YOUNG ADULT IMMIGRATION IMMERSION

The Pacific South West Region is organizing an immigration immersion experience for young adults this summer. Participants will travel to Tijuana, Albergues and Puerto Nuevo. They will continue to study both scripture and stories of the impacts of immigration on both Hispanic and Asian/Pacific groups. The project, funded by an Oreon E. Scott Foundation grant, could serve as a model for developing ministries that honor immigrants and their stories. Read more here, including travel itinerary.
