EarthLink

EarthLink is a brand of TerraLink Horticulture Inc. that represents an organic-based product line. Generally, the organic-based products are environmentally 'softer' than the typical conventional crop inputs but not necessarily bona fide organic. Increased consumer awareness of food safety and environmental concerns are the reasons behind TerraLink's decision to introduce EarthLink product-line.

EarthLink brand offers organic-based fertilizers in liquid or granular blends. We develop, manufacture and market our specialized products by adding more natural and organic-based ingredients.

Organic-based fertilizers feed the soil. The soil is part of an ecosystem which primarily depends on macro, secondary and micronutrients, minerals and microbes for maximum soil health. EarthLink's fertilizers are unique as growers get maximum benefits of synthetic crop inputs, as well as organically rich natural compounds added to the soil. These natural organic compounds encourage microbial activity to establish a symbiotic environment that leads to better crop yields. Over time, soil becomes healthier and more fertile and plants grow strong, vigorous and robust.

For healthy plants and maximum yield, use environmentally-friendly EarthLink products.
