Ways to SHOW & GO at Luke 4:18

Light of the Village is a ministry located in Prichard, AL that aims to reach inner city communities with Christ's message of hope, love, and redemption. To learn more about serving on the fourth Wednesday of each month from Sept. - May contact Barbara Barber at (251)689-9588.

Our Food Pantry opens its doors on the second Thursday of each month from 9:30 - 11AM where we serve the community by handing out food staples, bread, and desserts as well as sharing the gospel, praying, and investing in them. If you are interested in helping, contact Elaine Nicholson at (251)666-5402.

Food Pick Up/Delivery There are several chances each week to serve those who are homebound by picking up food donations and delivering them to those in need. For more info, contact Elaine Nicholson at (251)666-5402.

Bible Club takes place at area schools on Weds. after dismissal. There will be training ahead of time to go over how to approach Biblical teaching in a public school setting. To learn about training and serving in Bible Club, contact Bro. Cary at (251)281-1418.
