Have you always wanted to realize your dream of using the law to improve the world? That opportunity has arrived. Legal Voice seeks an experienced attorney to join its team of skilled, creative social justice advocates.

Legal Voice is the Northwest's premier women's and LGBTQ legal rights organization, improving the law and women's lives since 1978. Recognizing that the law is a powerful tool to advance equality and achieve justice, Legal Voice protects and defends women's and LGBTQ rights through public impact litigation, legislative advocacy, and legal rights education. From our base in Seattle, Legal Voice works in the state and federal courts of Washington, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, and Alaska, and advocates for legislative change at the local and state level in Washington State. As a progressive feminist organization, Legal Voice prioritizes a commitment to racial justice in our work and among our staff.

We seek a lawyer with four or more years of litigation and/or legislative policy experience to join our dedicated staff. The position will be located in Seattle, in our collegial and fun office above Seattle's historic Paramount Theater. This position reports to Legal Voice's Advocacy Director. We seek someone with experience in one or more of the following subject matters: anti-discrimination law, civil rights, economic justice, family law, gender-based violence, health law, LGBTQ rights, or reproductive health, rights, and justice.

Primary responsibilities include:

- Managing, in collaboration with other Attorneys and pro bono Cooperating Counsel, Legal Voice's public impact litigation in assigned subject areas
- Managing, in collaboration with other Attorneys, Legal Voice's legislative work in assigned subject areas, including working closely with our contract lobbyists
- Providing technical assistance to community members and allied organizations
- Working to advance feminist legal theories through creative analyses of feminist legal issues and by providing community presentations and training on areas within expertise
- Supervising law student interns and attorney volunteers
- Supporting Legal Voice's outreach, communication, and development efforts

The preferred applicant will be a member of the bar in one or more of the five Northwest states (or willing to obtain bar membership within a reasonable time) who has a demonstrated commitment to women's and LGBTQ legal rights. For more details about job responsibilities and qualifications please review the full job description.

Salary & Benefits: This full-time position has a salary range of $68,000-$78,000, depending on experience. Benefits include health insurance (including dental and vision); three weeks of vacation to start in a culture that supports and encourages people to take time off; ten paid holidays per year; 401K with a possible employer contribution; paid sick and safe leave; flexible and generous family leave; payment of bar dues; and professional development opportunities.

Resumes will be reviewed on a rolling basis; applications received by May 31st, 2019 will be given priority. Interested applicants should send a cover letter and resume to info@legalvoice.org.

Legal Voice follows an equal opportunity employment policy and employs personnel without regard to race, creed, color, ethnicity, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, physical or mental ability, veteran status, military obligations, and marital status.

Women's rights. Nothing less.
