Courtroom Defense in Serious Criminal Cases

In each case below, the firm's immediate Intervention, including a complete case investigation and defense evidence, helped reach a successful outcome. The clients faced the risk of long sentences as well as losing child custody and/or professional licensing.

Felony Battery Case Dropped: A law student defended himself from a rowdy drunk, getting the better of the fight; and was booked and arrested for a felony. Our firm's intervention included the presentation of witness statements and character letters to the Sheriff's Department and the DA. Case dropped at arraignment in court.

Mental Health Diversion Granted: A medical professional was charged with hoarding animal felonies and animal abuse. She also faced a no-bail violation at the time our firm came on board as counsel. We successfully argued to keep her out of custody, did a psychological work up, and convinced the court to grant diversion which will result in full dismissal of over ten felony counts and the case being sealed.

Judicial Diversion Granted in Multiple Cases: Prosecutions included fighting inside a bar causing serious injury by a decorated soldier, a knife assault in our client's home during a confrontation with his ex's new boyfriend, and an Uber driver getting into trouble inside a public restroom in the presence of an undercover officer. All clients faced the possibility of losing licensing and/or employment. Each case will be dismissed and sealed after completion of treatment and community service.

No Arrest in Sexual Assault Case Investigation: A business professional was investigated for sexual assault. Following our presentation of evidence raising reasonable doubt, there was no arrest and LAPD closed the case.

Felony Domestic Violence Case Closed: Our client was arrested on felony charges, posted bail, and ordered to appear at arraignment. After our defense presentation to the police and DA, the case was closed with no formal charging at arraignment.

Federal Case Prosecutions: The firm handled several serious white-collar crime matters where the clients faced more than 5-10 year prison sentences based on the calculation of pretrial services and the United States Sentencing Guidelines. In each instance, the firm secured an outcome below the strict guideline levels.

Multiple Juvenile Prosecutions Across the State: Our defense team worked for various clients including in Contra Costa (vandalizing school grounds $50,000 damage), in Sylmar (selling drugs on campus felony), and North Valley (domestic violence felonies). In each instance, the firm secured a dismissal, following the completion of informal diversion programs, for each client. With the result, the firm will move the judge to seal the juvenile records once each minor turns of age.
