Dedication

This book is dedicated to each person who has entered my life and taught me a little more about love. You've each tugged at my heartstrings and helped me become aware of the treasures love brings. You've helped me understand why we know God IS love!

May the Lord cause you to increase and overflow with love for one another and for everyone.

(1 Thess. 3:12)

Welcome...

Start the day with a little love. Embrace God's goodness! Fill your heart with grace and joy so that everyone you meet will feel the light of God's love all through the day.

Love really IS the answer and one that applies to every area of our lives. We can only know its true sweetness as we taste it through God's Spirit and let it radiate out from us to others. Love is the "pearl of great price," the clearest moment of connection, the deepest utterance of the heart.

Take a few moments then to start your day with love and let it carry you wherever you go. As one writer put it, "Love is the doorway through which the human soul passes from selfishness to service and from solitude to kinship with all mankind."

Open the door of your heart each day because love is always tied with heartstrings!

With Love in Christ,

Karen

Born to Love

Therefore, as God's chosen ones, holy and loved, put on heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, accepting one another and forgiving one another if anyone has a complaint against another. Just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you must also forgive. (Col. 3:12-14)

When you were just a newcomer to the world, everything you knew about love came to you through your senses. Someone who loved you held you close when you were sleepy or needed comfort. They made sure you were bathed and fed and that you knew you were in a safe place. It was the beginning of what would blossom into your future understanding of love.

As time passed and you grew up, you learned to give love and to receive it in more ways. Little by little, string by string, you became attached at the heart to those around you, those who would always be definitions of love to you.

You were designed to live in a world of love and to help others remember to love, and you were created by the Author of love and life itself.

Today and every day, you have a new chance to embrace love and offer a sense of it to everyone you meet. Nothing is sweeter than love tied gently with heartstrings.

Nothing is sweeter than love, nothing stronger, nothing higher, nothing wider, nothing more pleasant, nothing fuller or better in heaven or earth. ~ Thomas a Kempis

Love is always open arms. With arms open you allow love to come and go as it will, freely, for it'll do so anyway. If you close your arms about love, you'll find you are left only holding yourself. *

Start each day with a little love by reading from Heartstrings, a beautifully presented gift book celebrating the emotion that one writer described as, 'the doorway through which the human soul passes from selfishness to service and from solitude to kinship with all mankind';

A delightful collection of Bible verses and poems plus memorable oneliners and pithy quotes from the likes of Mother Teresa, C. S. Lewis, Abraham Lincoln, Martin Luther King, Jr., and Thomas a Kempis, Heartstrings illustrates how love really is the one answer that applies to every area of our lives. And we can only know its true sweetness as we taste it through God's Spirit and allow it to radiate out from us to others.

Grab hold of Heartstrings, and share it with someone close. Love is calling!
