Plessy v. Ferguson / Newspaper Analysis

WEDNESDAY.

John Spiers, an Alabama sheriff, dies from a wound accidently received.

The Stevenson party are now in Atlanta, Ga., and will remain in that city several days.

Convicts in an Arkansas camp have been mysteriously poisoned. Four of the number have died.

F. F. Henderson, an employe in Forbes Bro's. plaining mill at Hopkinsville, loses a hand. A circular saw did the work.

The Supreme court of Louisiana has declared constitutional the "Jim Crow" law of that State which provides separate cars for negroes.

A little boy, Tommie Richards, of Hopkinsville, while playing with a pistol, accidently shot himself in the head. He lies in a critical condition.

Ex-Sec'y-of-State Blaine's condition remains about the same. His family are prepared for the worst. The end may come at any time or the sick man may linger for weeks.
