

First Degree Burns

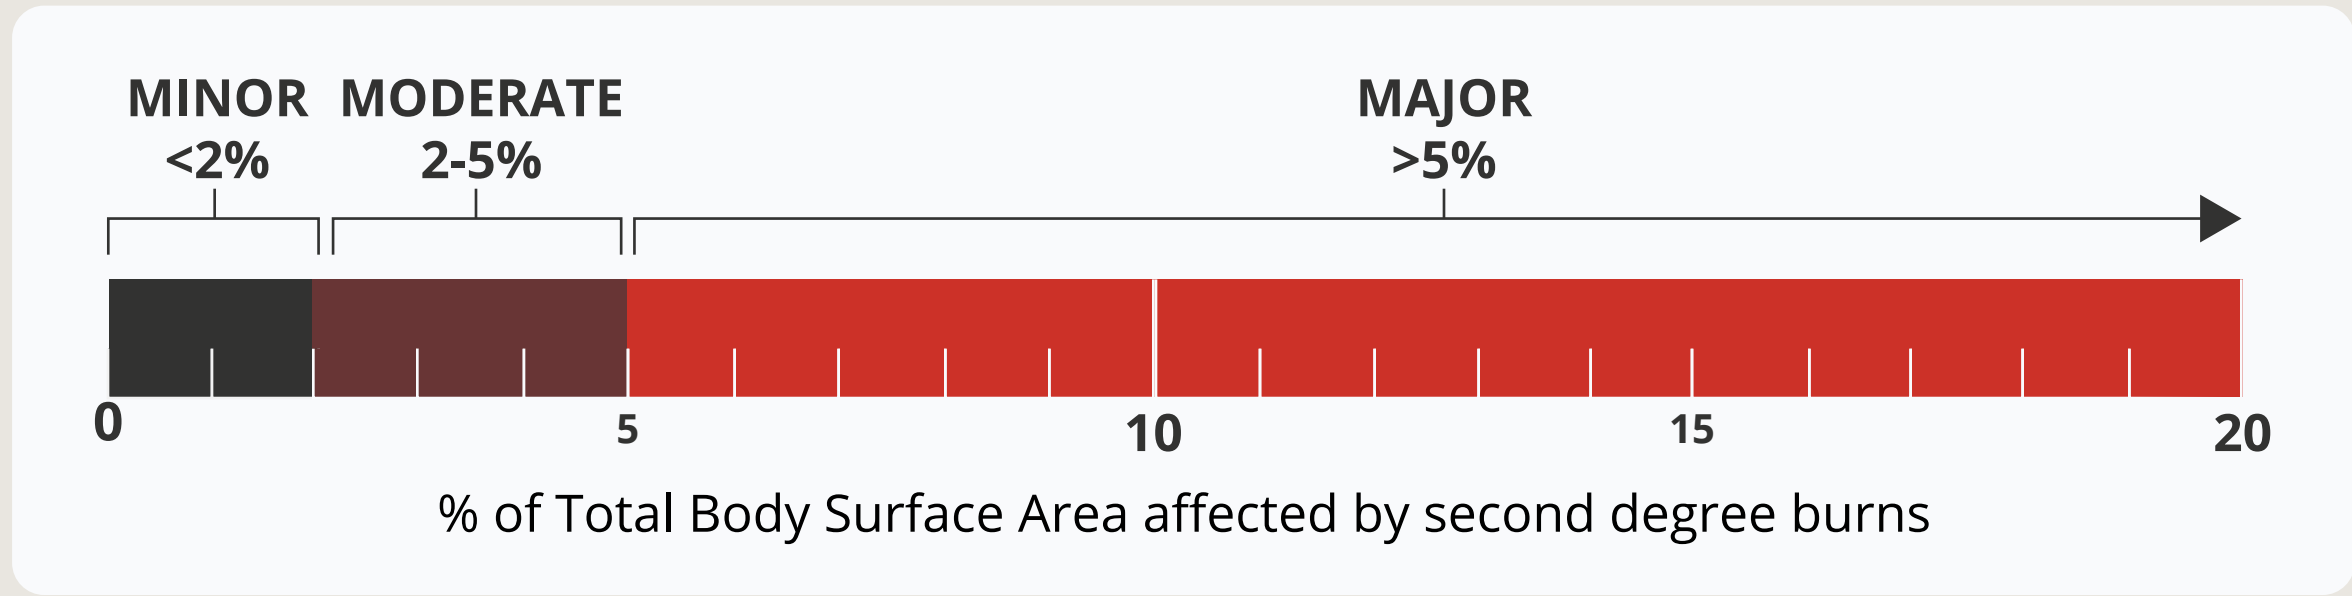

Adults (ages 10-50)

Children and Seniors

Second Degree Burns

Other Indicators of Severity

Moderate

Any possibility of an accompanying inhalation injury

Patients with pre-existing health problems:

- Respiratory illness
- Heart conditions
- Kidney disease
- Diabetes

Major

Known inhalation injury

Burn to particular dangerous areas of the body

- Face
- Hands
- Joints
- Feet

3+

All burns more serious than second degree (third through sixth degree burns)