-RUMI

If love is the one area of your life that you just can't seem to get right, no matter how hard you try, you've come to the right place.

I work with some of the most powerful, successful, beautiful women in the world and the one thing they have in common is that love is their Achilles heel. Despite being a total catch and successful in every other way, love eludes them or causes so much struggle. They feel BAD at love.

I'm here to tell you, that nothing could be farther from the truth. You're a powerhouse and that includes love too. I specialize in helping elite women create truly top 1% Love and I know for certain that you can attract and keep the partnership you really crave.

The reason you don't have the love or relationship you want is not because there's something wrong with you, it's not because of your past, it's not because there's no one out there who can be a match, the reason you don't have it is because you haven't ALIGNED to it yet.

This is great news because it means that you CAN manifest and create the love you want, starting right now, no matter what your current circumstances or what the past has been. YOU are a powerful woman who can make anything happen and that includes your love life too. So, let me show you the way.

I help clients align to the top 1% love they're meant for by focusing on 3 key areas: Mindset, Heart & Energy.

Mindset

Admit it, your mindset around love tends to veer negative. You want to hope for the best, but you subconsciously expect the worst. You feel that options are limited and your experience only seems to prove these limits are true. They're not! Shifting your love mindset allows a whole new caliber of person to come into your reality. The right partner for you exists and you have to believe that, fully before you can see it. Consistency is key and once you're able to raise your love mindset and keep it high, consistently, the partner you've been waiting for will appear.

Heart

Right now, the past has a chokehold on your love life. Your childhood wounds still run the show. How can you tell? Your ex(es) or love interests likely hurt you or failed to love you in the same exact ways your family did. You freak out or get insecure with someone you really like. You want love, but fear takes over. You're not fully open because you got hurt in the past and now you're afraid. When you open and heal your heart, you will receive a love that's BIGGER than anything you've had before. And, it will be safe.

Energy

The right kind of energy is magnetic, it draws what you want to you, with ease. It's likely that you're not projecting the confident, total catch energy you want to in love. You may be radiating please pick me vibes or be closed due to fear. To attract true love, you must be the REAL you, fully and trust that it is enough. Like attracts like so, when your energy is aligned and open, the right kind of love will literally come to you.

Top 1% Love is about ALIGNMENT, so let's see if you're currently aligned.

Take a look at the list of blocks below keeping you from aligning to top 1% love and notice how many you have.

If you've got 5 more more, working with me in the Love Elite Private Coaching program is the absolute best thing you can do to clear the blocks quicker and more efficiently than trying to do so on your own. I've worked with thousands of women and when they clear their blocks and ALIGN to love, they manifest top1% love that is better than they even imagined. The love has been waiting for you to claim it the whole time, and all that's needed is to clear the blocks to receive it.

Mindset Blocks

- 1) I don't believe the kind of partner I really want exists. It feels like I want "too much" or I want something so specific that I need a unicorn, only I doubt that a unicorn even exists.
- 2) I honestly hate dating. I know I have to do it to find a partner but I just wish I didn't have to do it. Dating kills my vibe and makes me feel negative.
- 3) I think that love equals sacrifice or giving up on parts of myself / things I really want. It seems like everyone I know is settling in their relationships.
- 7) I don't believe that I can find a relationship that meets all of my standards and requirements and that it can be easy.
- 4) I don't believe someone is going to love me for ALL of me. I feel like there are parts of me that are just too much, too diva, too sensitive, too strong or not enough somehow and I'll be rejected for those parts.
- 5) I don't believe love can stay good. I think it starts off great and then fades over time, turns bad or gets boring and dull.
- 6) I hate being disappointed in love and I try to avoid it at all costs. When I do get disappointed, it sometimes feels like the end of the world and I just want to give up on love altogether.

Heart Blocks

- 9) My mom, dad, or caregiver(s) failed to love me in some ways that I needed and honestly, I'm still affected by that. Now, I feel like it's super hard to to get the things I really need (unconditional love, attention, fidelity, security, comfort and care, commitment, acceptance, support etc) in a romantic relationship.
- 10) I witnessed my parents or family members struggle in love and it really affected me and negatively impacted how I see relationships to this day.
- 11) My ex(es) really hurt me and a part of me is so afraid of being hurt like that again.
- 12) I can't get over an ex. I feel like they were the one that got away or I doubt I'll ever be able to find love that good again.
- 13) I'm attracted to the wrong kinds of people (avoidant, emotionally unavailable, cheaters, etc) and can't stop. I know I should be attracted to something different but I can't help myself.
- 14) Earlier on in life, I felt like the people I was into didn't want me or notice me. I wasn't chosen by my crushes and it feels like a certain type of person was, someone not like me, so now I have this feeling that the kind of person I really want wouldn't choose me.
- 15) I'm perfectionistic with myself. The world sees me as this amazing woman and I am, but deep down, I sometimes struggle with not feeling good enough. It's hard for me to practice self love.
- 16) I know my emotional reactions in my love life are not normal. I get overly triggered, overly insecure /desperate, overly fearful, or overly angry, too easily. It's like love is the one area that can just totally make me lose my cool.

Energy Blocks

- 17) People tell me that I'm unapproachable or I just feel that way. I can tell that I'm closed off somehow because I almost never get asked out and people look at me, but they don't actually come up to me to ask me out.
- 18) I'm a confident person but I turn insecure around someone I really like and I act weird or I obsess about how I have to act to get them to like me.
- 19) I don't trust love to work out for me so I feel like I have to control it. I get manipulative or passive aggressive or controlling and I don't just let love flow.
- 20) I have standards but I don't stick to them sometimes. I let people in who are below what I want and it ends up just messing with my energy or making me doubt myself.

“ONLY LOVE IS

A COURSE IN MIRACLES

Here's the truth. It doesn't matter how many blocks you currently have because they can ALL be shifted.

Only love is real. .

Every block is just a fear and the fears are not who you really are.

YOU are powerful.

YOU are worthy.

YOU are so very capable of attracting and creating the love that you want.

When I work with women to help them clear their fears, release their blocks and align to top 1% love, something incredible happens.

They realize they're GOOD at love, really good.

They start to feel so proud of who they are and how they show up in love.

They feel deep in their bones that they deserve the best of the best love on the planet AND, they receive it.

3 STEP

LOVE ALIGNMENT PROCESS

STEP ONE

MINDSET

THIS IS WHERE WE REPROGRAM YOUR SUBCONSCIOUS MIND TO EXPECT ABUNDANT LOVE, TO EXPECT EASE IN LOVE, TO EXPECT THAT OF COURSE YOU GET EVERYTHING YOU WANT AND MORE, NO SACRIFICE. TRUE BELIEF IS KEY IN MANIFESTING ELITE LOVE.

HEART

THIS IS WHERE YOU HEAL WITHIN. THROUGH A COMBINATION OF INNER WORK + EMOTIONAL HEALING, THAT INNER LITTLE GIRL INSIDE FINALLY FEELS WORTHY AND SAFE. YOU HEAL YOUR PAST, CHILDHOOD AND ANY NEGATIVE ENERGY CAUSED BY YOUR EX(ES). WHEN YOUR INNER LITTLE GIRL FEELS WORTHY OF MORE LOVE AND WHEN YOUR HEART FEELS SAFE TO FULLY OPEN, THAT'S WHEN YOU ATTRACT IT IN, WITH EASE.

STEP TWO

ENERGY

THIS IS WHERE WE GET YOU ABSOLUTELY MAGNETIC TO THE RIGHT LOVE. YOU START TO SHOW UP ENERGETICALLY IN LOVE, NOT FEAR AND THAT COMPLETELY CHANGES THE GAME WHERE CAN YOU FIND A GREAT PARTNER? EVERYWHERE, BECAUSE WHEN YOUR ENERGY IS ALIGNED, THE LOVE YOU WANT LITERALLY COMES TO YOU AND WILL FIND YOU WHEREVER YOU ARE.

STEP THREE

WHO LOVE ELITE IS FOR:

- You're READY to stop letting fear consume you in your love life.
- You're READY to stop acting and reacting from the wounded inner little girl inside of you and step into the EMPOWERED Woman mode in your love life.
- You know that there's deeper healing work to do to let go of the fears, emotions and insecurities that are stopping you from showing up fully as the prize you are.
- You want to show up as POWERFUL in your love life as you do in every other area of your life. you want to be just as successful in love as you are in other areas of life.
- You know that you're meant for extraordinary love even if your relationship history hasn't been great. Something in you can't stop believing that you were made for more.
- You're READY to attract Top 1% Love so good, other people beg you to tell them how you did it.

SPECIFICALLY WHAT WE'LL BE DOING IN LOVE ELITE:

Complete Subconscious Rewiring

Blasting away any and all limiting beliefs, stories and painful experiences from your past that are preventing you from FULLY believing that the top 1% man that you want exists AND that he would FULLY choose you.

Inner Little Girl Healing

FULLY healing your Inner Little Girl / childhood patterns so you SHIFT your love paradigm completely and stop repeating old stories based on how your parents loved you (or didn't) or based on what happened in early life. When your inner little girl is healed, your love life transforms into what it was ALWAYS meant to be.

Transforming Your Operating System (from fear to love)

Getting you into your FULL power in love so you communicate in a way that will get a man to hear you (and do what you want) WITHOUT force or control (or anger). You'll show up, communicate and operate as your most empowered self in love, consistently. You'll become PROUD of how you show up on your side of the street and you'll be vibrating, truly, with the energy of pure love. From here, love becomes EASY. Your love life will move from the hardest area of your life to the easiest one. (really)

REASONS TO HIRE A LOVE COACH

You're aware of what needs to shift but you have a hard time doing it on your own and it's infuriating. You KNOW better in your mind, but you still find yourself falling into negative energy in love.

You know in your mind that you're a catch and that you deserve top 1% love BUT another part of you doubts, feels not good enough and sabotages. There's a disconnect and you want your head and your heart to MATCH.

You know that the past is still holing you back. Limiting beliefs, painful experiences with an ex, childhood stories...you don't want the past to limit you in love anymore.

You're afraid, deep down, that you're just bad at love or that there's something wrong with you. You want support to own your true power in love so you feel and show up like an empowered, Love Rockstar instead of letting the scared little girl inside run the show.

You don't want to attract the same kind of men anymore, you want MORE. You're tired of settling. You want to ALIGN to the highest level love possible. You're DONE with being single and ready to be in a lasting, amazing, power couple relationship.

EXAMPLE OF A COACHING Session

- 1) Discuss previous week(s) dating experiences, triggers, thoughts & emotions that came up.(anything getting in the way of you being in alignment for the love you want)
- 2) Emotional healing, mindset shifting, practical coaching, etc. personalized to YOU.
- 3) Celebrate YOU, acknowledge your wins and and get you plugged in to your WORTH.
- 4) Plan / guidance for the upcoming week so you stay in alignment for love / have the tools to keep your confidence in the dating process, manifest the right partner, communicate like a Queen and create the love you want.

Nicole, help me shift this limiting belief!

Nicole, help me write this text to communicate to a guy!

Nicole, celebrate this WIN with me!

Nicole, I'm triggered, help me shift it!

Nicole, help me to see this situation clearly, through love, not fear!

VOXER COACHING

NOTE FROM NICOLE

Picture this. The love you want exists and you have actually been on a path to get it. Even the mistakes have been part of the path.

At first, you started off optimistic, certain you'd find incredible love, but instead, you got hurt along the path, you got left or deceived or not chosen and that pure optimism to find love may have slipped. You kept going on the path, but NOW, right now, you've reached a part of the path that feels blocked.

This is why you inquired about private coaching. Something in you senses and knows that there is something blocking you from moving forward.

The path ahead doesn't look clear. It looks murky, clouded, you can't see what's ahead, you can't see the incredible love that lies ahead, so you begin to doubt that that love even exists. You look back at your past on the path and it's honestly filled mostly with pain. You don't want that, but since you can't fully see what's ahead, you worry that the future on that path is more of the same.

Other people seem to have stopped at this murky part of the path and just settled for mediocre relationships and you don't want that.

Something in your heart is pulling you forward, something deep inside of you KNOWS that great love is meant for you and it's on your life path, but another part of you is scared, worried you want too much, worried you're not enough, worried what you want doesn't even exist and so, you're stuck.

This is where most people find me on their journey and when they see me, they feel, for, moment, a spark of true hope and inspiration.

I know every single block there is that stops women from manifesting love because I've worked with them all AND I know how to release them so your path becomes clear once again and you actually don't even have to walk and walk further because when you are clear of the block that beautiful partner, who IS your person, who IS on your path, COMES TO YOU.

I know when a woman is holding herself back from true love. I know when she's not owning her true power and love-ability and that's why she's not attracting more. I know how to shine a light on everything that's incredible about who a woman really is so she OWNS her absolute worthiness for love, more than she ever has before and from that space, she FINALLY attracts love that meets her and matches her because she is no longer attracting from her wounds but from her WORTH.

You likely have never experienced a relationship that ONLY matches your worth and doesn't reflect back your wounds.

(most people haven't because most people attract love based on their childhood wounds without realizing it).

Love that matches your worth is easy, effortless, connected, sexy, spiritual, endlessly exciting and SAFE. Love that matches your worth is where you get to be ALL of you, fully, and it's the best damn feeling in the world to be loved for all of who you are AND, you love all of your partner too, you're truly not sitting there with a list of things you want to change about them.

When I talk about Elite level love, top 1% love, love so good other people beg to know how you found it, this is what I mean.

Love isn't pain, it's not disappointment, it's not perfectionism, it's not drama and power struggles, it's not cheating, lying, manipulating, or making you feel so wrong.

Love is GOOD.

And when you clear the love wounds within, when you release the blocks, when you release the limits, when you KNOW in your heart, not just in your mind but in every part of your being that you can have the relationship you want, no settling AND you feel you deserve it, that's when that love appears.

It is a Higher Love than anything you've experienced before and it is REAL.

How do I know?

I found that for myself and I've helped countless clients from all different backgrounds, races, ages, socioeconomic statuses, body types, locations (all over the world), religions, careers. family dynamics and relationship histories do the same.

In the 12 years of doing this incredible love work with women, I've seen that by the time a woman reaches out to me to inquire about coaching, she usually knows and feels in her heart that I can really help her.

She trusts me and knows I have helped so many different kinds of women in all situations and circumstances find incredible love.

But....she might not fully trust herself or even, trust in love.

Every client I've ever had from my multi-7 figure boss babes to my single moms to my virgins saving themselves for marriage to my divorced 3x ladies to my emotionally abused survivors - you name it, has had fears before signing up. (yes, even the women who have literal millions had fears, it's not about the investment really)

When I see these fears, I have so much compassion but I also know that those exact fears are the things keeping you stuck.

When we FEEL different, like there's just something wrong with us deep down, like our personality, looks, history or life circumstances mean we can't find love, we create that

If you believe love is hard, it will hurt you, it will cost you, you'll never get what you want or you will but you'll lose it, you create that OR you create

Finding true love really is all about alignment within. The world will tell you that it's up to "luck" or it's random or maybe that it's not even really possible but none of that is true.

So, as you stand here on your path to love, at the part where it feels murky, clouded, and yes, BLOCKED.

I want to let you know that there is support for you, and that you deserve it.

I want to let you know that having someone who can lovingly and fiercely help you see where you are holding yourself back from receiving the love you ARE meant for is EVERYTHING.

Having someone who knows how amazing and powerful you are and who will ONLY ever hold the space for you to receive the highest possible love, no settling, is EVERYTHING.

Having someone witness you through the journey, with the utmost compassion and love, no judgment, is EVERYTHING because it helps you to bring that unconditional love to yourself, which is KEY if you want to attract a partner who truly adores everything about you and is a match.

This Love Elite private coaching journey is not for everyone but it is absolutely life changing for the women who do it because you literally shift your entire operating system in love from fear to LOVE. It changes your true vibration and from there, well, everything changes.

CLIENT SUCCESS STORY

My client J, a P.hD professor, proud strong black woman in her early 40s who wanted to find her husband and start a family was feeling super disempowered when we first started private coaching together.

She wanted to attract a black man who went to a HBCU, who wanted family, who would be committed, emotionally intelligent and available, be 100% comfortable being with a strong alpha woman but be masculine enough to lead and let her be in her feminine.

She's actually a Love Coach and she had a big vision for what she wanted in love plus, a whole community of women who she knew she'd inspire if she found the right man.

BUT....

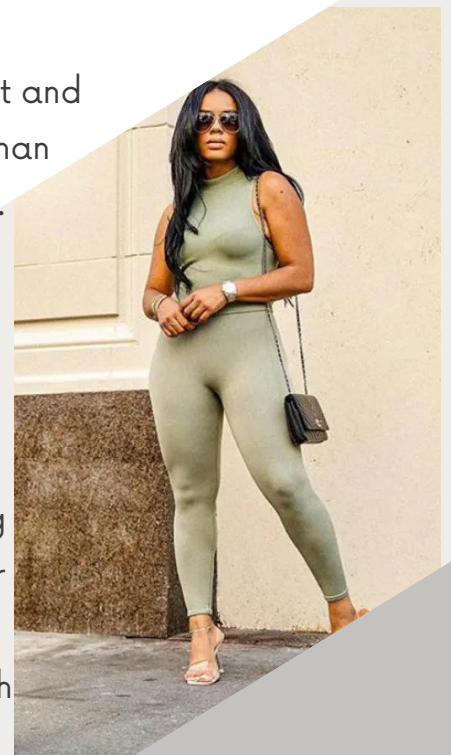

she lived in rural Pennsylvania where she told me that on dating apps, nearly all of the men were white and holding guns in their pics. (it's totally ok to want that kind of man, but it jsut wasn't HER vision - she had a very strong reason for wanting to be with a strong black man).

She had also been in a string of relationships and situationships with narcissistic and avoidant men and her past was just filled with so much pain.

Outside circumstances were not ideal to say the least.

It literally looked as if where she lived had zero chances of providing her a suitable man and she worked from home so she didn't exactly go "out there" to find a man either.

And, her past had taught her that pain was in her future. She had many unconcious expectations that men would not fully choose her, fail her, abandon her.

CLIENT SUCCESS STORY

Was her lived experience real?

Of course it was.

BUT....as long as she continued to blame the past experience + her current circumstances for the reason WHY she couldn't find true love, she was stuck.

Now, as I mentioned, my client is a Love Coach so it's not like logically she didn't know that what's within can block you from manifesting what you want,

BUT....she couldn't see all of her own blocks within.

Her pain and her limiting beliefs had a stronghold on her and there were deeper layers of blocks within that she couldn't get to on her own.

During our work together, my client took full responsibility for her love life, all of it. We shifted each and every one of her beliefs that were literally blocking the right man from coming in.

We worked on her fully healing from the past pain so she wasn't projecting it into the future anymore (and attracting men who mirrored the unhealed wounds).

We raised her feeling of worthiness so she didn't just want a high quality man, she actually truly in her bones felt WORTHY of the best of the best love.

AND, she got it.

A handsome black man who yes even went to a HBCU.

A family man who is 100% open to starting a family with her (and he already has kids so she gets the joy of instant family too plus the journey of pregnancy when it's time for her).

A true, committed King who treats her like a Queen.

Hear me on this:

It's ONLY when my client was finally ready to shift WITHIN, all of the blocks, limits and wounds that she had in the way of true love that her dream man came in, even as a strong black woman looking for a strong black man in rural Pennsylvania which to her felt like finding a needle in a haystack.

All of the women below did a combination of my incredible digital courses (which you get, as a bonus, when you join Love Elite + private coaching with me. They all started off in different places. Some were virgins waiting for marriage, some had already been married 3x and worried that no one would want them as a divorcee and single mom, some had never had a real relationship, some had been with a string of avoidant, narcissistic men. All ages, all backgrounds, careers, socioeconomic statuses, races, relationship histories, etc. The ONE thing they had in common was they had all gotten to the point where they were DONE with their love lives not working and they were ready to receive expert SUPPORT to clear away what was blocking them from the true love they deserved. It's NORMAL in my world to regularly wake up to messages from my clients saying: I met him!, we're engaged! we're having a baby! ETC. And they always say to me: you were RIGHT, Nicole, this relationship is even better than I imagined it would be.

I'm not sure if you got an e-mail from me recently but I'm dating the best man, thanks to you for your amazing coaching 🙏

Chantelle Dawson Hi Nicole Moore! First, I have a testimonial lol. Since working on the modules, I'm starting to feel so much better and not worry or have as much fear!! 🙏 And also my man is starting to show up differently (in a positive way) already and that feels amazing. I'm still dating for growth in the relationship though, but it feels great to see how inner work is changing what I'm seeing.

Jodie Kesterson Weekly Update:

This week marked 3 months since I began seeing Sam. I was aware of the milestone but didn't mention it to him... then was so pleasantly surprised when he brought it up unprompted this weekend! It means so much to me that he & I are both super enthusiastic about being with one another. This balance is something I've not experienced much in the past.

Neither of us had other commitments or obligations over the weekend, so it was the first time we got to spend the entirety of Friday night through Monday morning with each other. I don't think we'd even had a solid 24 hours together prior to this. It was wonderful! We had a full day of fun activities on Saturday... basically I showed him one of my favorite hiking trails, restaurants, and dive bars, all of which he totally loved. It feels so incredible to be with a man who genuinely appreciates the things I'm into! At the peak of the hiking trail, we snapped our first photo together 😊 Sunday we stayed in & collaboratively cooked a lovely meal. Afterward he showed me old home movies of him as a teen. I was so excited that he shared this with me... what awesome vulnerability he exhibited!

With Sam I feel so cherished, safe, respected, understood, and completely free to be my total authentic self. I never imagined I could have all of this. I wouldn't change a thing about how our relationship is developing. This man is beyond amazing.

Angelica Dawson

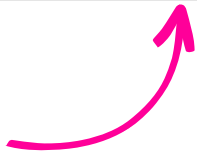

Nicole, you are the most legit coach out there! Thank you for always speaking the truth and pushing us to go past our fears!!!

This private client, who's a business owner worked on her love life and saw her business improve too. She started manifesting more from men and more opportunities and now, she's married to an amazing man.

The women below not only attracted amazing love via private coaching + Nicole's digital courses but they also saw massive benefits in other areas of their life too. From manifesting way more money to deep self love and improved relationships with family and friends, this work changes you on the deepest level. Messages Kris Wow!!!!!!!

Nicole, I took advantage of ONE coaching call (as a single mom, it's all I could afford) this past June. I have since found the LOVE of my life. Can I get a hallelujah. I hope this message finds you. You do incredible work helping women to see beyond what's in front of them and unlock their goddess from within. I started with the podcasts, and watching your videos. Took the leap and invested in a call! My life was already good, but it's elevated being madly in love with a man that has everything I was looking for. I'm still pinching myself and sometimes I think about it and get emotional. Thank you!!

ONE call with Nicole can be positively life changing. And, the cumulative effect of many powerful coaching calls over time is immense. Women often report that working with Nicole is better and more impactful than 10 years of therapy. And so many say it was the best investment of their life. Finding the right love and keeping it is a result that changes your life in the best possible way, for good and for every single year of your life to follow. When you work with Nicole, you'll notice that you have big insights, shifts and a-has during coaching calls, but there is also a cumulative effect over time and even in between calls. All calls are recorded, if you desire, so you can also re-listen when you need a boost.

SUCCESS STORY MY SUCCESS STORY MY SUCCESS ST

My parents never said “I love you” when I was a kid. In fact, the first time my mom ever uttered those words to me, I was 26 years old. I only saw my parents fighting and unhappy until they divorced when I was in middle school. So, the program I grew up with was that I was absolutely unloveable and that relationships = pain and suffering. It’s no surprise that dating was an absolute MESS for me given the low self worth and negative beliefs that were running the show. I attracted unavailable men, ghosters, weirdos and was even in a five year relationship with an emotionally abusive serial cheating narcissist. ., What never changed, though, was I had an insatiable desire to make Love WORK. Eventually, I took my own advice and applied every single thing I ever taught a client to find love and it WORKED. I met my incredible husband, who is a perfect match for me and we the most incredible son.

LOVE COACHING FAQS

What happens if I don't find love within the 9 month Love Elite container?

You find love at some point thereafter! Seriously. I'm not a psychic, so I can't predict when true love will come in but after doing this work for so long, I do kind of know.

I can feel when a client is going to manifest her man soon when I feel what I call "the click."

It's when her energy has TRULY shifted, she's vibrating at love, she feels her worth, not thinks she deserves it ,but feels it, she's no longer fearing love will hurt her, She knows she is CREATING her love life from within, so she is just excited for it to come in. She is not in lack, she's in the vibration of having it.

My work is to help you get to that place, to "the click" because truly, it is only a matter of time, usually short, that love comes in when you're there. We clear the blocks so you can get to that aligned energy where love just comes in.

The majority of my clients find love within our timeframe and are so happy they have additional support to work through the early stages of their new relationship.

2) I've already done work with other coaches or done inner work in the past and I still don't have love. How is this different?

SO many of my clients have worked with other coaches and either not gotten results or had not so great experiences.

So, I can understand the fear here.

BUT what I always say is It's exactly like relationships.

If you had a horrible ex who treated you poorly, a truly amazing guy could come your way and you might feel fear.

You would have to listen to your INTUITION, then, to tell you if you should trust this new guy because your mind would likely be filled with fear.

So, feel free to do the same with me. If your intuition says YES, trust it.

And likewise if your intuition truly says no to this program please don't do it. I would NEVER ever want you to over-ride your intuition and truth to join.

What I can say though is: I have never met another coach who shifts clients at the core vibrational level like I do. When I say you literally BECOME love in your vibration and so great love flows to you. I truly mean it.

LOVE COACHING FAQS

3) Can't I just figure out my love life on my own or hope that it gets better somehow on it's own? Maybe I'll just meet someone.

Yes, the truth is, if you just keep on going about your life you probably WILL meet someone. That's how life goes, you eventually meet someone.

BUT...will it be true, healed love?

Will it be the highest level relationship possible?

Will it be someone who mirrors your worth, not your wounds?

Probably not if you don't shift what's within.

Love is the one area where energy doesn't lie and we are always getting back a mirror of what's truly within.

We can't hide in love.

We really do attract people who mirror the wounds UNTIL we heal them.

And yes, there are some "flukes". There are those "lucky" people who just seem to have stumbled upon truly incredible love.

BUT, if you actually got into their mind, their heart and their energy you'd see that they likely operate VERY differently in love from how you do now.

Kind of like if someone had weight and binge eating issues their whole life and said well, some people are naturally skinny and can eat whatever they want so why can't I?!!!

Their insides are literally different, that's why.

This program is about getting your INSIDES, your mindset, your heart, your energy to MATCH that of someone who attracts the best kind of love and keeps it.

That is the secret of this work.

4) I'm scared of investing money and not getting what I want. I know people who didn't have to pay to do love coaching to find love, so why should I have to invest?

. Your energy might be so focused on NOT getting what you want rather than putting yourself all in in a container where you can align to get what you want.

But, to put your mind at ease, sometimes it helps thinking about the investment in terms of true skills learned and how that will impact you for LIFE rather than focusing on the end result and fear you won't get it.

What's the benefit of knowing how to clear EVERY limiting belief and snap into feeling fully worthy of having what you want?

What's the benefit of knowing HOW to communicate from love, not fear or anger, so every single communication you have moving forward with a man, your man, or even at work or with family is 1000x more successful and less likely to end in a fight? What's the benefit of HEALING from your childhood wounds - of FINALLY stopping the inner little girl from running the show so you stop attracting situations in your life that mirror your childhood wounds?

What is the benefit of TRUE healing in this area of your life?

IF your answer is priceless, or you can see how it would positively impact not just your love life, but EVERY area of your life to finally let go of the inner little girl wounds, limits and blocks that are holding you back then you have your answer.

The funny thing is, by the time my clients manifest their man they feel like it's ICING ON THE CAKE.

Truly.

Because they love how much they have shifted within, they love how powerful they feel within, they love how much their manifesting power has grown, they love how much better they communicate, they love how much better their relationships are because they are leading from love, they love how much their worth has increased, they love how much they truly love themselves now, they love how HEALED they feel within.

So, by the time the man shows up, it feel like the most amazing thing ever, yes but it also feels like OF COURSE this happened because look at how good I feel on the inside now.
