

The Kentucky Historical Society & The Kentucky Sestercentennial Commission Present

KENTUCKY CELEBRATES AMERICA 250

A Day of History, Culture & Community

Saturday · All Day Historic Downtown Frankfort 10:00 am - 10:00 pm

FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC • SCHEDULE & LINEUP SUBJECT TO CHANGE

Thomas D. Clark Center for Kentucky History

Martin G. Schmidt Research Library 10 am – 5 pm

Oral History Listening Booth Walmart
Free copies of the Register of the Kentucky Historical Society · Scavenger Hunt

10:00 am Genealogy Workshop: Trace Your Roots to the Revolution with Daniel

11:00 am Battle of Blue Licks Talk with Andy

Commonwealth Hall 10 am – 5 pm

Kid's Activities · Hands-On History Passport

All day Gift Shop Sale — 15% off all purchases

STEWART HOME & SCHOOL 1792 MUSEUM STORE

Cralle Day Garden 10 am – 5 pm

Kid's Activities · Hands-On History Passport · Historic Games, Giant Checkers, Jenga, Cornhole

1:00 pm Dance Lessons with the Capital City Historic Dancers

Walking Tours - Downtown Frankfort

10:30 am Cemetery Revolutionary Tour with Jim

2:00 pm Historical Marker Tour with Jim & Chuck

3:30 pm Our Shot: Kentucky's Revolutionary Story with Mackenzie

Keeneland & A Kentucky Journey 10 am – 5 pm

Keeneland Gallery

11:30 am Weight of Old Glory Tour

1:00 pm Gallery Talk — Mel Hankla

2:00 pm Daniel Boone Talk — Mackenzie

3:30 pm Burgoyne Cannon Talk — Brandon

A Kentucky Journey - Gallery Talks

10:30 am Gov. William Goebel — James

11:00 am Quilts — Katrina

11:30 am Civil War Governors of KY — Chuck

12:00 pm Coal Communities — Mackenzie

1:30 pm Civil War — Jacob

2:30 pm Fashion — Riley

3:00 pm Lincoln — Katrina