

2026 Spring Season

Frankfort Heritage

LECTURE SERIES

January 10 at 1:00 PM

The Kentucky River:
How History Affects Biology &
Biology Affects History

Jim Tidwell, Ph.D.
Professor Emeritus, KSU
Doug Henley
Fisheries Research Biologist (Retired)

April 11 at 1:00 PM

Commerce on the Kentucky River

Charles H. Bogart
Author of Kentucky River Packets

February 7 at 1:00 PM

The Life and Work of Harry Mordecai: African American
Plasterer and Bricklayer in Early
Frankfort, Kentucky

Sharon Cox
Researcher and collector

May 9 at 1:00 PM

There is Something in the Air of Kentucky That Makes a Man a
Soldier: A History of the Kentucky
Militia and National Guard

Nicky Hughes
Museum curator

March 14 at 1:00 PM

Commanding the Capital:
Early Kentucky Governors and
Their Role in Shaping Kentucky

Charles Welsko, Ph.D.
Civil War Governors of KY Project Manager
Kentucky Historical Society

June 13 at 1:00 PM

Lessons from “The Great Dissenter”

Peter S. Canellos
Author of *The Great Dissenter:
The Story of John Marshall Harlan,
American’s Judicial Hero*
Managing Editor for Enterprise, POLITICO

Paul Sawyer Public Library
319 Wapping Street, Frankfort, KY

Please register at www.pspl.org/fhls
Registration opens one month prior to each event. All library programs are accessible to people with disabilities.

SCAN ME TO REGISTER