JIM WALZ D.MGT. | PROGRAM CHAIR

Dr. Walz has a Ph.D. in Organizational Leadership, and a Masters in Business Administration, and has served in leadership and management roles in the entertainment industry, higher education, health care, and as a Naval Officer. Dr. Walz served as a Professor and Chair of the Department of Business and Management at Vanguard University. Prior to that, he served as the Dean of the Rinker School of Business at Palm Beach Atlantic University, and Associate Dean at the School of Business and Management at Azusa Pacific University.

Purpose

You want to engage in business as a force for good, transforming communities and the world. You see business as an opportunity to advance God's kingdom in this world by bringing Christian character and values to everything you do. LPC's Business Administration program is for those who see business as a means for mission. Graduates are not just Christian business people, but those who see the boardroom, the store-front, and the start-up business as their field for doing ministry. The focus is the development of principles of business and management useful for the further advancement of God's Kingdom. In addition to the required business courses, all graduates will receive a foundation (30 units) in Bible and theology.

Careers

Our Biblical Studies traditional program is The program is designed to encourage graduates to seek social, economic, environmental, and spiritual transformation through engagement in business.

Potential careers include work in corporations or small businesses, non-profits, church planting, and church administration.

Admissions Requirements

A completed application includes an application, character reference form, official high school transcripts and college transcripts (if applicable), and proof of English proficiency, such as satisfactory AP, SAT, or ACT scores. Accepted students will also be required to submit a residence hall form, physician completed health form, immunization records, and necessary deposits. Get started today at: lifepacific.edu/apply.

Schedule

Students should expect to put at least 3-4 hours per unit a week into their coursework. Traditional on-campus programs run on a Fall/Spring semester schedule.

Biblical Studies Minor

The Business Administration program includes a required 30-unit Bible core, which qualifies students to earn a Biblical Studies minor when they graduate.
