The Attorney General is the chief legal officer for the state of Washington, and the Attorney General's Office serves more than 230 state agencies, boards, commissions, colleges and universities, as well as the Legislature and the Governor. In furtherance of its mission to deliver the highest quality professional legal services to officials, agencies, and people of the state of Washington, the AGO covers a remarkably diverse legal landscape, including social and health services, consumer protection, civil and administrative litigation, environmental law, torts, tribal law, labor law, appellate practice and criminal prosecution.

The agency is highly respected for the quality of its legal work and the professionalism and ethical standards of its staff and leadership. The AGO's dedicated team members of 600 attorneys and 600 professional staff often cite the AGO's broad mandate, offering challenging, diverse work in the public interest, as reasons to join the office -- and opportunities for professional growth, along with a collegial atmosphere, as reasons to stay. The AGO greatly encourages, celebrates and values diversity, appreciating that a workforce composed of those from different backgrounds and experiences creates an inclusive environment, strengthens positive relationships with the local community and brings new perspectives and approaches to fulfill its mission of providing excellent, independent and ethical legal services to the State of Washington and protect the rights of its people.

For more information about the AGO, we encourage you to review the Office's newest Annual Report which can be found HERE and view THIS VIDEO.

DUTIES:

The Antitrust Division seeks two new attorneys to develop, file, and litigate violations of state and federal antitrust laws.

The Antitrust Division investigates, and brings enforcement actions for injunctive and monetary relief on behalf of consumers and the State of Washington in federal and state court. The Division litigates cases in a wide array of industries requiring a wide portfolio of economic support, including pharmaceuticals, healthcare, and high tech, and recently recovered over $100 million for consumers and the State in price-fixing lawsuits against CRT manufacturers, LCD manufacturers. We have been a national leader in the intersection of antitrust and labor, including filing the first enforcement action by a State Attorney General against a franchisor for its use of no-poach provisions, and an enforcement action against overbroad non-compete agreements.

The Division also engages in competition advocacy and provides advice and training to state agencies and external stakeholders on competition-related matters.

Duties for these positions will include:

- Identifying and developing possible enforcement matters;
- Obtaining, reviewing, and conducting factual and legal analysis of relevant documentary evidence to determine whether enforcement action is warranted; and
- Conducting all phases of litigation.

The work of the Antitrust Division is incredibly important to the mission of the AGO and makes a real and tangible difference to the people of Washington State. The attorneys hired into these positions will be integral members of a small but highly collegial, dedicated and talented team of attorneys and professionals.

The positions are located in downtown Seattle, and occasional in-state and out-of-state travel may be required.

QUALIFICATIONS:

We seek attorneys with at least 5 years' of civil litigation experience. Candidates must be highly motivated with a strong desire to move cases forward quickly without the need for constant oversight or direction, and must be comfortable arguing cutting-edge legal theories and taking risks with uncertain outcomes.

In addition, qualified candidates must have:

- 5 or more years as a practicing attorney actively litigating civil cases in state and federal courts of general jurisdiction;
- Excellent judgment;
- A demonstrated ability to coordinate and manage issues of a diverse and complex legal nature;
- The ability to multitask and manage a robust caseload;
- Superior interpersonal, communication, and analytical skills;
- The skills and interest in contributing to a collegial, inclusive and diverse working environment;
- Exceptional ability to advance legal arguments by writing persuasively, concisely and respectfully; and
- A demonstrated ability to coordinate and manage issues of a diverse and complex legal nature.

Prior antitrust experience, while a plus, is not a requirement.

Applicants must have graduated from a law school accredited by the ABA or completed the WSBA's Rule 6 Law Clerk Program and be licensed to practice law in Washington state. The AGO seeks applicants who are committed to public service as demonstrated by an applicant's background, talents, attitude, and enthusiasm for public law practice. The AGO greatly encourages, celebrates and values diversity, appreciating that a workforce composed of those from different backgrounds and experiences creates an inclusive environment, strengthens positive relationships with the local community and brings new perspectives and approaches to fulfill its mission of providing excellent, independent and ethical legal services to the State of Washington and protect the rights of its people.

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION:

The Assistant Attorney General position is represented by the Association of Assistant Attorneys General (AWAAG) / Washington Federation of State Employees (WFSE) AFSCME Council 28, AFL-CIO.

Minimum salary for AAG positions start at sixty-three thousand dollars per year. However, it is important to note that AAG salaries are based on experience, qualifications and are commensurate with comparable positions in the AGO. The position's official duty station is King County and is thus eligible for 5% assignment pay per legislative action. A competitive state benefits package is also offered which includes a choice of medical/dental insurance plans, retirement, life and basic long-term disability insurance. In addition, there are non-financial benefits that include working in a collaborative and supportive work environment where professional development and work-life balance are highly valued.

Interested applicants must apply by hitting the "apply" button above. In addition to the on-line application, one must upload, via the system:

- A letter of interest;
- Resume;
- Law school transcript (unofficial copy is acceptable); and
- Writing sample.

If you have questions about these positions and/or want to learn more about it before applying, you are strongly encouraged to contact Division Chief Jonathan Mark at Jonathan.Mark@atg.wa.gov. The deadline to apply has changed to January 7, 2020.
