The untold true story of the Witches of Oz

Wicked
During these challenging times, we at the Kravis Center want to express our gratitude to the community for your continued support. As we all navigate this unprecedented situation, we hope that you will follow recommendations to keep yourself and your family healthy and well.

It’s during this time of uncertainty we need the arts most to unite us as a society—as music, theater and other cultural experiences provide entertainment, comfort and ease stress. We hope that you will continue to support the Center and the other arts venues in the community including the galleries, museums, and theaters.

I know I speak for my fellow arts administrators when I express my gratitude for your support.

I’d like to take a moment to give special thanks to our extraordinary volunteers who we honor at this time of year as part of National Volunteer Week April 19 through 25. Our many volunteers give their time by serving as ushers, handling administrative tasks, providing hospitality services, leading tours and more. Our performances would not be possible without these generous individuals, including those who graciously serve on our Board of Directors and as Life Trustees.

The Kravis Center was built by and for this community and has been sustained by your support through your ticket purchases and contributions for over 28 years of operations. Today the Kravis Center, like all of our performing arts groups, faces serious challenges and we hope that you will help us with your generous tax deductible donations.

On an optimistic note, your Kravis Center Programming team has been hard at work over the past six months curating an outstanding line-up of performances for the 2020-2021 season and beyond. I know we all look forward to the future when we can again come together to be entertained, inspired, moved and awed by the talent and beauty that live performance brings to our lives and hearts. I want to assure you that we will move forward for you, our community and our supporters to continue to bring you the best in entertainment, cultural offerings and arts education programming for students of all ages.

We need your help to do that so we ask that you continue to support the Kravis Center and ALL of our local arts organizations who depend so heavily on that support. We all exist for you but can only survive with your support.

I thank you for your words of encouragement that have come to me. It has been wonderful to share those with our staff who are working hard to weather this very difficult time.

Again, we truly appreciate your continued support and hope that you and your family will stay healthy and well. We look forward to seeing you again soon at the Center.
The Kravis Center’s annual Gospel Gala took place on Wednesday, March 11. Before the presentation of the Tony Award-winning The Color Purple, guests gathered in Dreyfoos Hall to experience an uplifting performance by the St. John Missionary Baptist Church Mass Choir, under the Direction of Gwendolyn Scruggs and accompanied by Wilson Scruggs on keys, Sherwin Foster on drums and David Dulcio on bass. The Kravis Center’s Community Relations Committee enjoyed a reception in the Carl and Ruth Shapiro Founders’ Room before the show.

Beach balls and excitement filled the air on February 17 as the Kravis Center unveiled the eagerly anticipated 2020-2021 season of Kravis On Broadway. Broadway fans, media representatives, social media influencers and members of the community gathered on the lawn at Rosemary Square and were among the first to get a sneak peek at the newest Broadway hits hitting home for the Center’s next season.

From ticket giveaways to goody bags for all, everyone in attendance was treated to a great time while learning about the seven top-touring Broadway shows coming to the Kravis Center. Next season, Kravis On Broadway guests will experience an array of inspiring musicals and unforgettable stories that will capture the heart including An Officer and a Gentleman, Jimmy Buffett’s Escape to Margaritaville, My Fair Lady, Wicked, Dear Evan Hansen, Anastasia and Mean Girls. The event was co-hosted by the Kravis Center, Rosemary Square, Il Bellagio Italian Restaurant, who provided delicious hors d’oeuvres and wine, and Virginia Sinicki of 97.9 WRMF’s the KVJ Show.
Kravis On Broadway’s spectacular 2020-2021 season will kick off with an all-new production based on the Oscar-winning film, An Officer and a Gentleman (November 24-29). A compelling story of adversity and triumph, this breathtaking romance captivates audiences around the world and reminds us all that anything’s possible if you have the courage to pursue your dreams.

Next, grab your flip-flops and head on over to where it’s always five o’ clock with Jimmy Buffett’s Escape to Margaritaville (December 15-20). A light-hearted musical comedy packed with enough Buffett tunes to delight any Parrothead, critics are calling this new Broadway production “A little slice of paradise!”

Lincoln Center’s lavish new production of Lerner and Loewe’s My Fair Lady (January 5-10) breathes new life into the timeless classic. Show tunes that have stood the test of time, I Could Have Danced All Night and Wouldn’t it be Loverly, among others, are better than ever in this glorious revival.

Then, discover what happens when the fieriest of rivalries turns into the unlikeliest of friendships. The Broadway smash Wicked (February 3-14) tells the story of what really happened in the Land of Oz, but from a different angle.

One of the most remarkable shows in musical theater history, according to the Washington Post, Dear Evan Hansen (March 9-14) delivers a deeply personal message about life and the way we live it. A contemporary musical that resonates with all ages.

Take off on an incredible adventure as you’re transported from the Russian Empire to Paris in the 1920s with the beloved Anastasia (March 30-April 4). This magnificent production tells the story of a brave young woman on a journey to discover the mystery of her past.

And get set to laugh aloud as you experience Tina Fey’s hilarious hit musical Mean Girls (May 11-16). This acclaimed production gets to the heart of what it means to be a true friend, a worthy nemesis and above all, a human being.

Kravis On Broadway subscribers are receiving their renewals now, donors will have the opportunity to subscribe in May and subscriptions will go on sale to the general public in June.

The show could not go on without our team of dedicated volunteers! Each of these extraordinary individuals, including our Board Members, Life Trustees and Standing Committee Members, ushers and those who handle hospitality, administrative and customer service tasks, are the reason we can continue our mission of enhancing life in Palm Beach County. We salute each and every one of you!
The Education Committee of the Kravis Center's Board of Directors, hosted four meetings during the 2019-2020 season, which started in November with a presentation by speaker Dr. Donald Fennoy, Superintendent of the School District of Palm Beach County. The committee also participated in a new Member Engagement program that allowed it to host several special events throughout the season.

At the first meeting, Dr. Fennoy shared highlights from the district’s 2016-2021 Strategic 5-Year Plan, including the district’s commitment to arts education through grant writing and long-range capital planning.

In December, the committee served as hosts for the Kravis Center’s S*T*A*R Series, greeting and interacting with teachers and students attending a performance of The Very Hungry Caterpillar by the Mermaid Theatre of Nova Scotia.

In January, Dr. Martha Brown, Project Evaluator, and Ms. Sonja Kelly, Teaching Artist, shared that Broadway Reach is in its fifth year of providing sequential arts education and exposure to live Broadway touring productions to nearly 100 underserved children from neighborhood afterschool programs in Palm Beach County. The 2019 and 2020 programs were made possible by a two-year grant from the Max M. & Marjorie S. Fisher Foundation Arts & Culture Fund of the Community Foundation for Palm Beach and Martin Counties along with support from Rick and Rosemary Johnston. The grant totals $55,000 over two years.

“Broadway shows often have themes that transcend the actual performance that are relevant to our students,” said Brown. “In Broadway Reach, we explore social and emotional learning opportunities that arise from these themes and also relate to academic content within arts education.”

In February, Paul McEneaney, Artistic Director of Cahoots NI Theatre Company spoke about how its Kravis Center S*T*A*R Series performance of Penguins explored friendship, fun, identity and the ever-changing meaning of family. This new theatre and dance production was inspired by a true story reported in the New York Times that touched ears worldwide.

And in March, the committee attended a screening of the 1932 film So Big! starring Barbara Stanwyck and based on the book written by Edna Ferber, whose great-niece Julie Gilbert – also instructor of the Kravis Center’s Writers’ Academy program – facilitated a discussion after the screening. Gilbert is the author of Ferber: A Biography of Edna Ferber and Her Circle about her great-aunt.
Meet the
NEW GENERATION
of THEATER CRITICS!

Thirteen local high school students were nominated by their teachers to represent their schools this season as Kravis Student Theater Critics for various Kravis Center presentations. The students received workshop training led by Dr. Susan Wemette of Blue Planet Writers’ Room on how to write theater reviews and met and discussed theater reviewing with a local writing expert. Last season, the program was expanded to allow students to select productions of their choice from the entire Kravis Center season schedule. This year, they attended and reviewed a multitude of performances, including Fiddler on the Roof, The Play That Goes Wrong, A Bronx Tale, and Hamilton.

The 2019-20 Kravis Student Theater Critics are: Emma Beers, Jupiter Christian School; Aliza Billet, Katz Yeshiva High School; Mya Bodnick, Oxbridge Academy; Madison Brown, Royal Palm Beach Community High School; Stephanie Bruzon, G-Star School of the Arts; Shaina Francis, Santaluces Community High School; Jenna Mather, Jupiter Community High School; Grace Myers, The Benjamin School; Catherine Paulitz, Wellington Community High School; Mikayla Perry, G-Star School of the Arts; Sasha Smith, Alexander W. TEACHERS LEARN the POWER of the ARTS!

The Kravis Center, the School District of Palm Beach County and Florida Atlantic University have been Kennedy Center Partners in Education since 2005. The Partners in Education program of the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts is designed to assist arts organizations throughout the nation to develop or expand educational partnerships with their local school systems. The primary purpose of these partnerships is to provide professional learning in the arts for teachers.

On September 21, Dr. Martha Brown led a three-hour workshop at the Kravis Center entitled Healing Through the Arts: Restorative Practices for Arts Educators. The workshop was presented to Palm Beach County teachers in grades 3-8.

During the workshop, arts educators learned how to create an emotionally safe space in their classrooms, how childhood trauma impacts behavior, and how the arts can help students heal from trauma and build their social and emotional competencies. Teachers considered how social justice-oriented projects build students’ capacity to act as change agents in their schools and communities.

Three other Professional Development workshops were held this season. Mimi Herman led Coming to America for teachers of students in grades 2-6 at the Conservatory School @ North Palm Beach on November 8. And on February 28, Paige Whelan led Digital Storytelling: Photography as a Writing Tool for teachers in grades 3-8.

Also, in February, Kravis Center Education Associate Keena Gumbinner went to Washington, D.C. to co-present a workshop at the Kennedy Center Partners in Education Annual Meeting entitled Leadership in the Arts: Let’s Look at the A.R.T.S. Leadership Model. This annual convening of National Partnership Teams allows members to receive additional training related to professional learning and to recast the terms of their written partnership agreement.

Joining by Samika Satterthwaite, K-12 Arts Education Administrator, for the School District of Palm Beach County, and Edrick D. Rhodes, Director of Curriculum and Administration for the Kennedy Center, Gumbinner co-presented a session focused on the A.R.T.S. Leadership Model which provides a blueprint for enhancing and expanding arts programs and experiences within partnership teams.

“We are incredibly proud that more than 2.6 million students from Palm Beach, Broward, Martin, St. Lucie and Okeechobee counties have visited the Kravis Center since 1992, attending performances through our S*T*A*R Series and participating in a wide variety of educational programming,” said Tracy Butler, Director of Education. “Our educators work hard to engage those students and provide them with worthwhile arts experiences. And our own professional development focus gives us a great platform to the district’s instructional goals for teachers” ▲
Celebrating its 11th year of awarding local high schoolers for their excellence in Shakespearean performances, the Lebow Award presentation was hosted on February 15 in the Kravis Center’s Weiner Banquet Center. Cash prizes totaling $5,000 were bestowed on eight Palm Beach County students from six local Title I high schools following an adjudication process. Alpha Media’s X102.3 Radio’s MoShay LaRen served as the event’s keynote speaker.

After the awards ceremony, participating students and teachers were provided tickets to attend the evening’s performance of Hamilton.

Sponsored by Kids’ Dreams, Inc., in memory of its co-founder, Alan Lebow, the award program engages students from Title I high schools and provides the opportunity for them to perform short selections from William Shakespeare’s works before a panel of distinguished judges. The student adjudication took place on January 11, at which they performed their selected work and were evaluated and scored by three judges in five categories of performance: concentration, emotional commitment, energy, evidence of understanding, and overall performance. The judges were Desmond Gallant, Sally Ricca and Karen Stephens.

“This award ceremony at the Kravis Center is a fitting tribute to my husband,” said Patricia Lebow. “He was a man whose passion in life involved theater, film, art and literature — always with an overriding touch of kindness for all those he met on his journey through life.”

Judith Mitchell, CEO of the Kravis Center, welcomed guests to the Lebow Award ceremony and recognized the Kids’ Dreams Board of Directors in attendance. Ms. Mitchell also recognized Patricia Lebow, president and co-founder of Kids’ Dreams, for her commitment to providing a variety of outstanding arts opportunities for children in the community including the Lebow Award for Excellence in Shakespearean Performance. In 2015, Kids’ Dreams made a gift to the Kravis Center to permanently endow the Lebow Award.

“I am pleased to honor the accomplishments of the 2020 Alan Lebow Award recipients,” Mitchell said. “This program would not be possible without the support of Kids’ Dreams. We also acknowledge the dedication and commitment of the high school teachers. Without their guidance and support, the students would not be prepared to participate in this outstanding program.”

The two Top Winners were Jordan Monteagudo and Vanessa Whittle, both juniors at Royal Palm Beach Community High School. Each won a prize of $1,000. Ne’Quann Raymond, a senior at Forest Hill Community High School, and Emily Moreland, a freshman at FAU High School were both awarded $750 as an Honorable Mention. Andrea Figueroa-Rodriguez, a senior at Forest Hill Community High School, and Madison Porter, a sophomore at Forest Hill Community High School, were awarded $500 as Distinguished Participants. Notable Participants Felicity Dillow, a sophomore at Royal Palm Beach Community High School, and Tedly Eximon, a senior at Glade Central Community High School were both awarded $250.

In Loving Memory  SHARON MCDANIEL

The Kravis Center has lost a beloved member of our team. Sharon McDaniel, Regional Arts Programming Associate, passed away Saturday, February 29 after a battle with cancer. Sharon inspired a love of classical music to all who were lucky enough to experience one of her many pre-concert talks and community education programs. She had a unique ability to be able to share her vast knowledge of the music, the composers and the stories behind each piece, and a gift for fostering interest for classical music in others. Her passion and enthusiasm for the genre was evident in all that she did and was instrumental in building the Regional Arts Classical Concert Series to where it is today. A classical pianist, Sharon dedicated her life to sharing her love of classical music. She was highly respected for her musical knowledge and deeply appreciated for her humor and infectious smile by all who worked alongside her.

Before joining the Kravis Center team in 2010, Sharon was the music and dance critic for the Palm Beach Post and shared her immense understanding of both disciplines in an important way.

She earned a bachelor’s degree in music from the College-Conservatory of Music at the University of Cincinnati, a master’s degree from Boston University’s College of Fine Arts and a Certificate in Piano from the Paris American Academy in France. Sharon then continued her education as a fellow at the National Arts Journalism Program at Northwestern University and the Knight Center for Specialized Journalism as well as the education and opera institutes of the Music Critics Association of North America.

Two popular events were featured in the 2019-2020 ArtSmart Lunch & Learn series in association with the Kravis Center Cultural Society.

Guests spent the afternoon of February 3, peeking behind the hedges of a handful of Palm Beach’s most famous residents. Bill Bone, attorney and co-founder of the law firm Larmoyeu & Bone, described how those residents have impacted our local culture, public spaces and infrastructure in the surrounding cities. Who Lives Here? Behind the Hedges in Palm Beach, was sponsored by Patricia and Edward Falkenberg.

On February 24, Dr. Robert Watson took guests behind the scenes to learn surprising and inspiring aspects of Alexander Hamilton’s life they never knew and the stories that set the context for the major scenes in the musical. Alexander Hamilton: The Man Behind the Musical was sponsored by Bonnie and Steven Stern.

The ArtSmart Lunch & Learn series is held in the Kravis Center’s Gimelstob Ballroom in the Cohen Pavilion and includes a lunch prepared by Catering by The Breakers at the Kravis Center.

POPULAR ArtSmart Lunch & Learn Series HIGHLIGHTS

In January, the Kravis Center’s African-American Film Festival marked 15 years of showcasing important African-American actors, directors, writers and producers and their contribution to the film industry. This year’s theme highlighted several of the major works by director John Singleton.

The festival opened on January 20 with 1991’s Boyz N the Hood, the story of Tre, who is sent to live with his father in tough South Central Los Angeles. MoShay LaRen from Alpha Media’s X102.3 served as the host for the evening. The festival continued on February 3 with a screening of Rosewood (1997), based on the true story of the 1923 massacre by a white mob in the small town of Rosewood, Florida. And on February 24, the festival concluded with Higher Learning (1995), Singleton’s powerful portrait of college life in the 1990s. Bill Nix, President of Nix Communications Group, served as host for the second and third evenings of the festival.

The African-American Film Festival at the Kravis Center, founded by James Drayton, has presented 45 films beginning with Stormy Weather, Within These Gates and Sankofa in 2005. Each season, a series of films are selected that are not only entertaining, but provide an educational experience. Prior to each screening, hosts present a 20-minute talk and following each film lead a lively question-and-answer session which allows the guests to exchange ideas and share personal experiences related to the film.

The hosting community organization for the African-American Film Festival is Kappa Upsilon Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc.

For more than 27 seasons, the Kravis Center has helped students of all ages fuel their imaginations and expand their lives through comprehensive arts education programs. Since 1992, 2.6 million students from Palm Beach, Broward, Martin, St. Lucie and Okeechobee counties have visited the Center, attending performances through the S*T*A*R Series and participating in a wide variety of educational programming. Each year, more than 700 local students studying the performing arts benefit from over 20 workshops taught by leading Broadway musical theater stars, dance company members and other professionals, hosted by the Kravis Center.

The Kravis On Broadway workshops and the Master Class program connect theater professionals — actors, dancers, directors, choreographers and others — with students from throughout the area who also dream of one day performing on stage.

“We are delighted to offer students free Kravis On Broadway workshops and Master Classes throughout the season that provide real world theater training experiences and interaction with top performing professionals,” said Tracy Butler, Director of Education for the Kravis Center.

The 2019-2020 workshops kicked off with a class by Fiddler on the Roof dance captain Jessica Altchiler, who worked with dance students on a combination from the production. Other guest artists included Todd Buonopane from the cast of The Play That Goes Wrong, who led an acting workshop, as well as additional dance workshops taught by Hallie Brevetti from A Bronx Tale and Lisa Finegold and Desmond Nunn from Hamilton. The workshops wrapped up with a vocal audition workshop by a cast member from Miss Saigon.

The Master Class program included classes led by dancers from Koresh Dance Company and Victoria Regan, from the original cast of 42nd Street, who taught an advanced tap class. Instrumental music classes were taught by members of the Aizuri String Quartet.

Students from local and state high schools and colleges participated this season, including American Heritage, Bak Middle School of the Arts, The Benjamin School, Boynton Beach Community High School, Calvary Christian Academy, Alexander W. Dreyfoos School of the Arts, Florida Atlantic University High School, Forest Hill Community High School, G-Star School of the Arts, John Carroll Catholic High School, Oxbridge Academy, Palm Beach Atlantic University, Palm Beach Gardens Community High School, Palm Beach State College, Park Vista Community High School, Pompano Beach High School, St. Joan of Arc Catholic School, St. John Paul II Academy, Spanish River Community High School, Suncoast Community High School, University of Florida, Wagner College and West Boca Raton Community High School.
Dress Circle members were honored at a special Dinner Dance on December 3, at the Kravis Center, where over 350 supporters attended. The highlight of the evening was an announcement from Board Chairman Jeffrey Stoops that the Kravis 2020 campaign recently received a $10 million gift from The Raymond and Bessie Kravis Foundation.

Sponsored by UBS Private Wealth Management for the fifth consecutive year, the annual event included a cocktail reception and dinner by Catering by The Breakers at the Kravis Center and live music from Marcia Mitchell Music.

During the dinner, Mr. Stoops recognized Kravis Center CEO, Judith Mitchell, and thanked her for 30 years of her expert leadership. He then thanked the guests for their generous support of the performing arts center.

“It is encouraging to see community engagement at all levels of giving,” continued Mr. Stoops. “Today we had the pleasure of announcing a lead gift of $10 million to the campaign from The Raymond and Bessie Kravis Foundation. In recognition of their generosity, our beautiful new urban plaza in front of Dreyfoos Hall will be named The Kravis Family Plaza.

“With this very generous gift, we are about two-thirds of the way to our Kravis 2020 campaign goal of $50 million. Given the inspiration this gift will bring to the campaign, and what might be the strongest season of programming ever, combined with the spectacular improvements to the facilities, we could not be more excited about the year ahead!”

Dress Circle members are donors who support the Center by contributing $1,000 or more annually. I came to the Palm Beaches in 1961 and immediately experienced culture shock!! At that time, we only had the Norton Museum on a much smaller scale, The Palm Beach Playhouse and a few Art galleries. Often we would go to Ft. Lauderdale or to Miami for special events.

Plans for the Kravis Center, which opened in 1992, created tremendous excitement in our community. Our beloved friend Natalie Stone asked us to host a “Cocktails for Culture” party in our home that we gladly did which helped to raise money for seats. Today the Kravis Center remains very important to me. We are proud to be Founders as well as Sponsors of a number of performances to our community. It is my pleasure to include the Kravis Center in my estate planning for our generation and the generations to come.

To kick off the Kravis Center’s highly anticipated 2020 Gala on March 14, a private reception was held in honor of Gala Chairs, Honorary Gala Chairs, sponsors and committee members. Gala Chairs Christine and Bob Stiller and Irene and Jim Karp, warmly greeted guests at the Stillers’ home in Palm Beach on Tuesday, February 11.

Guests were greeted upon arrival with cocktails and passed hors d’oeuvres. The party flowed through the Stillers’ home, where guests gathered to hear more about the upcoming Gala.

Mr. Stiller gave a warm welcome to those in attendance and thanked them for their support of the performing arts center. He then introduced Kravis Center Board Chairman Jeffrey A. Stoops.

“Thank you, Christine and Bob, for opening up your beautiful home, and for hosting this wonderful party with Irene and Jim Karp,” said Stoops. “In addition, I want to give a special thanks to Kathryn Vecellio and Monika Preston for serving as this year’s Honorary Gala Chairs and for their many years of support as Gala Chairs. To all the sponsors – thank you for your outstanding support of the Gala, most of whom are here this evening. Your support of the Kravis Center helps us provide the community with a premier world-class performing arts center that offers an outstanding arts education program – something that we know is near and dear to the Stillers and the Karps.”

For information about the Center’s special events, contact the Development Office at 561.651.4320.

Raymond F. Kravis Center for the Performing Arts

Noted philanthropists in the Palm Beach community explored the topic of “The Business of Giving: Next Generation Philanthropy” when the Kravis Center held its first Corporate Partners Business Speaker Series event of the season on November 18.

The Kravis Center’s Immediate Past Board Chair, Michael Bracci served as moderator for a distinguished panel of Kravis Center Board members which included Penny Bank, Education Committee Chair; Mark Levy, Corporate Partners Executive Committee Chair; and William Meyer, past Board Chair and current Operations Committee Chair.

The lively discussion was peppered with panel views on how their philanthropy was influenced by their parents, and how they are guiding their own children to follow in their philanthropic footsteps. Ms. Bank said her giving is typically done with her heart and as a former teacher, her focus is often on education-related initiatives. Mr. Levy recalled his parents were mentors in that they may not have always been affluent, but were always charitable. Mr. Meyer told the crowd about his family meetings growing up where the whole family was involved in making decisions about philanthropy.

On February 13, Founder and President of Hardrives, Inc., Kravis Center Life Trustee and Honorary Chair for the Kravis Center Corporate Partners Executive Committee, George T. Elmore, discussed his construction success at the second event of the season. Jeffrey A. Stoops, Kravis Center Board Chairman, was the moderator. Elmore discussed the early stages of his career and how expansion in South Florida began to take shape in the 1960s.

In addition to his career with Hardrives, for over 50 years Elmore has spent much of his time committed to civic, educational and cultural organizations in Palm Beach County. Having served on more than 30 boards, he continues to be a true inspiration for those who have the pleasure to work with him.

Kravis Center Corporate Partners members are the corporate and professional leadership in Palm Beach County whose mission is to support and enable the Kravis Center to continue its extensive educational and community outreach programs. Corporate Partners membership offers this dynamic group of business leaders the opportunity to act as an integral part of the Kravis Center, building awareness of the Center within the business community.

To inquire about the Kravis Center’s Corporate Partners membership, visit kravis.org or call Ali Rehm, Development Officer and Corporate Partners Manager at 561.651.4297.
Nearly 250 of the Kravis Center’s major donors and guests attended a special evening on Wednesday, February 19 in honor of the Kravis Center’s Founders and Grand Benefactors, Benefactors, Grand Sponsors, Sponsors and Patron Members of the Dress Circle.

Supporters and special guests enjoyed a cocktail reception prior to entering the Gimelstob Ballroom in the Cohen Pavilion for a delectable three-course dinner by Catering by The Breakers at the Kravis Center.

The annual dinner was sponsored by Northern Trust for the 24th consecutive year. The evening’s performance by Michael Feinstein and the Kravis Center Pops Orchestra followed the dinner and was sponsored by Founder members Sheila Engelstein and Zelda Mason, for the 11th consecutive year.

“Tonight, we are here to celebrate you,” said Judith Mitchell, Kravis Center CEO. “Many of you who are here tonight have supported us for more than three decades – as the dream to build a premier performing arts center finally became a reality in 1992. There is no doubt the Kravis Center is recognized world-wide as a source of the finest entertainment for all Palm Beach County residents and tourists.”

Ms. Mitchell then introduced Jeffrey A. Stoops, Kravis Center Board Chairman who gave an overview of the current Kravis 2020: The Future is Now capital project.

“Kravis 2020 has provided new and improved experiences for our patrons. We have been on time and on budget these last 18 months. Currently, we are more than two-thirds the way to our $40 million goal for enhancements with over $32 million raised – including a lead $10 million gift from The Raymond and Bessie Kravis Foundation to name The Kravis Family Plaza.”

Mr. Stoops then welcomed Michael Bracci, Immediate Past Kravis Center Board Chair and President of Palm Beach and Treasure Coast Region of Northern Trust, to the podium.

“In the last 30 days at the Kravis Center, more than 80,000 people have come to this performing arts center,” said Mr. Bracci. “It has been a very busy month and these numbers are amazing. We couldn’t do any of these things without this group of donors, so we thank you.”
