2009: A Year of Hope and Change Year Ahead Horoscope for SADGE By Astrology Detective Astrologydetective.com Overview There are a number of major planetary shifts this year, all which we will explore in-depth in the following chapters. This year sees Pluto finally changing signs for good. It will remain in Capricorn for the next 15 years or so. Jupiter is also changing signs in early January, and will remain in Aquarius all year. The Nodes will be changing sign in August, which is also the start of a new eclipse cycle. Finally, after over 2 long years, Saturn will be changing signs in late October and entering Libra. You are normally a very direct, forthright sign, but over the past year your communication with others may have alternated between vague nebulousness and brutal honesty. This may have been compounded by Pluto's transit through your identity sector, bringing up questions of personal power and the use of that power. Your entire concept of power, in fact, may have completely transformed over the past decade. The good thing to know is that Pluto, in the final months of 2008, left this sector of your chart, and your sense of self will renew to its more charming, adventuresome sunny self. The focus now shifts to money, home and career. There may be sudden shifts in your home life that are demanding you to work ever harder at the office to bring home the bacon. Alternatively, your focus on work could be wrecking your home life, as family members feel a bit shunned. You are at the peak of a 29-year cycle as far as career is concerned, and the burdens may be over-bearing at times, but it is well worth it as you can make significant strides. You may not become an overnight sensation, but through hard and steady work you will be assured not to be a flash in the pan either. You can really set your future up now through focus and by shouldering as much responsibility as you possibly can. If you try to shun work, the burdens will only be greater, and the reward not as fundamental when it does eventually come. You may had an influx of funds this past year, or money issues may have really blown up in some way. In 2009, money will increasingly take on an added focus as you realise that money and possessions bring with them not only stability but a form a power. How you wield that power will mean a lot to how you hold on to it. JUPITER IN AQUARIUS January 5, 2009 - January 18, 2010 OVERVIEW Jupiter is a planet that, unlike other planets in astrology, doesn't have its own highly defined vibe. What Jupiter, the so-called gas giant, tends to do is blow up what is already there and exaggerate it. This can lead to feelings of expansiveness, but also, on the downside, to feelings of egomania and over-confidence, which could be a turnoff to others. Wherever Jupiter is transitting there is always the danger of things spinning out of control or of getting too big for one's britches. Even though you may not want to at this time, it would be best to listen to old friends and family for advice if they start to insinuate that you have gone a bit mad. You may be drunk on exuberance, but a little reality check every once in a while could save you a lot of head ache in the long run.
