Evelyn "Bobbi" Trout Bobbie Trout was born in Greenup, Illinois on Jan. 7, 1906. During her early years, she and her younger brother Denman "Denny" Trout moved around quite a bit before settling in Southern California during 1920. Evelyn earned her nickname "Bobbi" after having her hair bobbed short. From the day Bobbi saw her first airplane, she just knew she would learn to fly: it was in her blood. Bobbi was 16 when she had her first airplane ride, in an OX5 powered Jenny. By the age of 22 she earned enough money to make her dream come true. She went over to Burdett Fuller's Flying School in Los Angeles and signed up for a flying course. Her first lesson was a disappointment to her. It was on paper, on the principles of flight. Her next lesson, however, was in the sky, on Jan. 1, 1928, and that started a long and exciting career in aviation.

These short biographies in the Great Women in Aviation Series tell the stories of notable women pilots whose passion for flight inspires young and old alike to take to the skies. This 1,400 word monograph is not meant to be a comprehensive history of Evelyn &#x22;Bobbi&#x22; Trout&#x2019;s life, but it discusses her involvement in aviation, and the positive message she conveys. The main purpose of this biography is to inspire youth to follow their dreams of flight. This will make an excellent source for a book report or other paper.
