

THE DIRTY DOZEN

---

- ☐ Make sure everyone is okay.
- ☐ Call 911 no matter how insignificant or small the accident appears.
- ☐ Get the contact information from all people at the scene.
- ☐ Get the other driver's insurance information.
- ☐ Do not speak to the investigating law enforcement officer in front of the other driver or witnesses.
- ☐ Do not speak to the other driver or witnesses about the facts the accident.
- ☐ If EMS comes to the scene and you're hurting - let the paramedics check you out.
- ☐ If you are physically able, be sure to document the scene of the accident with pictures or video.
- ☐ If you're hurting, get checked out immediately you could have something going on under the surface that will require medical attention.
- ☐ Report the accident to your insurance company even if you were not at fault for the crash.
- ☐ Do not give a recorded statement to the other insurance company without first speaking to a lawyer.
- ☐ Contact a car accident lawyer to learn about your rights.

If you have any questions about these dirty dozen steps, Call Guy S. DiMartino, DC, JD at (352) 267-9168.