

News Story Summary

There are some people who have a bigger platform than others. Most people will interact with a smaller group of people over the lifetime but some will have an impact over a much larger group of people. One of those people is Super Bowl winning quarterback Nick Foles. Foles is an outspoken Christian, desiring to become a pastor after his time with football is over. Nick is using his substantial influence to point people to Christ.

(For more on this story, search the Internet using the term “Nick Foles pastor”.)

Focus Attention

To supplement the Focus Attention idea about influential people, share the news summary about Nick Foles. Ask: Why is it important for Christians to use their influence for the sake of Christ? How would you describe the influence he has on others right now?

Summarize and Challenge

To supplement the share idea under Summarize and Challenge, remind the group of the news summary about Nick Foles. Ask: What qualities would you highlight that make Nick Foles an influencer for Christ? How do the actions of well-known Christians who use their platform for Christ encourage you to do the same? Complete the step as written.