

PRIVACY POLICY

Your privacy is important to Dumpster Diverz (“Dumpster Diverz”). At Dumpster Diverz, we understand the premium you place on the protection of your privacy on the Internet, and we want you to feel as comfortable as possible visiting our Web site and using its services. This Privacy Policy will tell you what information we collect, how we protect it, and what choices you have about how that information is used. We urge you to read our Privacy Policy so that you will understand both our commitment to you and your privacy, and how you can help us to honor that commitment.

We are committed to protecting your privacy. We will only use the information that we collect about you lawfully. We collect information about you for two reasons: 1) to process your order, and 2) to provide you with the best possible service. We will not email you or pass your information to another company, partner, or agent unless you have given us your consent. In order to process your payment we may, however, provide financial information to our account processors (including Banks and such organizations). In addition, you may notify us if you do not wish to receive any further marketing information from us. The type of information we will collect about you includes your name, address, phone number, email address, and credit card details. We will endeavor to ensure the information we hold will be accurate and up to date. You can check the information that we hold about you by emailing us. If you find any inaccuracies we will delete or correct it promptly.

Please remember that if you link to a third party site from this Site, any information you reveal on that site is not subject to this Privacy Policy. You should consult the privacy policies of each site you visit. We cannot control, and are not responsible for, the disclosure or use of any information revealed in either manner.

The following make up our Privacy Policy for the dumpsterdiverz.com Website (the “Site”).

Personal Information We Collect

We collect information about you in the following ways:

1. Voluntarily Provided Information. If you registered as a user of the Site, you or your authorized agent voluntarily provided information about you. We will continue to use that information in accordance with the Enrollment Forms, the Terms and Conditions of Use and this Privacy Policy, unless you notify us to the contrary.
2. We also collect other information that you voluntarily provide to use, e.g., through responses to surveys, questionnaires, and the like.
3. IP Address. We store the Internet Protocol (IP) address of your computer when you visit our Site. This information is only used to create broad demographic summaries of where our users come from, e.g., we know what percentage of users come from Europe or Asia. Our use of the IP addresses, however, does not identify the actual users of the Site.

4. Cookies. We may also collect information about you and your use of our Site through the use of Cookies. “Cookies” are small computer files we transfer to your computer’s hard drive that allows us to know how often someone visits our Site and the activities they conduct while on our Site. This information helps us dynamically generate advertising and content on web pages specifically designed for you and also allows us to statistically monitor how many people are using our Site and for what purpose. Sponsors, advertisers, or third parties may also use Cookies when you select their advertisement, content or service; we cannot control their use of Cookies or how they use the information they gather. If you do not want information collected through Cookies, there is a simple procedure in most browsers that allows you to deny or accept the Cookie feature. However, Cookies may be necessary to provide you with certain features (for example, customized delivery of information) available on the Site.

Disclosure of Your Information to Third Parties

Except as set forth in this Privacy Policy, we will not disclose to unaffiliated companies any information we gather from you which could be used to identify or contact you (“Personal Information”). Any Personal Information provided to entities affiliated with Dumpster Diverz will be treated in accordance with the terms of this Privacy Policy, unless you are otherwise notified. In the following limited circumstances, we may release Personal Information to third parties: (1) to comply with applicable legal requirements such as a law, regulation, search warrant, subpoena, discovery request, or court order; (2) in special cases, such as a physical threat to you or others. We also provide Personal Information to our vendors and suppliers (collectively, “Vendors”) when it is necessary for them to provide us with products and services related to the better operation and maintenance of our Site. We will attempt to require that each of these Vendors not further use or disclose your Personal Information for any purpose other than providing us or you with products and services. Of course, we cannot guarantee their compliance with these restrictions.

We may provide information about you that does not allow you to be identified or contacted (“Aggregate Information”) to third parties. For example, we might inform third parties regarding the number of users of our Site and the activities they conduct while on our Site. We might also inform an implant company (that may or may not be an advertiser on our Site) that “30% of our users work east of the Mississippi” or that “25% of our users have inquired about implants.” Depending on the circumstances, we may or may not charge for this information.

How We Handle Your Personal Information Internally

inside and outside the company. However, “perfect security” does not exist on the Internet.
