NIGHT VOICES

Elizabeth Coldwell

Roxy is the queen of sex advice— Can she work her magic on the man who needs her the most?

Laurie Macari is no longer the hottest thing on radio. His phone-in program, Late Night with Laurie, is falling in the ratings and he's in danger of being shunted off to the graveyard shift. Dr Roxy Rose is the American sex therapist whose provocative advice and sultry voice are exactly what Laurie's boss reckons is needed to spice up his show.

At first, Laurie resents Dr Roxy muscling in on his airtime, but sparks fly between them, on-air and off. The more time they spend in the cramped studio, the more Laurie comes to realize the sex life that can benefit most from Dr Roxy's magic is his own. Together they play ever more kinky games, as bratty Roxy submits to Laurie's dominant demands, but what will Roxy's ultimate reward be on the night of the big radio awards ceremony?

Chapter One

“Face it, Laurie, the show’s dying on its arse.”

Laurie Macari sighed, and set his coffee mug, which bore a likeness of his face and the Late Night with Laurie logo, down on the desk. When he’d been called into Don’s office for ‘a little chat’, he’d been expecting the usual backslapping and praise for his show, not this almost forensic dissection of where he was going wrong.

“Oh come on, Don. That’s a bit harsh.”

“The figures don’t lie. Your ratings are down forty percent since this time last year, and the focus groups are telling us that Late Night with Laurie sounds tired and dated. Okay, so you used to be the hottest thing on the airwaves, we all know that, but those days are long gone.” *
