

Module 5

Where do we go from here?

Overview

In this panel, Crystal Lameman, Clayton Thomas Mueller, Dr. Lynn Gehl, and Jessica Bolduc explored the questions to keep asking ourselves as we engage in the work of renewing the relationship. They discussed opportunities for making connections with other campaigns and organizations that are doing this work. Here are a few questions to keep you thinking about the panel.

General

- 1) What is the first step in your personal journey?
- 2) What is your Indigenous Knowledge?
- 3) Where is knowledge located?
- 4) Whose Indigenous land do you live on and do you offer them any help as they define it to be?
- 5) As you move forward, what is your understanding of responsible citizenship?
- 6) What does “Follow the Turtle” mean?
- 7) Whose land does Parliament Hill reside on?
- 8) What is the difference between a treaty and a land claim?
- 9) Despite Canada’s Charter of Rights and the two remedial legislations to the Indian Act, in what ways does the Indian Act continue to discriminate against Indigenous women?
- 10) Where can you look in your community to contribute to solidarity work?
- 11) Why do you think this work is important?
- 12) What learning do we need to keep doing?
