Acknowledgments

The impact of the Word of God has played a dominant role in shaping my life through the years. I am eternally grateful to the Lord Jesus who saved me, gave me eternal life, and His Holy Spirit to help me fulfill my mandate on the Earth. However, since no man is an island on the Earth, our success stories are always inter-woven with the influences of others and their achievements. I am humbled and grateful.

Preface

This book is designed to responsively provoke your thoughts about why you are here as an individual functioning in a distinct leadership office in such a time as this. It has in itself the different facets of the importance of your person who finds themselves in life's scenarios not created by yourself.

- If you have ever sat down to ask yourself, why am I here, and how come I get to do this? Then this book has your answers.
- If you have ever believed in your relevance and are confident in your abilities to help your generation, even more so, is this book for you.
- If you have never believed in your abilities, and yet have always been pushed forward into leadership by others, whose confidence in you to achieve more than you thought you could, then you need to read this book from cover to cover, more than three times.
- If you are just beginning your leadership journey, or find yourself at the end of your roles, the inspirations of this book are exactly what you may need.
- The considerations of this leadership literature I believe are indisputable thoughts for every mentor to use for discussions, instructions, and encouragements to your clients and students.
- There are values in this book that every political leader of the highest authorities should feed on.
- The young millennial, young professionals, and their networks, need the subjects discussed in this book at the forefront of their deliberations and meditations.

May your life's journey of leadership and its aspirations be full of great adventures, creativity, witty inventions and thought inspiring moments.

I dare the end results of your input into this world you came to meet, become an endless legacy to the generations you will never see or meet.

Introduction

The subject of social greatness, success, prosperity, influence, productivity, creativity, transformation, elevation, promotion, and more has always began with one man, one person, based on the principle of one. One can be defined as: alone, only, precise, particular, singular, sole, unique, uncommon, different, and definite. The power of one is one of God's hidden treasures revealed. The power of one has never failed; it has always produced results, but with its misunderstandings have also come failures and deceptions. I pray a fresh inspiration upon your life as you read this book: The Power of One, as in the glory of one, the inspiration of one, and the key of one.

The word "network" has become a usual thinking process in the middle income to the upper echelon of successful communities. The inspiration to be successful has always bred the desire to drive a team or a social group of people to one goal, that is to network. Explained phonetically as "a net that works", a network is the aim for every above-average thinker to be part of a successful synergy of ascending individuals in life.

However, the genesis of every known network in history so far, has always begun from the thought of a man. The power of one is the womb of every network but the spine of every network needs the brain of a selfless individual, with a motivation to overtake the failure syndrome of a society, an industry, a community, or even a school. Networks always began from one thinking brain, in most cases an eternally chosen vessel of grace.

History has also proven the hijacking of a, Type A personality born to be great and a blessing, but can be turned around by evil forces to use their God given capacity to the disgrace of human excellence. It is my prayer that no vessel of potential power will ever again be hijacked and deterred away from the pathway of light, glory and positive fruitfulness in any time-frame. Help us O Lord and protect our time with the covering of your glory, grace, and mercy and inspiration; let that which is wrong always be defused in our hearts and let that which is right always be empowered in our hearts! Amen.

Chapter 1: The Principle

Principle is the method of formation, operation or procedure exhibited in a given case. Being also defined as an accepted rule of action or conduct, it has always been the underscoring factor of God's Word, will and ways. The subject of this book, The Power of One, emanates from the principled nature and attribute of the Triune God yet functioning as one authority in all ways.

For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word (Christ), and the Holy Ghost: and these three are ONE.

I John 5:7

Certainly this scripture ascertains the awesome glorious functionality of three distinct personalities of the Godhead. Their ability to present themselves as one personality reveals their capacity, capability and authority in operation. This is an incredible revelation to behold. Being both the creators and holders of eternity and time, the Godhead operates and administers their counsel and purpose in the most succinct and flawless manner of accurate judgment in manifestation. Declaring things which are not yet fulfilled or done, from ancient times we see the effective establishment of divine pleasure and purpose in whatever they put their thoughts and foreknowledge into.

Having the records of the past, present and future, God effectively made both heaven and earth to prosper with the same principles, that is to say, that which makes heaven effective is designed to make the earth prosperous. The amazing ability of the Godhead operating as one, is the reason why He is able to choose one person in time, to manifest in fulfillment, what is decided. For every person that He calls there has always been a God-reason with foreknowledge. Having said that, the original intent of the record-holding God, is the reason why people are called in certain manners, in certain times and for certain assignments. This is all recorded throughout the history of mankind. This principle has not failed.

Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me, declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure: Calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man that executeth my counsel from a far country: yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it.

Isaiah 46:9-11

The one God created Adam as one, called Noah as one, raised Abraham as one, Isaac and Jacob as individuals, and Moses as one. In Exodus 3:6 God introduced Himself to Moses as the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob pronouncing His eternal ability and design. He handled three different individuals in three different dispensations, separately and yet continuing the sequence of the same vision without flaw. Abraham, Isaac and Jacob were three separate human entities, yet functioning in the proclamation of one divine purpose, achieving the ultimate goal individually yet corporately. Moses being introduced to God perceives that it is God's time for him to be that one individual person with a specific, eternal assignment to be fulfilled. In Romans 8:29-30, Paul's letter to Rome by the inspiration of God indicates a process of the eternal records in God's thoughts about individuals He works with. In the natural time-frames, the God who foreknows every individual, is also He who:

1. Predestines
2. Calls
3. Justifies
4. Glorifies

This principle has measured and authenticated the true mandate of the works of the Lord through any person or people He lays His hands on. The God of records works in the most organized, predetermined plan of action for a desired goal towards glorification. The foreknowledge of God is the conclusive record dynamics of what is packaged, planned and designed in a lively state of being, in the thought of the Holy Trinity. The implementation of their thoughts establish an administered end of expectation to be revealed. The foreknowledge and predestined status of a person in God's mind to be established before the call, is an incredible and unfailing principle of the highest order. The sovereign leaders, being the Father, the Word (Christ) and the Holy Ghost in their leadership state of creativity, knowledge and excellence, see the end from the beginning. They set the path of successful mandates in place before releasing the chosen human vessel designed to carry it through, into the required mandate or calling. That is to say, the records of heaven must tally with expected works of every chosen man on earth.

After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

John 19:28

By this scripture Jesus had to make sure that His deeds in the earth were in perfect accordance with what was written concerning Him before coming to the earth. So is the expectation of every chosen vessel of the Lord in time.

Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me, I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart.

Psalms 40:7-8

Knowing however the weakness of men, heaven protects their mandate through the principle of justification. In other words overruling the probability of human weaknesses attempting stop the will of God, by the divine gifts, anointing, inspirations, visitations, impartation and directions as required. These are endowed on a person, to make him succeed no matter what, except by his own choice to fail. With the ultimate, wonderful plan of glory, we are called to bring much honor to God, the original record creator and master planner. For this cause we get to enjoy rewards through our obedience in walking the journey that was determined for our benefit and fulfillment. The influence of one personality becoming an authority in the manifestation of an ultimate purpose is first found in the character and nature of God. It is considered as one of the cardinal mysteries of the values of the Most High God in the operation, administration and manifestation of His will without fail.

Deuteronomy 6:4 states that, "Hear ye oh Israel, for the Lord thy God, He is one God. With reference to verse 3, which states the validity of the promise of a land of milk and honey. In His sovereignty this ONE God can handle the responsibility of bringing a people from the place of depravity, slavery, rejection and failure to an utmost success story; situated in a land most precious above all lands. The credibility of an amazing God revealed in the Holy Scriptures to work as one without fail, gives credence to why He is able to choose one person for an unbelievable vision-package which is literally impossible for an ordinary human being to fulfill. If God as ONE can create eternity and time with such perfection, then He can create one man on the earth to manage it. This is God Most High at work. He truly understands how to design human beings in His image and after His likeness, to the intent that they might function individualistically to achieve a glorious goal in a pluralistic environment.

Ephesians 4:1-15 says there is:

- One body
- One Spirit
- One calling
- One hope of your calling
- One Lord
- One faith
- One baptism
- One God
- One Father of all who is above all, through all and in you all.

To every one person that is called, is given heaven's grace for fulfillment. Jesus held captivity captive. He gave gifts of ministry to men; to some apostles, to some prophets, to some evangelists, to some pastors, to some teachers, for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edification of the body of Christ. (Ephesians 4:11-12). This incredible insight reveals the Kingdom network made up of individual persons loaded with God values, visions, gifts and offices. A formidable network of the "God-kind of people" set apart as a united force, gives strength and stature to His Kingdom, in the unity of Christ. I would say there has been a lot of discussion about networking, but understanding that the principle and strength of a network is found in its weakest individual, is essential. This amplifies the importance of one person in God's sight. If every individual can be successful in fulfilling God's plan, then we achieve the success story of a Kingdom where solid individuals create a bond of fellowship in a generation.

Apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, teachers, and all other gifts of ministry work together. They have their own anointing and offices which are designed to depend on each other, so as to strengthen our worship to God as one team in one Kingdom. Each office walks in the understanding of purpose interdependently yet individualistically. What perfect team work! A network of individuals creating the net worth of God's Kingdom. David's army was as formidable as the host of heaven, yet made up of individual warriors like Joash and Amasai, etc. (I Chronicles 12:1-13).

May you receive your revelation, catch your mantle like Elisha and move the Kingdom to the glory of God!

Every individual personality in the house of the Lord who understands their journey in destiny, is like a joint that supplies the beauty of the bigger picture, released from eternity into time. The Trinity of God reveals the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost. They function effectively as ONE God with unfathomable excellence of greatness in power. This is the grace that thrives behind every individual person called of God to fulfill a divine agenda without fail. Romans 5:19 shows that by one man's disobedience, many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one, many have been made righteous. This incredible scripture ascertains the capacity of one man's influence through the generations when called of God.

Adam was the first man ever created in the image and the likeness of the ONE God in three Persons. The unbelievable capacity of influence he was given over the entire human race as one man, is commendable and yet highly underrated by himself. This is very unfortunate. Such presumptuous thinking processes seem to have plagued every human being that came after him. The power of self-underestimation is the mindset of assumption, for which cause Adam took the warning of God for granted and the fall of mankind ensued. The correction of this choice was through another one Man, as the second Adam, to restore the fallen nature back to the original state of glory, stature, image and likeness of God in righteousness.

In the Psalm 8:3-9, the Bible shows man who was set into a pedigree between the Holy Trinity and the angels of God. The incredible endowment of power was given to mankind for rule, management and dominion over all the works of God's hands. This scripture announces the amazement of someone who was shocked to see the incredible capacity entrusted to man. In other words, the same dominion potential in one man is in all men. Imagine the endowment of the God-kind of mandate to rule in one person. This explains why God sees the beauty of raising an individual to fulfill that which is required by his Creator. We are endowed with much skill, ability, capacity, capability and mandate to wonders.

May this faith be in you, knowing for a fact that there is nothing in the heavens, the earth or under the earth that is impossible for a man who is called of God for a divine purpose.

He knows what He has put in you and therefore can place a demand on you to fulfill His will and pleasure at any given time. This is the reason why God is mindful of man, because of the splendid and creative intrigues He knows man has within. God is the best and He does the best, therefore He expects the best out of every one person, male or female.

Romans 9:23-24 refers to both gentiles and Jews appointed of God for His purpose as vessels of mercy. To the intent that we might all understand that the Almighty God's decision to use any individual is an act of mercy. Knowing very well that a perfect God is able to work intimately with imperfect beings to do the God-kind of works is nothing less than the devotion of grace and mercy. No one therefore should boast in himself but in the power of God that is able to make everyone succeed extraordinarily. If by one man's righteousness, vision can be restored to endless generations, then credence is given to the principle of: The Power of One Man. This potentially brings untold blessings and direction to a generation that needs guidance.

In Acts 9:6-15 God zeroed in on Saul in the midst of a steaming human average with equal abilities for the job and yet He carved out of His grace, this individual vessel. Who would select a person like this brutal human destroyer of Tarsus? Ananias contested but God carried the day by not arguing and followed through with what was decided in eternity for that time. In other words, God demonstrated by action this one statement, "I know what I'm about."

The terminology, "a chosen vessel unto Me" states that God is proven to be a firm Creator-Leader whose stable plan of action justifies whoever is eyed by eternal glory, for a manifestation in time, demarcated for a unique assignment. At this point Saul's negative records didn't stop God nor mattered anymore but rather affirmed God's flawless principle of engagement to conclude what was started. Surely if God is FOR the chosen vessels of mercy who can be against them? Justified by faith and the cleansing power of the shared blood of Calvary, we all have hope to fulfill our course.

Chapter 2: Preservation

The definitive strength of one is the reason why preservation, as to protection, is important. Romans 9:29 says that if the Lord had not preserved for us a seed, we would have been as Sodom and Gomorrah, signifying that the preserved seed of one averted the corruption of endless generations; the preservation of one.

In politics and public governance, the president, the prime minister, the king, the queen, the chief executive, the personality at the highest helm of affairs is that one seed that should be protected, preserved and not exposed to unacceptable contentions because of the eternal principle of one that has never failed. In science and technology, the inventions of many new things through the history of mankind have most often come out of one unknown person to all, but known to God; from Thomas Edison and Mark Zuckerberg to Bill Gates and so on. Who knows who this next one person could be?

May this book inspire the hidden greatness in you, May it stir up the embryo of a new stream of thinking that has been lying dormant in you! For what you know, you were raised for a time such as this.

The power of one could be the hinge of a door that determines how wide an opening the world can receive from your ideas into a new dimension of living, prosperity, liberty and solutions. A great life always begins from one seed thought. Preservation is simply a smart way to go; that one seed preserved is the value of endless tributaries of amazing wonders in generational advancement and eternal glories.

Preservation is defined as: to keep alive or in existence; also as to keep safe from harm or injury; to maintain and reserve or to spare. It is the reason why God protects with His glory, His name, His love and His angels because of how big, how powerful and how precious one is in His sight. If you were the only person on this earth, God would still have personally taken the responsibility for your protection and preservation from harm and injury. He is able to save the world a thousand times over again by the power of one seed; preservation therefore is key to every future. Please protect yourselves; submit yourself under God's preservation and inspired covering.

Every seed is covered and protected by an outer layer. Chicken eggs are made up of three major segments. The innermost yoke is the embryo and covered by the albumen, which is the white fluid layer. The shell is the outer cover and thus stronger to protect the first two segments. The life is in the embryo. In all your investments it is wise to have a preservatory plan. Always have a backup to preserve your ideas, your thoughts, and your seed. As you load your computers with information, letters and documents, it is wise to have a copy so as to avert an accident of losing information. Hence one of the greatest investments in the field of technology is the development of security. In finance and economic planning there is always a need for a strong network of security principles for the system of economics to work effectively and stand the test of time. In the human anatomy, with the incredible brainpower God made, He established memory as His preservatory key to store information for the growth and development of the human system, into what man was designed to be. It is believed that if the brainpower of man was turned into hydro energy, it could provide a supply of electricity to the entire city of Los Angeles, a city of manufacturing industries, entertainment, goods and services, etc. For this purpose, God encased the brain of a person in the skull with the seal of a subconscious mind. The human seed in the womb of a pregnant woman also displays the powerful principle of preservation. The egg with the sperm develop together into a fetus, very well preserved and nourished in the placenta. This incredible master mind of preservation and protection is put in place as long as the baby is in the mother's womb; the preservation of one.

God in His most infinite wisdom and His most incredible glory, has established the value of one as His strategy for creation. If it works for God, it definitely works for us also. I therefore submit that the destruction of one is likely a potential destruction of the future of many generations. Consider this in your meditation all the days of your life. In sports and athletics, the victory of one man gives the whole nation the rejoicing of a gold medal. In American football, the touch down of one man, gives the entire team triumph over the opposing team. In the world of soccer, with a team of eleven players, the goal of one man gives the victory and the nations an opportunity to rejoice. A strong and well-protected team is defined by the degree of security and wholesomeness of every individual that makes up the team.

An impervious protection plan around a leader, a great visionary, and cardinal gift and a kingly seed, is synonymous to building a fire wall around a house or a community of great treasures. It is that same reason God sets angels around his people. It is the reason why great nations invest into national and international security as well as loyal international relations, particularly protecting the headship or leader. For instance the attempted assassination of United States President Ronald Reagan occurred on March 30, 1981, 69 days into his presidency.

While leaving a speaking engagement at the Washington Hilton Hotel in Washington, D.C., he and three others were shot by an assassin. President Reagan walked out a side door to the hotel -- a door used more than 100 times by presidents in the previous decade. Waiting roughly 15 feet away stood the assassin holding a .22-caliber revolver. The president waved to the crowd as he approached the open door of his armored limousine. In less than two seconds, the assassin fired off six shots. The presidential press secretary was hit. A Secret Service agent and a D.C. police officer were also wounded. One bullet hit the limousine's armored glass; another bounced off the car.

A lead security agent grabbed the president's shoulders and pushed him down into the limousine. At the same time another security agent shoved the president in the small of his back and slams the door shut. The motorcade bolted from the scene. Reagan was shot in the chest, just below the left underarm. He suffered a punctured lung and heavy internal bleeding, but prompt medical attention allowed him to recover quickly. Reagan lost more than 2½ quarts of blood. Doctors said he would have been within minutes of going into shock and dying, had they not been able to replace the lost blood so quickly after the shooting.

It is believed all of the normal Secret Service procedures were followed that day. However the assassin exploited a weak point in presidential protection. The fact that at the time, it was still easy to get close to the president at certain points was exploited. The analysis of one of the top presidential security team members said, "If we had been a split second slower, he could have been hit in the head."

<http://www.cnn.com/2011/POLITICS/03/30/hinckley.presidential.protection/>)

God gives us His favor to make a difference as a gift from heaven but it is within our human volition to attach vital importance to preserve and protect what we have, with strength and wisdom. Both life and leadership are gifts from the Lord with the purpose of making posterity a desired dream of fulfillment and contentment. The Apostle Paul said, if the Lord had not preserved for us a seed (Christ), we would have been as Sodom and Gomorrah. May we never second guess the importance of the preservation of one. It has worked in the time's past and will work forever. The grace of one shall preserve the value of the multitude.

A powerful social economic system of every nation should be designed for the preservation of every one singular citizen and person. The careless handling of one person in a nation is a reflection of the ineffectiveness of political governance. The protection, the preservation and the security of one life is the multiplication of the preservation of the nation as a whole. So it is for every family unit in the house, every house in a county or district, every county or district in a region, state or province, every region, state or province in a nation, and every nation or country in a continent and every continent on the global scene. Without the importance of the preservation of one, there can be no effective value of the entire human society. May the Spirit of eternal preservation come upon us in our time, in our generation. In conclusion, the preservation of one equals the protection of many. It begins with one. One becomes the stem; one becomes the spine; and one becomes the pillar which carries the glory. Therefore, let's protect the one. Welcome to the incredible strategy of the power of one and its preservation to the prosperity of the majority.

Chapter 3: One Man

God has done awesome things by the mystery of one man. The strength of one fallible person with the backing of an infallible God creates a synergy of unbelievable results for the benefit of multiple generations. This is to say, God does things in 'ones' to effect limitless changes. The cross of Christ, His crucifixion, death and resurrection happened one time. Everybody on this earth gets to live once. The day of Pentecost was one time. The 120 disciples in the upper room were ten times more than the original twelve lieutenants of help and mission (Acts 1:15). The number ten stands for responsibility and explains how the Pentecost experience was God's action package for kingdom generations. It was to transfer responsibility into the hands of chosen vessels anointed by the Holy Spirit for results. A FLAMING TORCH

A leader is a singular person but leadership is a system created by a team of leaders. In Acts 3:3 cloven tongues of fire sat upon each of them proving that God, although sovereign, still has a distinct focus on the individual. On the day of Pentecost, in the upper room was a network of seasoned people with one mind, in one accord and in one place. God in His sovereignty gave each singular person the attention of a lifetime. The endowment of power for each person was revealed by the cloven tongues of fire. This endowment was the infilling of the Holy Ghost in a unique way. This act proved how God uniquely gives every individual person a flame for action as a team, yet distinguished by specific mandates, course of action and purpose. It takes the aggregate of individual purpose-driven governance to execute a network essential above the ordinary. The best football team is made of skillful individuals with a serving heart to make a difference. So does every singular person in God's Kingdom receive a flame to be unique in God's team. Distinguished by cloven tongues of fire, these 120 persons were subject to the momentum that changed the course of history. With the cloven tongues of fire came their unique role, understanding, distinctness, zeal, wisdom, and consecration to the vision, identity and clarity of purpose.

- Thomas who was in the upper room, eventually took the vision to India.
- James took command of the project in Jerusalem to greater heights.
- Peter shifted into a universal-thinking drive and structured the global initiative.
- John closed the entire Holy Scriptures with the incredible book of Revelation.
- No telling the impact of Matthew, the former IRS tax collector.
- Bartholomew and the rest of the numbers played their roles and took their stand as individuals driven by the firepower of God, consumed by the grace of our Lord.

For every individual poised to see the extension of God's handiwork, I think it will be very helpful for you to receive your personal package of cloven tongues of fire. It characterizes illumination and exemplary excellence if handled with respect, obedience and uprightness. It makes you stay the course, overcome yourself and every contrary subject matter.

Every visionary is a flaming torch from God with a unique grace that heals and directs as well as comforts and strengthens, all who connect to His purpose. You are a flaming torch of God's vision that gives others vision and God's dream, that gives others a dream to live and die for.

There is a true story of a man of God in the USA who went to speak at a conference as a visiting guest speaker. On a particular Saturday morning, he took the time to wind down on a beautiful sunny day, wearing his khaki shorts, yet dressed decently, he went to the mall with his wife. They moved from shop to shop as the wife was window-shopping. Apparently in the same city, was a terminally sick lady in bed praying for God's help of healing. That Saturday morning, she felt the strong prompting of the Holy Spirit to go to the mall and stand at the main entrance at a particular time. While standing there in obedience, she happened to look into the mall and saw a flame of fire, in a man, who walked in and out of the shops, as if he was window shopping. Very enthused about this vision, which she saw, as it were a walking flame of fire, beaming like light, she walked zealously towards this person sensing the draw of the Holy Spirit.. When she got to the person, it was the man of God that had been speaking in the city at this huge conference. In her amazement, she screamed, "It is you, it is you man of God!" The man of God, not knowing the vision she was seeing said, "What do you mean it is me?" After she narrated the story, he placed his hand on her, prayed for her and she was healed instantly.

Every visionary is as a flaming torch from God with a unique grace that can be a solution to several needs. Fulfilling the mandate can also establish the healing and restoration of the weakened and lost dreams of others. This is why a true purpose-driven person who has found his calling and walks in it, becomes a symbol of strength, hope, illumination and for that matter, a comforting covering for many to be nurtured and grow into their purpose. You are as a flaming torch of God's vision for a generation whose manifestation is designed to create a platform for others to succeed.

For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light.

Psalm 36:9

The scripture above, explains how the leadership that comes out of a thriving vision can multiply success stories to many generations. Vision is a fountain of life because it gives relevance and direction to everyone. It is also a light-producing tendency that activates illumination out of obscurity. No telling how many oppressed citizens of life discover their niche when they connect to a vibrant and a thriving success story. This creates a sphere of influence that becomes the threshold and staying power for all to succeed no matter what.

Successful stories become point of references.

Everybody wants to be successful and therefore needs to be successful. Just as the flaming torch of an Olympic opening ceremony that sets ablaze a huge basin of a flammable substance on contact, I pray that your potential would be ignited to open the gates for unprecedented celebration of great journeys of purpose, inspiration, destiny, and true leadership. Furthermore every person that is born into this world is potentially a flammable material, as in the Olympic torch bowl. However, it takes contact and connection to an existing flame to be ignited. It is essential for that matter for the right kind of flame and light to come your way.

For example on the Day of Pentecost, all 120 people in the upper room, were potential flames of God's fire, waiting to be ignited. It happened in Acts 2:3. With the cloven tongues of fire burning as a flame on each of them, the light of their purpose was turned on and that light activates flavor for a higher life. Fifteen chapters later they turned the world upside down (Acts 17:6). This is to say, the flame that God set in their lives, by the outpouring of the Holy Ghost, became the light that was drawing the attention for universal change. Hebrews 1:7 says that God made them as His ministers of the flames of fire. May this heavenly flame of God's intentions for our lives, create light for change and impact. LIGHT PRODUCES SALT

The scripture says, you are the light of the world and the salt of the earth (Matthew 5:13-16). Light creates salt. This is proven because in the beginning God created light before salt was made. This is to say, since light is the source of all creativity, God being light Himself, makes salt the produce of light. Furthermore since metaphorically salt represents influence, we see how light influences all things that must have influence. This therefore sets the tone of the principle that all things come from light, because God is light.

We see for instance how public figures on the global scene and Hollywood celebrities influence the taste of fashion and morals that are emulated by many who focus on them, good or bad. Every positive light determines the availability of constructive taste which influences spiritual and socioeconomic emphasis and direction, to say the least. This is to say, if you can be the light, you can be the salt for double influence.

Having said that, as salt activates thirst, so your leadership stirs up the passion for many to change their course of direction for greater profit in life. Furthermore it also becomes a consistent agent of self-thirst for progressive thinking, creativity and excellence. It makes you always reach for personal higher goals and standards within yourself. It is not possible to impact the outside world effectively without first conquering your personal inner challenges and controversies. The salt in you is the provoker of hunger for higher heights. It contributes to making you a relevant sharp threshing instrument required to be on the cutting edge of every aspect of personal and group leadership. It maintains your inner self-value and staying power for successful living. It keeps your mind, will and emotions salted with the grace for exclusive and distinguished personal cultures. This is to say, leadership and its saltiness begins from the inside to impact the outside world effectively. I would dare to say therefore, that there is always one salted person or thought out there that ignites the glory of a changing demography. Salt activates paradigm shifts at all times! There can be no real direction without the influence of salt and its guiding abilities.

If someone says, "Lets make a change."

You should ask, "Who is the salt?"

The thirstier society becomes because of the flavor of influence she tastes, the more energized she becomes for change in the right direction. This is how strategic your flame of purpose is designed to be. Let nothing quench your flame and may no-unforeseen circumstance cut you off before time. For instance King David, on his last appearance on the battle field, was cornered by an agile Philistine enemy, who had a new sword or a fresh strategy of war. Fatigued and weakened by age, David was rescued by his armor bearer, Abishai. The scare of Israel heightened with the thought that the king who was the light and the star of the nation, could have been cut off before his time. They said to the king,

"Thou shalt go no more out with us to battle, that thou quench not the light of Israel."

(II Samuel 21:16-17)

It is noteworthy to see how the next generation of soldiers protected David, their patriarch, from death by their vigilance over him. Therefore, it is recorded that David served his generation according to the will of God (Acts 13:36). May you go the long haul without fail and may the rising star that you are, be preserved to the end. It is important for us to keep a close eye on our leaders to secure the destiny of the future of the nation and their generations. Your generation needs your light and saltiness. Certainly it is prudent to keep a strong fire-wall around you, your destiny and purpose in God. Your light produces saltiness. Your saltiness produces influence. Your influence produces cycles of growth for many. May the impact of your light change the tasteless flavor of many, into a meaningful success story or contentment.

I believe once again the time has come for the emergence of sound-minded leaders to influence the influencers of the nations into the absolutes of distinction, excellence and creative breakthroughs.

The true story of Dr. Paul Crouch Sr. and his wife Jan is a relevant script of salt influencing generations. The conception of God's seed vision in their spirit and their ability to follow through with self-discipline, focus and hardcore obedience, gives credence to the power of one changing countless generations without end. Introducing Christian television in a generation that had never seen it before must have been quite a challenge. The simultaneous cycles of endless miracles, one feeding into the other, created waves they rode into breaking systematic records, positioning Trinity Broadcasting Network where it is today. With two satellites in orbit, coupled with several scripture-based programs globally, this is no doubt a parable of salt influencing endless generations, tribes, languages and cultures, extending from the north pole to the south pole of planet earth to date. THE LEADERSHIP CHASSIS OF PURPOSE

The investment of God's incredible anointing in leaders is a notification and a landmark for one's lifetime journey into eternity. It is also a passageway of partnership with God as a chassis is to an engine. Whereas every building foundation is static in one place, the chassis of an automobile are not. They're made up of a set of frames, connected by a differential and suspension with four wheels. This mechanism carries the engine machinery or battery that drive the vehicle.

God made you and Him to work as a pair of chassis, which wheels the engine of purpose. This is to say, whereas God is one frame, He is connected to the frame of His leaders. The synergy of engagement carries the engine of destinies, so is the value of leaders in the hand of God. Every individual leader is the other chassis frame that moves generations to their place of glory. May the cloven tongues of Holy Spirit fire power, engage your indulgence for destiny, purpose and prosperity. With your life filled with the cloven tongues of fire, you become a leading system and a flaming torch in the hand of God, sent into the universe to implement what is required. Let the Lord serve you with His glorious light so you can serve the generation you have come to know with impact. You are a leading, flaming torch that sets others on their pathways with vision, clarity and results.

The subject of social greatness, success, prosperity, influence, productivity, creativity, transformation, elevation, promotion, and more has always began with one man, one person, based on the principle of one. One can be defined as: alone, only, precise, particular, singular, sole, unique, uncommon, different, and definite. The power of one is one of God's hidden treasures revealed. The power of one has never failed; it has always produced results, but with its misunderstandings have also come failures and deceptions. I pray a fresh inspiration upon your life as you read this book: The Power of One, as in the glory of one, the inspiration of one, and the key of one.
