- When new elders are appointed
- During building programs
- As numbers swell through baptisms and families placing membership
- When preachers come and go
- In a flurry of exciting activities
- In the heart of some church problem or struggle
- At the center of some personality struggle or conflict within the congregation
- Through some controversial doctrinal, moral, or even cultural issue
- When brethren put politics, race, or another issue of lesser importance over Christ and His church

Obviously, there are many more examples. The point is that Satan would love to use the good times or bad times we experience as a church to undermine and harm the work of the Lord. That should not make us paranoid, so paralyzed by fear that we refuse to act, or petrified to make needed changes. It does mean that we must not be ignorant of the fact that he doesn't want the church to grow or move forward, and he will do what he can to stop it. What is so exciting is that he stands no chance against God. James says, "Submit therefore to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you" (4:7). Let us never be afraid to "dare and do" for God. We can do great things for Him and keep an eye out for the devil's schemes.
