MARK DUZIK, M.A. | PROGRAM CHAIR

Mark Duzik has served the Foursquare Church for over 25 years as a lead pastor, staff pastor, and Associate Professor and Chair of the Biblical Studies program at Life Pacific College. He received his B.A. from LIFE, M.A. from Azusa Pacific University, and is currently pursuing a Ph.D. through Asia Life University. A New Testament generalist, Mark teaches courses on the Gospels, Romans, 1 Peter, and Greek at LIFE and Azusa Pacific University. He has been married to his much-better half for nearly thirty years and has four delightful daughters.

Purpose

God has given you a passion for gaining a strong biblical world-view. You thrive when you're given the opportunity to lead or teach in a variety of ministry contexts. LPC's Biblical Studies program equips individuals with a deep understanding of the Bible, theological synthesis, and hermeneutic practices. It allows students to gain understanding of the value of the major fields of knowledge from a biblical framework, and possess the desire and foundation necessary to be a lifelong learner. Students will attain the skills necessary to minister to people inside and outside of the local church. They will learn to integrate education, spiritual life, and experience into a consistent lifestyle of personal spiritual growth and character that reflects Christian values.

Careers

Our Biblical Studies traditional program is designed for people who desire to be a leader or a bi-vocational minister within the Christian community.

This program is geared toward those who see teaching the Bible as their primary ministry. Possible careers include ministry leadership, chaplaincy, missions, education, research, and more!

Admissions Requirements

A completed application includes an application, character reference form, official high school transcripts and college transcripts (if applicable), and proof of English proficiency, such as satisfactory AP, SAT, or ACT scores. Accepted students will also be required to submit a residence hall form, physician completed health form, immunization records, and necessary deposits. Get started today at:

lifepacific.edu/apply.

Schedule

Students should expect to put at least 3-4 hours per unit a week into their coursework. Traditional on-campus programs run on a Fall/Spring semester schedule.
