BETWEEN JAPAN AND THE SUCCESSOR HEIR BEING REPRESENTED ON BEHALF OF CODE NAME TVM-LSM-666

JAPAN and Trust Depositor of Code Name TVM-LSM-666, represented by Wolfgang Struck, the Successor Heir of Prince Julian Macleod Tallano, His Excellency President Ferdinand E. Marcos, and Rev. Dr. Floro E. Garcia,

Having regard to the different precious metals deposits of the Trust Depositor of Code Name TVM-LSM-666 in the bullion banks around the world, and to the Global Alliance Investment Association, owner and possessor of the debt of the United States Treasury, guaranteed by the Federal Reserve System and payable in gold, together with gold royalty compounded, and to platinum and diamonds quantified the volume in metric tons and carats insured by Lloyds Insurance Brokerage Company and other Bank of International Commercial Trust and obligations assured by the "Fund Committee of the World",

Having regard to the Bilateral Minesfield Breakthrough Successor Agreement of 11 August 1950, and observing the authority to move or remove after the maturity date, under the International Banking Law of Bailment, the gold AU, real estate, cash, and other properties under Code of TVM-LSM-666,

Having regard to the Green Eagle Heritage Foundation Corporation Letter of Instruction and the Summary Regulation for the "Managers Paper Currency System" dated July 1, 1983, providing Marcos' immortal legacy for equal share of the benefits of progress, and the trust agreement for different allied states providing peace, progress, and prosperity,

Having regard to the Successor to the Bilateral Minesfield Breakthrough Successor Agreement of 12 April 2014 of the Board of Governors of the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund, and in particular Section 2 thereof,

Having regard to the fallen soldiers of JAPAN who sacrificed their lives in World War II to free humanity from usury,

Having regard to Nukata No Ookimi's advice: "While we waited for the full moon to embark in Nigitazu, the high tide came in. Let's start now."

HAVE AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

Article 1

JAPAN will issue gold coins, gold leaf, and aurum in denominations, face value, and intrinsic value equivalent to the currency in circulation and deposit money (M1) in 2014. The gold currency will be valid legal tender. Sufficient coinage in the base metals shall continue in circulation in order to make change.

Article 2

TVM-LSM-666 will allocate gold to JAPAN for the issue of its currency from the gold on deposit in Bank of Tokyo. The details of the gold deposit in Bank of Tokyo are in Annex A. The price of gold is to be set at ¥ 250,000 per troy ounce, which represents its historic mean, calculated in accordance with its long term purchasing power parity with other commodities and intermediate products, in the economies of the European Union, United States, Japan, China, India, Russia, United Kingdom, Canada, Switzerland, Poland, Brazil, Mexico and Australia.

Article 3

JAPAN will inform the Bank of Japan of the timetable for introduction of the gold currency so that the withdrawal of the Bank of Japan's Notes in circulation can be coordinated pari passu. When all of JAPAN's currency in circulation is denominated in gold, the deposit component of M1 comprising JAPAN's currency shall no longer be denominated in Bank of Japan Notes.

Article 4

Local currencies for goods and services, as shall be issued by villages and municipalities, and accepted by local merchants and businesses in JAPAN, shall also be entitled to legal tender status. When local currency represents 20% of the currency in circulation, JAPAN shall receive additional allocations of gold from TVM-LSM-666 so that M1 is equivalent to JAPAN's Gross Domestic Product.

Article 5

Thereafter, the annual face value of the ¥ gold currency issued by JAPAN shall be equivalent to the growth in Gross Domestic Product. No later than 1 September each year Japan Mint shall notify TVM-LSM-666 of the face value of the gold currency that it intends to issue during the following year. JAPAN undertakes to use the Japan Mint and no other establishment to mint its currency as long as this Agreement remains in force.

Article 6

JAPAN shall endeavor to suppress and punish any counterfeiting that may take place in its territory.

Article 7

Upon transfer of AU to Japan Mint, the participation of Wolfgang Struck is  $\frac{1}{4}$  of 1%, as Redeemer, payable to any bank of his choice.

Article 8

TVM-LSM-666 will assist Tokyo Electric Power Co. to control and contain the crisis at the Fukushima Daiichi nuclear power plant, to include the decommissioning process, disposition of spent fuel rods, disposal of contaminated water and soil contaminated with radioactive isotopes in northeastern Japan.

Article 9

Each Party may request a review of the provisions thereof. If, following such review, it should prove desirable to amend the provisions of this Agreement, Japanese law shall apply. Either Party may withdraw from this Agreement by giving one year's notice.
