You may cancel your service under this Agreement at any time without a cancellation fee. Cancellation is effective on the next meter read date that occurs after your EDC has switched your account from IEH. You must provide IEH at least thirty (30) days advance notice before the next regularly scheduled meter read in order for the cancellation to be effective as of that reading. To cancel this Agreement, please contact IEH by phone, email, or mail at the contact information contained in this Agreement. If your EDC terminates your service, this Agreement will be automatically cancelled. IEH may cancel this Agreement with forty-five (45) days' notice if: i) you fail to make timely payment of IEH charges; or ii) if at some future date there is a change in any law, regulation, market rule, or tariff that materially impairs IEH's ability to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement. We will follow applicable rules in providing notice to you if we intend to cancel this Agreement for either of the reasons specified in (i) or (ii) above. IEH reserves the right to cancel this Agreement, in whole or with respect to any particular account(s) covered by this Agreement, at any time for any reason and we will follow applicable rules in providing you notice of this intent. Cancellation is effective upon the date as deemed effective by the EDC, after any applicable notice period, and you will be responsible for unpaid balances as of the cancellation date, until your account is paid in full, and we will not access a cancellation fee.

Cancellation of Existing Service: You are responsible for canceling any agreements with other electric suppliers from whom you are purchasing electric service as of the date of this Agreement.

8. No Penalties or Fees:

There are no customer service charges, set up fees, or cancellation fees.

9. Special Terms and Conditions: Rewards Program:

Please refer to your Welcome Confirmation letter or email regarding your rewards program, if applicable. If you cancel this Agreement prior to the end of your second billing cycle, you may forfeit some or all of the rewards described in your Welcome Confirmation.

10. Renewal Provision/Agreement Expiration:

If you have a fixed term Agreement with us and it is approaching the expiration date and IEH wishes to renew your Agreement, IEH will send you a notice of renewal 45 days before the end of the term. The notice will include: (1) any changes to the material terms and conditions, including the electricity price, of this Agreement; (2) information on how you can terminate this Agreement at the conclusion of the term without penalty, and (3) a statement that terminating the Agreement without selecting another supplier will return you to your EDC's standard offer service. This Agreement will automatically renew with the revised offer and Disclosure Statement unless you cancel the renewal of this Agreement by notifying IEH not later than 25 days prior to the end of the term. If you cancel the renewal, then this Agreement will terminate at the end of the then-current term and you will remain responsible for any unpaid balance as of the termination date but we will not assess a cancellation fee.

11. Billing and Payment:

You will receive one consolidated bill from your EDC each billing cycle for the electric and related services provided by IEH and the distribution and other services provided by your EDC. You will make payment for all of these services directly to your EDC in accordance with the payment terms stated in your EDC's tariffs. Past-due charges may incur late fees as set forth in your EDC's tariffs. In the event your EDC charges IEH for services related to your account and you are a variable price customer, IEH reserves the right to bill you for these charges.

12. Title and Taxes:

Each party will indemnify and hold the other party harmless from any and all claims (including claims for personal injury, death, or property damage), losses, fees, taxes, damages, suits, causes of actions and judgments of any kind arising hereunder while title and risk of loss are vested in the indemnifying party. You will be responsible for the payment of all transfer, sales or other taxes related to IEH's service under this Agreement. If you are exempt from any such taxes, you are responsible for identifying and requesting such exemption from the collection of taxes by filing appropriate documentation with IEH and/or your EDC, as applicable.

13. Contact Information/Customer Complaints:

If you have a question about your bill or service, you may contact IEH (see IEH Contact Information below). If you are not satisfied with the response from IEH's Customer Care representative, you may ask that your questions be referred to an IEH supervisor, who will respond promptly. If you remain unsatisfied with our attempts to resolve the issue, you may seek assistance from the PSC or request information from the PSC regarding your consumer protection rights. The PSC's contact information is listed below. You will be responsible for payment as required during the dispute, and such payment shall be refunded if warranted by the dispute's resolution.
