To: PAXSON, Mark, General Counsel of California State Treasurer's Office

Dear Mark Paxson,

I sent Sharon Hicks, who is on the California State Teachers Retirement System Board as well as the Board of the National Conference on Public Employee Retirement Systems, a copy of this email. I had contacted you earlier about the corruption at the center of the international financial institutions before I became Overseer Mandate Trustee of the Global Debt Facility containing the US' monetary gold reserves.

Sincerely,

Karen Hudes

Dear Executive Board of the National Conference on Public Employee Retirement Systems:

This is to inform you that the monetary gold reserves of the United States of America are safe and are being deployed in a Global Currency Reset agreed by the 188 Ministers of Finance on the Board of Governors of the World Bank and IMF to protect the viability of the pensions which you are entrusted in overseeing. The US' monetary gold reserves are in a trust that was set up by General Eisenhower and President Truman at the end of WWII. <https://s3.amazonaws.com/khudes/BILATERAL.pdf> The privately-owned Federal Reserve Banks, which issued unconstitutional Federal Reserve Notes to surrender the United States unilaterally, are in receivership and are being wound down. The Federal Reserve's lies in the press are exposed.

Sincerely,

Karen Hudes

Within 24 hours of the following comment in Foreign Policy, the DC Circuit Court of appeals dismissed my appeal. The Court declined to issue an opinion justifying its decision, simply affirming the District Court without deciding my case de novo as required. I am forwarding recent correspondence with the European External Action Service and the National Association of Attorneys General. I will be stopping by your offices today in order to find out what you are doing about the illegal interference with my litigation and the corruption which I reported to you as a World Bank bondholder.

Sincerely,
Karen Hudes

Anna Persky writes about how foreign interests in US public elections are shielded from public scrutiny. http://www.dcb.org/for_lawyers/resources/publications/washington_lawyer/november_2012/foreign_elections.cfm The role of foreign interests is far from benign.

I am a US lawyer who worked in the World Bank's legal department for 20 years, and reported corruption to the US Congress. Cover-ups in issuers on global securities markets cannot and will not be tolerated. I have been reporting significant and pervasive control deficiencies at the World Bank for many years. The World Bank refused to cooperate with a US Government Accountability Office investigation requested by Senators Lugar, Leahy and Bayh: "In March 2009, GAO staff stated that 'we cannot begin this work because of challenges we recently faced in gaining access to World Bank officials to discuss these types of questions. We are continuing to negotiate access with World Bank officials but this process is likely to take at least several months.' Senator Lugar's staff continues to press the World Bank and GAO to begin this report during the first half of 2010." See page 18 http://www.foreignpolicy.com/files/fp_uploaded_images/int_fin_inst2.pdf

I am also a bondholder of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (one of the World Bank's five agencies) and commenced litigation against IBRD and its external auditor, KPMG. I have requested the Board of the World Bank to remove this litigation from the DC Circuit Court of Appeals. The World Bank's General Counsel, who is supervising the litigation, is part of the internal control lapses. I have testified before the European Parliament and the UK Parliament posted my evidence on its website twice. The latest testimony was published on November 2, 2012 and is at: <http://www.publications.parliament.uk/pa/cm201213/cmselect/cmpubadm/writev/publicpolicy/m03.htm>

Ms. Hudes:

Please remove me from your email group. Receiving almost daily emails for weeks now that do nothing more than repeat the same things, with the same email strings attached, does nothing to persuade me that this is a matter that the California State Treasurer's Office should, or even could if it wanted to, get involved in. As I explained to you when you first approached this office, your litigation appeared primarily to be a personal employment case involving your claims of being unjustly fired from your position with the World Bank. Many of the emails that have been sent in recent weeks continue to deal with that matter and it is something that this office simply does not have any jurisdiction or authority over.

Thank you.
Mark Paxson
