Re: Gold

Dear Vaclav,

Why was my reply unexpected? I answer all my emails personally.

Why are you droning on about an unproven theory when I have already told you that I no longer concern myself with this? It is your own preoccupation, and you don't need to bore me with it.

Why did you write that the Banking Cartel is conducting "class warfare to the death" when the story is not finished, and the National War College's Power Transition model, with 90-95% likelihood, is showing that the Global Currency Reset will be the outcome?

The coalition for the rule of law is stronger than the Banking Cartel. I have already proven this in my April 28th tweet, attached. https://s3.amazonaws.com/khudes/dctvteleprompt4.28.17.pdf

You claim that you are writing for advice and yet you ignore what I am telling you.

As far as whether the Banking Cartel is going to confiscate gold using dead letter laws, https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Executive_Order_6102 or whether humanity is going to keep the gold they are currently holding, and access the gold in the Global Debt Facility, this is the same issue as "class warfare to the death".

We have already drawn the line and taken a stand with the Banking Cartel's "War on Cash". This is described in the April 25, 2017 DCTV segment https://youtu.be/HXrI5QrH6vg teleprompter: https://s3.amazonaws.com/khudes/dctvteleprompt4.18.17.1.pdf

A critical mass that understands we are now in reality is confronting the Banking Cartel with its corrupt, empty lies. Your response is defeatist. You are the one who is mistaken. Please don't bother responding. As big Cahuna said, and I retweeted, "Better get out of the way:"

Dear Karen,

I deeply appreciate your unexpected and prompt reply.

I believe all of us are victims of the banking cartel (I don't think this entity deserves... capitalization, because it may be perceived as a sign of respect/appreciation of some sort), some of us to a very large extent, but some to a much larger one, like yourself for example.

I didn't quite get the meaning of "second species", but, if you alluded to the "elongated heads or reptilians", all I can say is that, although I am open to anything outside the "mainstream" BS (Belief Science I would call it), I feel all the ills of humanity have ample and provable causes in humanity's own doings. I don't think one should seek explanations outside humanity, at least for the time being. This humanity idea is, I find, kind of tricky and funny.
When it comes to any type of issue, including religion (in particular the organized one and especially when it colludes with the government and the military), I tend to be materialistic, dialectic, pragmatic, scientific, causal, rational etc. in my analysis and formulation of causalities. Kind of trying to figure out "a qui profite le crime" as French say. Your type of approach as well, I would say. In other words, issues always tend to to be simple and, as such, to have simple causes, hence simple explanations.

Despite your admissions of mistakes, the said cartel is obviously powerful, unforgiving, unrelenting and implacable. In my opinion this is simply class warfare to the death waged by the greedy and fearful haves (as opposed to the have-nots, or their representatives). Because it seems to depend a whole lot on who made one respective mistake: one mistake made by different persons may not have the same "weight" in terms of magnitude of the retribution from the said haves/cartel.

My question about gold had simply a pragmatic purpose: I have about $300,000 in my business account and was trying to figure out a means to transform it into a safe equivalent that would allow myself and my family to survive though the bleak times ahead. So, if the gold reserve act (sic) from 01/1934, only suspended in 2008, is still on the books potentially to be reactivated at any time, why would you advise buying gold ? If that was another mistake of yours hammered over and over by the resentful cartel, I give up and you can forget about my question.

To finalize, I keep you in the same Pantheon with John Kiriakou, John Perkins, Ed Snowden, Bradley (not Chelsea, despite the conceivable shock HE may have suffered after seeing the "Collateral Murder" tapes) Manning, Gary Webb and many others I just can't recall right now.

All the best to you,

Vaclav

Dear Vaclav,

You are victim of the Banking Cartel. I do not think that we are dealing with a "second species" because there is no proof. The Banking Cartel is trying to discredit me with old interviews I have renounced. Shills gave me that unproven theory which at first I repeated by mistake. They gave me that unproven theory hoping I would be uncritical enough to just repeat it which I did. I admit my mistake, but the Banking Cartel will not let me live it down.

As for old laws on the books that were enacted by a complicit Congress when the Constitution of 1789 was not in effect. We are not going to live by these dead, unconstitutional laws. (you can see from the link https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Executive_Order_6102 that these are no longer on the books; the upshot is that contracts which specify payment in gold are converted to fiat.

Best,
Karen

Message Body:
Dear Karen,

I "discovered" you about three hours ago, while researching some YouTube things about the JFK assassination. I already watched some of your interviews and comments and I must say I agree almost completely with your positions (private printing of money and lending at interest as primary cause of the current disaster, corruption, Jesuits, maritime admiralty law of monetization of the human being and many other topics). About Akenaten and other elongated heads I don't know, I feel that more material proof of their existence is needed, just like when it comes to reptilians - I don't discard this type of hypotheses, I just think there's not enough evidence of that yet.
But when it comes to gold, I have serious questions. I don't know what the laws regarding gold are in other countries, but in the US the 1933 act signed by FDR that allowed the theft of Americans' gold is still on the books. I know the Federal Reserve Notes are toilet paper, but why do you advocate for gold purchase when the above law is still on the books?
Thank you,

Vaclav

PS: I don't remember who said that if a government is capable of printing bonds, it certainly can print money. I think that's absolutely right.
After my tweet two days ago, which I called a "knock-out punch", the Banking Cartel mounted an all-out shill attack. There have been a lot more views of the DCTV segment about the "War on Cash". People noticed the shill attack; if anything this only helped me be more convincing. There was a very high pollen count in Washington, and I had taken over-the-counter cough medicine so that I could get through the broadcast. People noticed. I am not "controlled."

What is happening now is that people are getting used to how we work together, and expect to use their own critical thinking skills to sort through the comments. This is going to stand us in good Instead as we postpone decisions until these can be taken at the grassroots levels. I think most of us are now comfortable working together in the Global Currency Reset, and realize that the Banking Cartel cannot distract us or drown us out, or make us lose confidence in ourselves to get on with it. We are not dealing with outside forces. We ourselves are spiritual. Religion is going on the agenda after we clean up our money and cut off financial support for the insolvent Banking Cartel.

For people who say that nothing has been happening, they don't know what they are talking about. For the Coalition for the Rule of Law to have reached this place where I can say these things and this is understood as true. This is a major achievement. We had to reach this place for the Global Currency Reset to be possible. The fact is, although many of us have suffered and are suffering dreadfully, we are still largely intact. We are on the threshold of the Global Currency Reset. The triple broken link was the press release on the Global Currency Reset, which Presswire removed. But there is evidence that the Press Release on the Global Currency Reset was up on the internet for over a year, and that it was cleared first before it was issued. Yesterday there was a triple broken link, but there is still evidence that the Board of Governors' press release on the Global Currency Reset was cleared, issued, and remained up on the internet for more than a year. HERE IS WHAT WAS IN THE TRIPLE BROKEN LINK, WHICH THE BANKING CARTEL TRIED TO ERASE YESTERDAY:

The 2 quadrillion that is owed by the Fed has been fully documented, and there are UCC-1 filing statements filed with the Secretaries of States in 10 of the states where Federal Reserve Banks are located. When the Secretary of State for Illinois illegally tried to invalidate the lien against the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago, that is when I sent priority mail letters to all of the Washington embassies, showing when these letters had all been received by the Washington embassies, and requesting the Ambassadors to obtain clearance from all of the Ministers of Finance on the Board of Governors of the World Bank and IMF. https://s3.amazonaws.com/khudes/Alternative+to+WWIII.pdf

I also obtained clearance in advance for the Board of Governors' press release on the Global Currency Reset. This is also fully documented.

Here is my comment on March 6, 2015, saying that I was going to issue the press release on the Global Currency Reset in forty-eight hours. On the 9th of March I put another comment up, stating that none of the embassies had objected, and that the Presswire press release had been retweeted a number of times. When presswire took the press release down after a year and a half, this only damaged presswire.

Pepe,

You have it right as far as one part of the coalition - the BRICS, Germany, and the G-77. The other part of the coalition is the United States minus the Federal Reserve. The Board of Governors of the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund have approved public filing of Financing Statements under the Uniform Commercial Code with the Secretaries of State where the 12 Federal Reserve Banks are located. Ten UCC-1 statements have been filed electronically, and the remaining two statements are in process.

The Global Debt Facility (a trust established at the end of WWII) contains the world’s gold reserves and other wealth for the benefit of humanity. The Bretton Woods institutions, established to administer the Global Debt Facility, hold 200 boxes of Federal Reserve Notes, together with Eagle U.S. Hardware Mother Box 5 Boxes, and Treaty of Versailles Mother Box 45 Boxes in this trust. Together with compounded interest since the 1930’s, the debt of the Federal Reserve evidenced by these UCC-1 filings offsets the country debts of the member countries of the World Bank and IMF.

The fractional reserve fiat currency of each country is going to be exchanged for their national currency, but containing gold. Countries will abolish legal tender laws, and permit local currencies to be issued as well. Countries may also use other commodities for issuing their asset-backed currency.

The corrupt fractional reserve fiat currencies of the central bank members of the Bank for International Settlements are only going to be permitted until they can be exchanged for asset-backed currencies to be issued by the members of the coalition for the rule of law.

This comment will be issued in a formal press release by the Board of Governors of the Bretton Woods institutions in forty eight hours.

ingemannlarsen"A coalition for the rule of law on the Board of Governors of the World Bank and IMF is really in charge, and I am speaking for them, as well as for the people who are cleaning up the corruption in the international monetary system. " But who are these people? - Don’t tell me that they have to be kept secret for their "safety" - in these days of advanced hacking tools. The forces who might be a threat for these people will know who they are and are able to reach them - if they existed. Why do they not show themselves? - Until such time, we have to conclude that they do NOT exist. Pure bogus. - Exactly the same thing as with the alleged sarin gaz attacks. Until we have clear documentation that Assad committed them, we have to conclude that he did NOT commit them.

Janet Brockenbough

ingemannlarsen. What authority do u speak for imf?

ingemannlarsen

I do not need any "authority" to ask critical questions. Who do you represent?

Karen Hudes

This is a very cute comment. Of course you see the existence of the Coalition for the Rule of Law and they have shown who they are - this is in the power transition model. https://s3.amazonaws.com/khudes/sentia+model.pdf

The coalition for the rule of law. Who are these people? They are first and foremost the people that are commenting on my social media. They are now at critical mass. Then they are the BRICS, (Brazil, Russia, India, China, South Africa) the US minus the Fed, Germany, Japan. The G-77 (134 developing countries) You have to understand that the Banking Cartel is trying to conceal the evidence that this coalition exists, but there are clear signs, like the fact that I am continuing to use World Bank stationery, nobody is contradicting what I am saying, and what I say has grave consequences for the bit-actors like Trump, Gorsuch, Okoro, whom I have bankrupted through commercial liens, and those I have previously bankrupted, including Obama, Dunford, Bowser. The statement by Representative Trafficant in the United States Congressional Record, March 17, 1993 Vol. 33, page H-1303 (Ohio) addressing the House that the Federal Government was declared bankrupt. https://s3.amazonaws.com/khudes/Twitter3.24.17.2.pdf

The statement in the Utah Supreme Court that the US is under martial law. Actually, in 1861 the US was placed under secret martial law. http://thetexasrepublic.com/wp-content/uploads/2015/02/IN-THE-SUPREME-COURT-of-Utah-Dyett-v-Turner.pdf (See page 50: "What most people don't realize is that they have been under Martial Law Rule for over 60 years")

The US Congress declaration that the US is under a state of emergency. http://www.barefootsworld.net/war_ep1.html
The statement by the Grace Commission that income taxes all leave the country. I have put links to these statements in many of my posts. https://www.alipac.us/f19/grace-commission-report-under-ronald-reagan-showed-irs-103958/

I have put these links in a tweet today.

It means alot when the Banking Cartel tries to hide a tweet that is called "checkmate" and doesn't succeed.

Karen Hudes @KarenHudes Apr 25
Broken link = Banking Cartel agrees we're at checkmate https://s3.amazonaws.com/khudes/Twitter3.17.17.2.pdf

and then tries unsuccessfully to hide a teleprompter that says:
"There is alot going on because these culprits are trying to disprove our statement in last week's segment that we are stronger than the Banking Cartel."

This is strong evidence. The Banking Cartel is weaker than the Coalition for the Rule of Law.

Mrs Hudes is right about some VERY important things related to financial crime, black-ops and banksters. She DO know the IMF-system and the Network of Global Control. Anyone able to read some history knows that her assumptions/knowledge about the vast amounts of gold hidden away is right. Moreover, today we know that it was acquired by a "black nobility", who used criminal means to gain financial and political power already in the Roman republic. Later they were able to make Rome into a "imperial" dictatorship, putting their own "procelytes" at the helm of the politics and military. Running the worlds largest army they were able to conquer and loot the gold-rich Celts. France alone had 370? goldmines in pre-Roman time. When the last mine was empty the 'black nobility' and their loot had left the 'imperial' cleptocracy collapsing. A good generation later their descendants could return with the help of bysantian mercenaries create a much better, even a "Holy" 'Roman Empire'. With which they conquered and looted every castle, temple, hall and gravemound in the rest of Northern Europe. After a halt in the new, Roman cleptocracy the western vasalls - weaponized with canonballs and gunpowder - where able to effectively conquer Meso-America. Less than two decades after 1492 the CONVOYS (soon 21-28 ships) started crossing "Mare Oceanus" - shipping enormous amounts of gold, silver and emeralds from "Terra Fortunata". Each ship ("Galley") where built to take 30-50 tons of metallic and/or stone along the keel... Combining historical documents from Spanish and other libraries it's clearly a strong connection between this insane amount of looted gold where hidden back home in Europe, later also in Spanish Philippines. As the Pope was subject to a copy of each shipload reaching Spain or Portugal, the rulers of the 'holy' Vatican world - residing in Venice or Vienna - would be in control of ALL the loot. The quantum of acquired gold is estimated to be between 700,000 to 1,200,000 tons. The family that still runs this league of oligarchs are definitely in charge of 90% of all banking and financing that's going on in this world. As long as their collective loot remains a secret - and they can keep pushing their goldbars around, to buy of WHOMEVER and whatever they need to gain their world-wide, full-spectral ambitions...

Karen Hudes, Thank you for your video presentation teaching and education; I just found you on the Internet and appreciate the exposure of the corrupt corporate entities operating across this planet. The corporate entity of Australia, registered Washington D.C., is also very much apart of the corporate take-over involvement in criminal fraud, lies and deception. Australia has always been a haven for criminal corporate activity.
