Acknowledgements

I would first like to thank GOD for blessing me with this opportunity, and for placing good people in my life. One of those good people is Mr. Bridgeforth, my third grade teacher. His passion for politics inspired me to follow MY dreams and write this book!

In addition, I'd like to thank my parents for being so loving and supportive. My father encouraged me to write (and to keep on writing), and challenges me to never give up.

And, last but not least, my final acknowledgement goes to The Solid Foundation Group for putting in a lot of effort to complete this project. I am happy to see my dreams come true.

Dedication

This book is dedicated to my family: Mommy and Daddy; Amari; GG Henderson; PopPop and YaYa; Uncle Joffre and Auntie Ericka; Grandpa and Nana Lias; Granny and PopPop Udeh; my Great Aunts/Uncles; cousins, and other family members.

Growing up on a farm full of chaos, prejudices and unfair treatment, Freddy, a shy third grader, believed that if he could become President of Calpernia, he could really bring forth a positive change to his Gabby Land community. Although doubtful of his abilities at first, Freddy finally convinced himself that he was just as good as any other Presidential candidate, including Farmer John, who was not only jealous of Freddy, but was also Freddy's competition in the election.

Despite Farmer John's angst and opposition, Freddy's continued campaign momentum and genuine concern for the unification of all Calpernians resonated throughout the countryside. Through his confidence, Freddy gained the support of the people and not only won the election, but also became the most successful President ever in Calpernia's history. The people of Calpernia lived happily ever after, just as Freddy had wanted "united and without prejudice."

Alana Johnson's "The Pig Who Became President (A Story About Courage and Friendship)" is a book creatively written to show and prove how anyone "even a pig" can make a difference in their community if they only tried.
