

Ken W. Stone is the founder of the Academy of Spiritual Leadership and Mastery, and creator/conduit for Divine Connecting Breath, Beneath the Sand and number of other profound spiritual practices, along with the transformational Foundations of Spiritual Mastery I course.

Ken has helped thousands of people all over the world remember and experience their Divine nature – from Spiritual Messengers exploring greater authenticity, to people suffering from physical pain and emotional challenges, to people wanting to transcend knowing spiritual truths to actually experiencing them.

After discovering his spiritual gifts in the fall of 2007, Ken let go of his ideas of what he thought his life would be and embarked on a radical journey to embrace his purpose. In the process, he went from being an unhappy mortgage lender and distant and unengaged father, to being a present, authentic parent, living a joy-filled and spiritual life, witnessing and encouraging Divine expression every day.

Ken has spoken along-side such luminaries as Neale Donald Walsch, Lynne McTaggart, Dr. Bernie Siegel, Marianne Williamson, Don Miguel Ruiz, Barbara Marx Hubbard, Sonia Choquette, and many other powerful spiritual leaders.

Ken's transformational programs and practices include: The Foundations of Spiritual Mastery™, Beneath the Sand™, Divine Connecting Breath™, A Journey into Healing, A Divine Transmission, and many others.
