Maybe you know that in the sixteenth century in France, the start of a New Year was on the first of April (Some documents said that the New Year was celebrated for 8 days, beginning on March 25 and this celebration culminated on April 1.

Certainly, there was no "Happy New Year" of ABBA but people also celebrated the New Year in nearly the same way as we do nowadays with parties and dance into the late hours of the night.

Suddenly in 1562 (under Charles IX), the new year fell on the first of January as Pope Gregory introduced a new calendar for the Christian world. It was a big change, however, some obstinate people did not accepted this change, or some others even did not know anything about the new calendar (you can figure out the reason when news traveled by foot on those days), so they continued to celebrate New Year's Day on April 1.

Other people thought this was so ridiculous that they played tricks on them and call them "April fools."

Make a surprise to people you love, give them a funny gift, you will be appreciated if you could bring a smile on their faces.

Or make a prank to people you don't like just to give them a real motive to dislike you even more.
