Thanks again for downloading this book, I hope you enjoy it! Chapter 1: Hairstyling Vocabulary: Tools, Accessories and Braids Your hair says so much about you. Having so much hair covering half your face is a telltale that you are "emo" or that maybe you have low self-esteem. Having very messy uncombed hair in the mornings can be an indication that you have poor time management skills or you are an over sleeper. Uncared hair that grows all over the place may also mean that you have a very busy schedule or that you just do not care about your appearance. Whatever the case is, it is in everybody's greatest hopes and wishes to look beautiful and presentable. One way to achieve this is by taking care of your hair. Your hair, being your crowning glory is not an overstatement. Your hair indeed, affects how you look and how people see you. This is why it is extremely important for you to know what to do with your hair. Our hair is the only body part that we can easily manipulate in terms of form and appearance. We can do a bun today and let it fall down tomorrow. The possibilities are endless with our hair! The good thing is, you can make the most out of your hair by simply styling it. Before that however, you should first familiarize yourself with the tools and accessories used for hairstyling. Since braiding is a feature of most of the hairstyles presented in this book, I will also include in this vocabulary lesson some braids that you should be familiar with.

Bobby Pins – Bobby pins, also called hairpins are thin metallic pins with an opening on one side that are used to secure the hair when styling. They are ideal when doing hairstyles because they can easily be hidden under the hair. Bobby pins come in a range of colors, and you can choose pins that match your hair.

Brushes and Combs – These tools are used to get rid of tangles. Use combs, specifically large tooth combs, to detangle wet hair. This is to avoid hair breakage since wet hair is weak. Use brushes for dry hair. Brushes, more than combs, can leave your hair smoother because of its many bristles.

Bun – A bun is formed when you are putting your hair in a clump on whichever side of your head. It can stay on the top of your head, on the sides, or the most common one: at the back. Buns need not be neat like what you would imagine in disciplinarian in old movies would wear. Nowadays, messy buns are in style too.

Curling Iron – This is an electric tool used to create waves and curls on your hair through heat. Since curly and wavy hair has more volume and life, this is a must for those who have straight and thin hair. Curling irons comes in different sizes from barrels with big diameters to really small ones. You can actually buy a set of curling irons with barrels of different sizes to suit your needs, whether you want multiple small curls or just a few large wavy curls.

Donut – I'm not talking about the sugary food, although the donut I am talking about looks exactly like the one you eat with your coffee. A donut is a circular tool for hairstyling made of foam and specially designed to create perfect buns. Donuts come in many sizes and colors. If you have short to medium hair, buy the smaller bun at your favorite cosmetics store and buy large donuts for longer hair. Also, choose the color that matches your hair because you wouldn't want your donut to be very obvious.

Elastic Headband – This is not your ordinary almost semi-circular headband. Instead, it is more of a large rubber band that can be placed over the head. It comes in different styles and thickness and is primarily used to hold away hair from the face although you will discover later on that this accessory can be very helpful in hairstyling.
