Punjab National Bank 2. Union Bank of India 3. Bank of India 4. Indian Bank 5. Canara Bank 6. Indian Overseas Bank 7. Central Bank of India 8. UCO Bank 9. Baroda Bank 10. Punjab and Sindh Bank 11. Bank Maharashtra Probation Officers (PO) and Management Interns (MT) are recruited each year through the General Written Examination (CWE), commonly known as the IBPS PO exam. CWE was launched in 2011 and is held for the 10th time this year and is therefore officially called IBPS PO/MT CWE X 2020. The IBPS PO selection process consists of 3 stages (preliminary, basic and interview) and the candidate must qualify each of them to advance to the next stage. Below are the important steps of the IBPS PO recruitment process: Online preliminary exam: A sufficient number of candidates in each category on the IBPS shortlist depending on the requirements for the online main exam Online Basic Exam: Candidates must qualify for the sectional, as well as general reduction in the main exam to be eligible for the interview. Interview: Interviews will be conducted by participating organizations and coordinated by Nodal Bank in each state/UT via IBPS Final result: Final result is announced based on the combined results of the IBPS PO Mains and Interview Rounds. Provisional selection: Pre-selection of a qualified candidate is published on the official website. IBPS banks are allocated based on the preferences of candidates that are made during the online application. IBPS plays a role in the selection process only before the temporary allocation to various banks. After that, the responsibility to persuade qualified candidates about their terms of accession and procedure rests with the relevant banks. Public Sector Banking has become a glorified career option now, as it does with the promise of attractive wages, benefits, job security, rapid growth and a good work-life balance. In 1975, the Government of India established the Recruitment Service (PSS) to recruit staff and probationary staff to all public sector banks. The PSS was later changed to the Institute for Banking Selection (IBPS) in 1984, according to the Reserve Bank of India (RBI). IBPS PO Exam Pattern IBPS has introduced separate sectional dates for each section of the pre-exam. The IBPS PO (CWE 10) exam for recruiting candidates will be based on an online written exam in two parts: Tier 1 or IBPS Preliminary Exam and Tier 2 or IBPS Mains Exam. This exam is followed by an eye-interview. THE IBPS PO Prelims Exam Pattern Preliminary IBPS PO exam has a total duration of 1 hour and 20 mints for each section to be conducted online. It consists of 3 sections with a total of 100 questions and a maximum score of 100 marks. There is a negative marking in the IBPS PO preliminary exam and 0.25 marks are deducted for each incorrect answer. Applicants must clear the cut in all 3 sections to qualify for the IBPS PO main exam. Details below: S.No. Test title (Objective no. Questions Maximum duration marks 1 English 30 30 30 minutes 2 Numerical ability 35 35 20 minutes 3 Reasoning ability 35 35 25 20 minutes Total 100 100 Candidates must qualify in each of the three tests, Providing minimum cutouts to be determined by IBPS. Enough candidates in each category, as decided by IBPS depending on the requirements, will be included in the online exam shortlist. IBPS PO Mains Exam Pattern The main IBPS PO exam is also conducted online, it has 5 (4+1) sections with a total score of 200-25 marks and a total duration of 180-30 minutes. IBPS will conduct a descriptive document in its main exam to select candidates for the position of probation officer. Sections should be taken in the same order and allotted time as provided during the exam. The candidate must clear both the preliminary and the main exam in order to be eligible for the interview. Penalty for incorrect answers: There is a penalty for incorrect answers, marked in objective tests of both preliminary and basic exams. Incorrect answer to the objective question of the candidate will result in a fine of one quarter of the signs assigned to this question. For example, a .25 mark will be deducted as a penalty for the wrong answer to a question that carries one mark. There will be no punishment for the fact that the question remains empty, i.e. if the candidate has no answer. The final score for IBPS PO Exam: The final IBPS PO score is calculated using the following points in mind: The marks received in the preliminary exam (Tier-1) will not be counted in the final score and only for the qualification for the main exam (Tier-2). Applicants must qualify for the second stage and interview separately in order to be eligible for final merit. The weight (ratio) of the CWE main exam and the interview for the final merit list will be 80:20 respectively. The cumulative score of 100 is used for the final merit list for each category. Candidates with the highest merit rank in each category are finally selected. IBPS PO Syllabus 2020 IBPS exam program is no different from any other banking exam.
