In its 10th year, Lexington-Bluegrass Association of REALTORS® continues book presentations to local elementary schools in Menifee County

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Lexington, KY (November 14, 2017) - This school year Realtors representing the Lexington-Bluegrass Association of REALTORS® (LBAR) visited the public elementary schools in Menifee County including Menifee County Elementary and Botts Elementary and presented a book. Each school received Spaghetti in a Hot Dog Bun by esteemed author Maria Dismondy. This charming story empowers children to always do the right thing and be proud of themselves, even when they are faced with a challenging person.

In its tenth year, Melissa Poynter, the chair of the LBAR community education task force, has continued to lead this project. Realtors Kamilia Lawson and Kate McMillan delivered the book and read to a group of students during library class. This contribution to Menifee County is part of a larger donation to the public elementary schools in the Bluegrass region —LBAR will be presenting the book to over 140 elementary schools in 22 counties. The project is part of LBAR’s goal to become involved with the area’s school systems in innovative ways that will positively shape the future of our community’s children.

As the region’s leading advocate for homeownership, Lexington-Bluegrass Association of REALTORS® (LBAR) understands the value and joy of owning a home. LBAR represents more than 3,100 REALTORS® located in Anderson, Bath, Bell, Bourbon, Clark, Clay, Elliott, Fayette, Franklin, Harrison, Jackson, Jessamine, Knox, Laurel, Menifee, Montgomery, Nicholas, Powell, Rowan, Scott, Whitley, and Woodford Counties.
