Dear Ms. Shomaker,

On behalf of the International Institute for Sustainable Development (IISD), I am pleased to endorse our organisation's submission to the Convention on Biological Diversity's Global Review of the Kunming-Montreal Global Biodiversity Framework.

We support the Global Review objectives and welcome the opportunity to contribute evidence and recommendations to strengthen implementation of the Framework.

Our submission highlights the critical importance of reforming environmentally harmful subsidies as a key enabling factor for achieving global biodiversity targets and aligning financial flows with the goals of the Framework. We confirm that the information provided in our submission represents the views and expertise of IISD. We authorise its consideration as part of the Global Review process and remain committed to supporting the successful implementation of the Framework.

We remain at your disposal for any questions or additional information.

Yours sincerely,

Benjamin Simmons
Senior Director, Economic Law and Policy
