Psalms 61:3

To grant those who mourn in Zion, Giving them a garland instead of ashes, The oil of gladness instead of mourning, The mantle of praise instead of a spirit of fainting. So they will be called oaks of righteousness, The planting of the LORD, that He may be glorified.

Chapter 1: The Dream

Once upon a time there was a lovely young girl named Jasmine. Jasmine spent much of her day thinking about how wonderful it would be if she could live in the magical kingdom just over the mountain. She found herself dreaming of how great life would be to live there where everything was possible. She just knew that in the magical kingdom her life would be easy and she could bless her family for many had told her it was enchanted with wonders abounding.

Jasmine knew the story of Cinderella because for many years her mom would read it to her before she would go to sleep. Now as she sat by the pond outside her home she thought, I am just like Cinderella. I may not have two mean stepsisters, but my life is so hard. What I really need is my prince to come and take me away from all the pain and hard work I have to do every day. *

Have you ever thought your life was similar to that of Cinderella's? Have you longed for a prince to appear and take you away from all the troubles of life? Well, that is just like Jasmine our heroine in this story. She longs for a better life; one that she has always dreamed of. Step into the pages of Bye Bye Ashes and discover how Jasmine comes to find true love and satisfaction where there was once gloom and dread. From this story you too may find your true prince for Jasmine found that in love the impossible could surly become possible.
