Financial Assistance, using Connect Health in Colorado If You Don't Qualify for Health First Colorado or Baby Health Plan Plus That you could get financial help to reduce the cost of private health insurance through Connect Health Colorado. The amount of financial assistance you can receive is based on the cost of the bonuses you live in, how many people are in your household and your estimated annual income. The requirements of this group are the same as those listed in the family Medicaid program. Other Medicaid programs make health care available to the elderly and people with disabilities. For more information about these programs, please see Health First Colorado (Colorado's Medicaid Program) Like private health insurance, both programs provide coverage for medical and dental care participating Medicaid and CHP+ both cover a range of services including: Regular checkups and doctor visits immunization (shots) Prescriptions (medicine) Prenatal care and labor and delivery hospital services Mental health services Eye care and glasses Hearing aids Dental services Dental care (CHP+ is a $600 annual limit per child) For more information about benefits and help finding a doctor, please see the Healthy Communities page. Depending on the size and income of your household family, you may need to pay a registration fee of up to $105 annually in addition to co-pays when you receive services. There are no monthly bonuses and pregnant women have no co-pays. Choose Colorado Access as your CHP+ plan, and enjoy the additional benefits other plans don't offer. Additional benefits include: an additional $100 in visual benefit. Each participant receives a $150 visual benefit each year. Buy lenses, frames or contacts. Another 10 outpatient physical rehabilitation visits. Each participant receives 40 visits (for diagnosis) each year. If you have questions about your CHP plan, call us. If you want to know if your child is eligible for CHP+, you can see income matching requirements here. Or call us and we can help you find out. To get started, visit the Colorado PEAK site today if you have any problems with your CHP+ compliance or enrollment, please call Health First Colorado Enrollment at 888-367-6557. The benefits of your vision depend on what type of coverage you have. If you have: Cogeneration + State Managed Care Network are plan members are placed: before the HMO period: this is the period from the participant's initial registration until the participant is registered for cogeneration participating in HMO. Prenatal Plan: This is a plan for pregnant women (Colorado residents) aged 19 and older that covers all pregnancy care, including labor and delivery and visits after you deliver. Presumptive entitlement: The Presumptive Eligibility Program gives children under 19 and pregnant women temporary Health First Colorado (Colorado's Medicaid Program) or Children's Health Plan Plus (CHP+) medical coverage right away. Temporary medical coverage lasts at least 45 days while your medical application is being processed. Children placed on the CHP + National Managed Care Network program are usually on it for 30-60 days. Then you can choose HMO. Colorado Access is one of six HMO in the country.
