Dear Ladies—(Dorcas Missionary Fellowship)

Tom & I can't thank you enough for the lovely queen-sized sheets you have provided for us during this visit to the States! They are lovely & much needed, as we can't get them where we are. Thank you for yet another expression of your care & thoughtfulness toward us!

Thank you also for the lovely bags for carrying Bibles to church, etc. They're not only useful but pretty.

Every time I use items from you like this, I think of the hands that prepared them, and thank the Lord for you!

Church Family

God has blessed our church with a great overhead display system that allows us many privileges. However a downside of the overhead displays is that we have noticed many people no longer using their Bibles, but rather relying on the overhead. To help all of us focus on our Bibles rather than technology, beginning on March 14th the full text of Bible references will no longer be shown on the overhead. Rather the verse reference will be shown, and each of us will be expected to turn in our Bibles to read the text.

Q & A With The Elders

During the evening service on March 14th, there will be a question and answer time with four of our elders (Steve Kreloff, Curt Sharbaugh, Rich Hines, and Bruce Mills). If you would like to submit a question, please place it in writing and either drop it by the church office, or e-mail it to office@lakesidechapel.com. The question can cover any subject in the Bible, or any area of theology. This is not a business meeting, so questions related to those issues should wait for another time.
