

News Story Summary

Tim Tebow is known for taking time out of his busy schedule before games, after games, during practices, off-season to talk to fans. On March 21, 2018, Tim Tebow surprised a young fan with a surprise visit at his house. The young fan named Michael had initially met Tebow at a Night to Shine event; a prom-like event held on Valentine's Day for people with special needs. Tebow posted video on his twitter feed showing the young fan answering the front door. The visit was conducted on World Down Syndrome Day. When asked about his involvement in events for people with special needs, Tebow explained that "they realize that they're loved... There's not much more important than that."

(For more on this story, search the Internet using the term "Tim Tebow surprises down syndrome fan".)

Focus Attention

To supplement the Focus Attention ideas, begin by sharing the new story about Tim Tebow. Ask: What does it look like to show the love of Christ to people? What does it look like practically? How important is it to show this love in non-church places? Complete the step as written.

Challenge

To supplement the Summarize and Challenge ideas, conclude by reminding the group of the story about Tim Tebow. Ask: Why do we need to show the love of Christ? How is love grounded in the gospel? What are some ways that you can show the love of Christ in your spheres of influence?