WEDNESDAY, APRIL 9, 2025, 2 P.M. EDT
Via Zoom Teleconference

Minutes

Present:

William Alan Denny, Andy Dickson, Haldane B. Lamberton, Jason P. Penn, George Ridings, Scott Alvey, Jamie Bartek, Kirsten Kindrick

The Kentucky Military History Museum Advisory Committee Meeting was called to order at approximately 2:00 PM EDT. A quorum was not present.

I. Approval of Minutes

Without a quorum, the approval of minutes from the January 8, 2024 KMHM Advisory Committee Meeting was postponed until the next committee meeting to be held on July 9th, 2025.

II. Facilities update

KHS Executive Director, Scott Alvey, updated that the KMHM facilities project remains on schedule.

III. KMHM programs update

KMHM Programs Manager, Jamie Bartek, updated on upcoming public programming including the Lafayette Bicentennial Celebration in May, a speaking event with Dwayne Lee from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Kentucky History Day, Civil War History Day, and the annual Host a Vet program to celebrate Veteran's Day. Bartek asked for recommendations of National Guard members that would be good to interview for Host a Vet.

Alvey mentioned the possibility of aligning celebrations of the 250th anniversary of the militia with Kentucky History Day events in June.

IV. Kentucky Historical Society update

KHS Executive Director, Scott Alvey updated on the recent flooding in Downtown Frankfort and the emergency response of staff to evacuate artifacts from the first floor of the Kentucky History Center. Due to this flooding KHS will be hosting a 2-day camp for children of families displaced from the severe weather and will be hosting prom for Frankfort High after their venue flooded. Alvey explained that KHS continues its work on a Strategic Plan and is currently working on action tactics to meet the four main goals related to staff resources, visitor experience, relationship building, and promoting KY history. Alvey finished his report with updates on the Capitol Plan process as well as the upcoming rebranding of KHS.

V. Announcements and Adjournment

A. The next committee meeting will be held on July 9th, 2025 at 2:00 PM EDT

There being no further business to come before the committee, the meeting adjourned at approximately 2:40 PM EDT.

Respectfully submitted,

Kirsten Kindrick
