interviewed and photographed for the Spokesman Review newspaper, taught the history of December 7, 1941, to several classes of middle school students, and celebrated their friendship on the beach with a barbecue and pontoon boat cruise around one of Spokane's many scenic lakes. In August, as honored guests of Spokane's minor league baseball team on "Fireworks Night," a member threw out the first ball.

For this highly-active PHSA chapter, typical attendance at monthly meetings and all other social and community events in recent years is seldom less than fifteen.

USS Oklahoma Memorial is constructed of 429 pieces of three-dimensional white marble columns, engraved with the names of each crew member who perished during the attack. The white marble columns are arranged in a “V” shape to resemble crew members manning the rails. Surrounding the columns are black marble slabs etched with notable quotes from Oklahoma survivors. Navy photos by Mass Communication Specialist 1st Class James E. Foehl

USS Oklahoma Memorial Committee and the National Park Service hosted a joint dedication ceremony for the USS Oklahoma (BB-37) Memorial Dec. 7, 2007 on historic Ford Island.

The memorial stands to honor the 429 Sailors and Marines on board Oklahoma who lost their lives on Dec. 7, 1941 after being hit by five torpedoes and capsizing at Pearl Harbor. “Today we will right a horrible wrong,” said Rear Adm. Doug McClain, Director of Global Operations, U.S. Strategic Command and master of ceremonies for the event. “We will finally dedicate a memorial to the 429 Sailors and Marines that have not yet been recognized properly. That day, 429 U.S. Sailors and Marines lost their lives, tragically killed. Today we remember and honor their service and sacrifice to this country,” said McClain.

The above picture clearly shows the curvature of the white marble columns of the memorial designed by architect Don Beck. The Oklahoma survivor, above, Paul Goodyear, was one of the key driving forces behind the campaign to honor his shipmates with the impressive memorial on Ford Island. Douglas A. Lentz, Superintendent, USS Arizona Memorial reviews the memorial with Survivor Goodyear.

Illinois Chapter Two Holds Summer Picnic At Lake Springfield

On July, 19, 2008 Illinois Chapter Two held its annual summer picnic at the Lake Springfield Disabled Veterans’ Club. The meeting began at 9:30 A.M. with coffee, donuts and socializing. At noon, lunch was served by the Chapter’s Sons and Daughters. Included were hamburgers, hot dogs, salads, desserts and drinks. The chapter is fortunate to have an active SDPHS chapter.

Chapter One, in the Chicago area, is in the process of organizing a SDPHS chapter. When they finalize it, the Chapter Two President plans to go to Northern Illinois to install the officers.

Five Survivors attended the picnic. Seated above, are James Duncan, Charles Pinnell, and Finch Stowell. Standing are Carl Browning and John Kelly.

The ladies of Chapter 2 took it easy at the 2008 summer picnic as the Chapter’s Son and Daughters prepared the food.

Sons, daughters, and grandchildren who attended and assisted in the successful Chapter 2 Summer Picnic.

Resolution #2008-01
Subject: Final Disbursement of PHSA Funds

Acknowledging the fact that our National Pearl Harbor Survivor Organization is fast coming to an end due to the ages of members and knowing that certain administrative matters should be acted upon promptly regarding our assets, I therefore make the following proposal:

WHEREAS, the Pearl Harbor Survivors Association Sons and Daughters Organization is an active growing unit of our sons and daughters, who are firmly dedicated to honor all the values and precepts that we hold dear.

WHEREAS, there are over 3,000 members that are embedded already in our organization and holding offices in Chapter Meetings, participating in parades, attends our national conventions, and to do whatever is requested of them.

WHEREAS, these sons and daughters are our children and they should be compensated with one-half of our total assets when the time comes.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the remainder of our assets be given to the U.S.S. Arizona Memorial Fund and administered and controlled by the Sons and Daughters Association.
